
19 And they smote him on the head with a reede, and spat vpon him, and bowed the knees, and did him reuerence.

20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke the purple off him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 And they compelled one that passed by called Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the country, and was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse.

22 And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of dead mens skulls.

23 And they gaue him to drinke wine mingled with myrrhe: but he receiued it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots for them, what euery man should haue.

25 And it was the third houre when they crucified him.

26 And the title of his cause was written about, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And hee was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Hee that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes, 30 Save thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the high Priests mocking, said among themselves with the Scribes, He saved other men, himselfe hee cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel now come downe from the crosse, that wee may see, and beleue. They also that were crucified with him, reuiled him.

33 Now when the first houre was come, darknesse arose ouer all the land vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loud voyce, saying, Eli, Eli, lamahabachani: which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken mee?

35 And some of them that stood by when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone: let vs see if Elias will come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the ghost.

38 And the haile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Now when the Centurion, which stood ouer against him, saw that he thus crying gaue vp the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Sonne of God.

40 There were also women, which beheld a farre off, among whom was Marie Magdalene, & Mary (the mother of James the lesse, and of Ioses, and Salome, 41 Which also when hee was in Galile, followed him, and ministered vnto him, and many other women which came by with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 And now when night was come, (because it was the day of the preparation, that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an honourable Councellour, which also looked for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if hee were already dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether he had bene any while dead.

45 And when hee knewe the truth of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Ioseph, 46 Who bought a linnen cloth, and tooke him downe, and wrapped him in the linnen cloth, and layd him in a tombe that was hewen out of a rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre.

47 And Marie Magdalene, and Marie Ioses mother beheld where he should be laid.

2 Therefore early in the morning, the first day of the weeke, they came vnto the sepulchre, when the Sunne was yet rising.

3 And they sayde one to another, Who shall roll vs away the stone from the doore of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they sawe that the stone was rolled away (for it was a very great one.)

5 So they went into the sepulchre, and sawe a yong man sitting at the right side clothed in a long white robe: and they were afraid.

6 But he said vnto them, Be not afraid: yee seeke Iesus of Nazaret, which hath bene crucified: he is risen: he is not here: behold the place where they put him.

7 But goe your way, and tell his disciples, and Peter, that he will goe before you into Galile, there shall ye see him, as he said vnto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre: for they trembled, and were amazed: neither sayd they any thing to any man: for they were afraid.

5 Of Zacharias & Elisabeth. 11 The Angel sheweth him of the natiuity of Iohn Baptist, 20 His incredulity is punished, 28 The talke of the Angel & Mary. 46 Her song. 57 The birth, circumcision and graces of Iohn. 68 Zacharias giueth thanks to God and prophesieth.

Inasmuch as many haue taken in hand to set forth the story of those things wherof we are fully persuaded.

2 As they haue deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning saw them their selues, and were ministers of the word.

3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) alsoone as I had searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point.

4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certainty of those things wherof thou hast bene instructed.

5 In the time of Herod king of Iudea there was a certaine Priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 Both were just before God, and walked in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord, without reproofe.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren: and both were well stricken in age.

8 And it came to passe, as he executed the priests office before God, as his course came in order.

9 According to the custome of the Priests office, his lot was to burne incense when he went into the Temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, while the incense was burning.

11 Then appeared vnto him an Angel of the Lord standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and feare fell vpon him.

13 But the Angel said vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Iohn.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnes, and many shall reioyce at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, & shall neither drinke wine nor strong drinke: and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.

16 And many of the children of Israel shall be turned to their Lord God.

17 For hee shall goe before him in the Spirit and power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just men, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 Then Zacharias said vnto the Angel, wherby shall I know this: for I am an old man, and my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angel answered, and said vnto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God, & am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shew thee these good tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumbe, and not be able to speake vntill the day that these things be done: because thou hast bene distrustful of my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

i The Temple was diuided into three parts: the first was the body of the Temple called Atrium, where the people was: the second called Sanctum, where the priests and Levites were: and the third Sanctum Sanctorum, into the which the high Priest entred once a yeere to sacrifice. x It shalbe a secret operation of the holy Ghost, y He must be pure & without sin, which must take away the finnes of the world z Notwithstanding that Elizabeth was married to one of the tribe of Levi, yet she was Maries cousin, which was of the stocke of Dauid, For the law which forbade marriage out of their owne tribe, was onely that the tribes should not be mixt & confounded, which could not be in marrying with the Leuites: for they had no portion assigned vnto them.

21 Now the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speake vnto them: then they perceiued that he had seene a vision in the Temple: for hee made signes vnto them, and remayned dumbe.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes his wife Elizabeth conceived, and bore her selfe fure moneths, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with mee, in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take from me my rebuke among men.

26 And in the first moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a city of Galilee, named Nazaret, 27 To a virgin affianced to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Mary.

28 And the Angel went in vnto her, and said, Hail thou that art freely beloved: the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and thought what manner of salutation that should be.

30 Then the Angel said vnto her, Feare not Mary: for thou hast found fauour with God.

31 For loe, thou shalt conceive in thy wombe, and beare a Son, and shalt call his Name Iesus.

32 He shalbe great, and shall be called the Sonne of the most high, and the Lord God shall giue vnto him the Throne of his father Dauid, 33 And he shall reigne ouer the house of Jacob for euer, and of his kingdome shall be none end.

34 Then sayde Mary vnto the Angel, How shall this bee, seeing I know not man?

35 And the Angel answered and said vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the most high shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shalbe borne of thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.

36 And behold, thy cousin Elizabeth, she hath also conceived a sonne in her elde age: and this is her first moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall nothing be impossible.

38 Then Mary said, Behold the seruant of the Lord: be it vnto me according to thy word. So the Angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those dayes, and went into the hill countrey with haste to a cite of Iuda,

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to passe, as Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe sprang in her belly, and Elisabeth was filled with the holy Ghost.

42 And she cryed with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, because the fruit of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence cometh this to me, that the Mother of my Lorde should come to me?

44 For loe, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my belly for ioy, 45 And blessed is she that beleued: for those things shall be performed, which were told her from the Lord.

46 Then Mary said, My soule magnifieth the Lord.

47 And my spirit reioyeth in God my Saviour.

48 For he hath looked on the poore degree of his seruant: for behold, from henceforth shall all ages call me blessed.

49 Because he that is mighty hath done for me great things, and holy is his Name.

50 And his mercy is from generation to generation on them that feare him.

51 For he hath shewed strength with his arme: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 Hee hath put downe the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He hath filled he hungry with good things, and sent away the rich empty.

54 He hath upholden Israel his seruant, being full of his mercy, 55 As he hath spoken to our fathers, to wit, to Abraham, and his seed, for euer.

56 And Mary abode with her about three moneths: after, shee returned to her owne house.

57 Now Elisabeths time was fulfilled that she should be deliuered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbors and cousins heard tell how the Lorde had shewed his great mercy vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it was so that on the eight day they came to circumcise the babe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered and sayde, Not so, but he shall be called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kindred that is named with this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how he would haue him called.

63 So he asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is Iohn: and they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and hee spake and praised God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt nere vnto them, and all these words were noyed abroad throughout all the hill country of Iuda.

6 And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished that she should be deliuered.

7 And she brought forth her * first begotten Sonne, and wrapped him in a * cratch, because there was no roome for them in the Inne.

8 And there were in the same countrey shepherds abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night because of their flocke.

9 And loe, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and the glory of the Lord shone about them, and they were sore afraid.

10 Then the Angel said vnto them, Be not afraid: for behold, I bring you tidings of great joy, that shall be to all the people:

11 That is, that vnto you is borne this day in the citie of * David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a signe to you, Ye shall find the childe swaddled, and layd in a cratch.

13 And straightway there was with the Angel a multitude of heauenly souldiers, praising God, and saying, 14 Glory bee to God in the high heauens, and peace in earth, and towards men * good will.

15 And it came to passe when the Angels were gone away from them into heauen, that the shepherds said one to another, Let vs goe then vnto Beth-lehem, and see this thing, that is come to passe, which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs.

16 So they came with haste, and found both Mary and Ioseph, and the babe layd in the cratch.

17 And when they had seene it, they published abroad the thing, which was tolde them of that childe.

18 And all that heard it, wondered at the things which were tolde them of the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all those sayings, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God, for all that they had heard & seene, as it was spoken vnto them.

and foure yeeres, and went not out of the Temple, but serued God with fastings and prayers, night and day.

38 She then comming at the same instant vpon them, confessed likewise the Lord, and spake of him to all that looked for redemption in Ierusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the Lawe of the Lord, they returned into Galile to their owne citie Nazaret.

40 And the childe grew and waxed strong in spirit, and was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was with him.

41 Now his parents went to Ierusalem euery yeere, at the feast of the Passoe-uer.

42 And when hee was twelue yeere elde, and they were come vp to Ierusalem after the custome of the feast,

43 And had finished the dayes thereof, as they returned, the childe Iesus remained in Ierusalem, and Ioseph knew not nor his mother,

44 But they supposing that he had beene in the company, went a dayes iourney and sought him among their kinsfolke, and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned backe to Ierusalem, and sought him.

46 And it came to passe thre dayes after that they found him in the Temple, sitting in the middes of the doctozs, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him, were astonied at his vnderstanding, and answers.

48 So when they saue him, they were amased, and his mother sayde vnto him, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with vs?

beholde, thy father and I haue sought thee with heauie hearts.

49 Then said hee vnto them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that I must goe about my fathers businesse?

50 But they vnderstood not the word that he spake to them.

51 Then he went downe with them, and came to Nazaret, and was subject to them:
and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Iesus increased in wisdom, and stature, and in fauour with God and men.

CHAP. III.

3 The preaching, baptisme, and prisonment of Iohn. 15 He is thought to be Christ. 21 Christ is baptized. 23 His age and genealogie.

Now in the fiftenth yeere of the reigne of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being gouernour of Iudea, and Herode being Tetrarch of Galile, and his brother Philip Tetrarch of Iurra, and of the countrey of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the Tetrarch of Abilene,

2 When Annas and Caiaphas were the high Priestes, the word of God came vnto Iohn, the sonne of Zacharias, in the wil-dernes.

3 And hee came into all the coastes about Iordan, preaching the baptisme of repentance for the remission of sinnes.

4 As it is written in the booke of the sayings of Esaias the Prophet, which saith,
The voice of him that crieth in the wildernes is, Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and euery mountaine, and hill shall be brought low, and crooked things shall be made straight, and the rough shall be made smooth.

6 And all flesh shall see the saluation of God.

7 Then said hee to the people that were come out to be baptized of him, O generations of vipers, who hath forewarned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore frutes worthy amendment of life, and begin not to say with your selues, We haue Abraham to our father: for I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to raise vp children vnto Abraham.

9 Nowe also is the care layde vnto the roote of the trees: therefore euery tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, shall be hewen downe, and cast into the fire.

10 Then the people asked him, saying,
What shall we doe then?

11 And he answered, and said vnto them, Wee that hath two coats, let him part with him that hath none: and he that hath meat, let him doe likewise.

12 Then came theres Publicanes also to bee baptized, and said vnto him, Master,
what shall we doe?

13 And hee said vnto them, Require no more then that which is appointed vnto you.

14 The souldiers likewise demanded of him,

15 As the people waited, and all men mused in their hearts of Iohn, if he were not the Christ,

16 Iohn answered, and sayd to them all, * Indeed I baptize you with water, but one stronger then I cometh, whose shoos latcher I am not worthy to vnloose; he will baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

17 * Whose fanne is in his hand, and he will make cleane his floore, and will gather the wheate into his garner, but the chaffe will he burne vpon with fire that neuer shall be quenched.

18 Thus then exhorting with many other things, he preached vnto the people.

19 * But when Herod the Tetrarch was rebuked of him for Herodias his brother Philips wife, and for all the euils which Herod had done.

20 He added yet this aboue all, that hee shut vp Iohn in prison.

21 * Now it came to passe, as all the people were baptized, that Iesus was baptized, and did pray, that the heauen was opened:

22 And the holy Ghost came downe in a bodily shape like a dove vpon him; and there was a voice from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued Sonne: in thee I am well pleased.

23 * And Iesus himselfe began to be about thirtie yeres of age, being as men suppose the sonne of Ioseph, which was the sonne of Eli,

24 The sonne of Matthat, the sonne of Levi, the sonne of Melchi, the sonne of Ianna, the sonne of Ioseph, 25 The sonne of Mattathias, the sonne of Amos, the sonne of Naum, the sonne of Eli, the sonne of Ragge,

28 The sonne of Melchi, the sonne of Addi, the sonne of Cosam, the sonne of Elmodai, the sonne of Er,

29 The sonne of Ioseph, the sonne of Eliezer, the sonne of Iozin, the sonne of Matthat, the sonne of Levi,

30 The sonne of Simeon, the sonne of Iuda, the sonne of Ioseph, the sonne of Ionan, the sonne of Elachim, 31 The sonne of Melea, the sonne of Matthan, the sonne of Mattathia, the sonne of Nathan, the sonne of David,

32 The sonne of Jesse, the sonne of Obed, the sonne of Booz, the sonne of Salmon, the sonne of Dauid, 33 The sonne of Amiadab, the sonne of Aram, the sonne of Elrom, the sonne of Phares, the sonne of Iuda, 34 The sonne of Iacob, the sonne of Isaac, the sonne of Abraham, the sonne of Thara, the sonne of Nachor, 35 The sonne of Saruth, the sonne of Ragau, the sonne of Phalec, the sonne of Eber,

36 The sonne of Cainan, the sonne of Arphaxad, the sonne of Sem, the sonne of Noe, the sonne of Lamech, 37 The sonne of Mathusala, the sonne of Enoch, the sonne of Jared, the sonne of Malchiel, the sonne of Cainan.

38 The sonne of Enos, the sonne of Seth, the sonne of Adam, the sonne of God.

1 Iesus is led into the wilderness to bee tempted.

13 Hee overcometh the deuill. 14 Hee goeth into Galile, 16. Preacheth at Nazaret, and Capernaum.

22 The Iewes despise him. 38 Hee cometh into Peters house, and healeth his mother in law. 41 The deuils acknowledge Christ. 43 Hee preacheth thorow the cities.

As Iesus full of the holy Ghost returned from Iordan, and was led by the spirit into the wilderness.

2 * And was there forty dayes tempted of the deuill, and in those dayes he did eate nothing: but when they were ended, he afterward was hungry.

3 Then the deuill said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It is written, * That man shall not lue by bread onely, but by every word of God.

5 Then the deuill tooke him vp into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, in the twinkling of an eye.

6 And the deuill sayd vnto him, All this power will I giue thee, and the glory of those kingdomes: for that is deliuered to me; and to whomsoever I will, I giue it:

7 If thou therefore wilt worship mee, they shall be all thine.

8 But Iesus answered him, and said, * Hence from me, Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him alone shalt thou serue.

9 Then hee brought him to Ierusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the Temple, and said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence,

10 For it is written, * That he will giue his Angels charge ouer thee to keepe thee:

11 And with their hands they shall lift thee vp, lest at any time thou shouldest dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, It is said, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the deuill had ended all the temptation, hee departed from him for a season.

p Full of dignitie, and maiestie, which touched the heart of the auditours, and caused them to beare reuerence to his words.

q That is, the motion of the deuill, or thar was tormented with a very deuill.

15 For hee taught in thofe Synagogues and was honoured of all.

16 And hee came to Nazaret, where he had bene brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood vp to reade.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Esaias: and when hee opened the booke, hee found the place, where it was written,

18 The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath anointed me, that I should preach the Gospel to the poore: hee hath sent mee that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliuerance to the captiues, and recovering of sight to the blind, that I should set at libertie them that are bound.

19 And that I should preach the acceptable yere of the Lord.

20 And hee closed the booke, and gane it againe to the minister, and sat downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then hee began to say vnto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all bare him witnesse, and wondered at the gracious wordes, which proceeded out of his mouth, and sayd, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then hee said vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto mee this prouerbe, Physician, heale thy selfe: Whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

24 And hee sayd, Verily I say vnto you, No Prophet is accepted in his owne countrey.

25 But I tell you of a truthe, many widowes were in Israel in the dayes of Elias, when heauen was shut thre yeres and sixe moneths, when great famine was throughout all the land.

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, save into Sarepta, a cite of Sidon, vnto a certaine widowe.

27 Also many lepers were in Israel, in the tyme of Elisha the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then at that were in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were filled with wrath.

29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the cite, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their cite was built, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But hee passed through the mids of them, and went his way.

31 And came downe into Capernaum, a cite of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his word was with authoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an uncleane deuill, which cryed with a loud voyce, 34 Saying, Oh, what haue we to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret: art thou come to destroy vs? I know who thou art, even the holy One of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill shewing him in the mids of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselves, saying, What thing is this? for with authoritie and power he commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spread abroad throughout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 And hee rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house, and Simons wiues mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

39 Then he stood ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediatly she arose, and ministered vnto them.

40 Now when the Sunne was downe, all they that had sicke folkes of diuers diseases brought them vnto him, and he layd his hands on euery one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying, and saying, Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: but hee rebuked them, and suffered them not to say that they knew him to be the Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went forth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him, that hee should not depart from them.

43 But he sayd vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdom of God to other cities: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galile.

3 And hee entred into one of the ships which was Simons, and required him that hee would thrust off a little from the land: and hee sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when hee had left speaking, hee sayd vnto Simon, Launch out into the deepe, and let downe your nets to make a draught.

5 Then Simon answered, and said vnto him, Master, we haue trauelled all night, and haue taken nothing: neuertheless at thy word I will let downe the net.

6 And when they had so done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, so that their net brake.

7 And they beckened to their partners, which which were in the other shippe, that they should come and helpe them, who came then and filled both the shippes, that they did sunke.

8 Now when Simon Peter saw it, hee fell downe at Iesus knees, saying, Lord, goe from me, for I am a sinfull man.

9 For he was utterly astonied, and all that were with him, for the draught of fishes which they tooke.

10 And so was also James and John the sonnes of Zebedeus, which were companions with Simon. Then Iesus sayd vnto Simon, Feare not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought the shippes to land, they forsooke all, and followed him.

12 ¶ Now it came to passe, as hee was in a certaine citie, behold, there was a man full of leprosie, and when hee sawe Iesus, hee fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 So he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, bee thou cleane. And immediatly the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he commanded him that he should tell it no man: but goe, saith he, and shew thy selfe to the Priest, and offer for thy cleansing as Moyses hath commanded, for a witnesse vnto them.

15 But so much more went there a lame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.

16 But he kept himselfe apart in the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to passe on a certaine day as hee was teaching, that the Pharisees and doctors of the Law late by, which were come out of euery towne of Galilee, and Iudea, and Ierusalem, and the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.

18 ¶ Then behold, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palse, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the palse, they went vp on the house, and let him downe through the tiling bed and all, in the mids before Iesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said vnto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees began to thinke, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sinnes, but God onely?

22 But when Iesus perceined their thoughts, he answered, and said vnto them, What thinke ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee, or to say, Rise, and walke?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authoritie to forgive sinnes in earth, (he said vnto the sicke of the palse) I say to thee, Arise: take vp thy bed, and goe to thine house.

25 And immediatly hee rose vp before them, and tooke vp his bed whereon hee lay, and departed to his owne house, praying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and praised God, and were filled with feare, saying, Doubtlesse wee haue seene strange things to day.

27 ¶ And after that he went forth and saw a Publicane named ¶ Leui, sitting at the receit of Customs, and said vnto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose vp, and followed him.

29 Then Leui made him a great feast in his owne house, where there was a great company of Publicanes, and of other that sat at table with them.

30 But they that were Scribes and Pharisees among them, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why eate ye, and drinke ye with Publicanes and sinners?

31 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, They that are whole, neede not the Physician, but they that are sicke.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ Then they said vnto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and pray, and the disciples of the Pharisees also, but thine eate and drinke?

34 And he said vnto them, Can ye make the children of the wedding chamber to fast as long as the bridegrome is with them?

35 But the daies will come when the bridegrome shall be taken away from them: then shall they fast in those daies.

36 Again he spake also vnto them a parable, No man putteth a piece of a new garment into an olde vesture: for then the new renteth it, and the piece taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 ¶ Also no man powreth new wine into olde vessels: for then the new wine will breake the vessels, and it wil run out, and the vessels will perishe.

38 But new wine must be powred into new vessels: so both are preserved.

39 Also no man that drinketh olde wine, straightway desireth new, for he saith, The old is better.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, and stand up in the midst. And he arose and stood up.

9 Then said Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, Whether is it lawfull on the Sabbath dayes to doe good, or to doe euill: to saue life, or to destroy it?

10 And hee beheld them all in compasse, and said vnto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And hee did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled full of madnesse and communed one with another, what they might doe to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, that he went into a mountaine to pray, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called his disciples, and of them he chose twelue which also hee called Apostles.

14 (Simon whom he named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip, and Bartlemew:

15 Matthew, and Thomas: James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon called zealous, 16 Judas James brother, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 Then he came downe with them, and stood in a plaine place, with the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea and Ierusalem, and from the Sea coast of Tyrus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted vp his eyes vpon his disciples, and said, Blessed bee ye * poore for yours is the kingdome of God.

21 * Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shalbe satisfied. Blessed are ye that * weepe now: for ye shal laugh.

22 * Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when they separate you, and reuile you, and put out your name as euill, for the Son of mans sake.

23 Reioyce ye in that day, and be glad: for behold, your reward is great in heauen: for after this manner their fathers did to the Prophets.

24 * But woe be to you that are rich: for ye haue receiued your consolation

25 Woe be to you that are full: for ye shal hunger. Woe be to you that now laugh: for ye shal waile and weepe.

26 Woe be to you when all men speake well of you, for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ But I say vnto you which heare, Love your enemies: doe well to them which hate you.

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which hurt you.

29 ¶ And vnto him that smiteth thee on the one cheeke, offer also the other: * and him that taketh away thy cloke, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Giue to every man that asketh of thee, and of him that taketh away thy goods, aske them not againe.

31 ¶ And as ye would that men should do to you, so doe ye to them likewise.

32 * For if ye loue them which loue you, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the sinners loue those that loue them.

33 And if ye doe good for them which do good for you, what thanke shall you haue? for euen the sinners doe the same.

34 ¶ And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receiue, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the sinners lend to sinners, to receiue the like.

35 Wherefore loue ye your enemies, & doe good and lend, looking for nothing againe, and your reward shalbe great, and ye shalbe the children of * the most High: for he is kind vnto the vnkind, and to the euill.

36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your Father also is mercifull.

37 ¶ Judge not, & ye shal not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shal not be condemned: forgive, and ye shalbe forgiven.

38 Giue, and it shalbe giuen vnto you, * a good measure, pressed downe, shaken together, & running ouer shal men giue into your bosom: for with what measure ye mete, with the same shall men mete to you againe.

39 And hee spake a parable vnto them, Can the blinde leade the blinde? shall not they both fall into the ditch?

40 ¶ The disciple is not aboue his Master: but whosoever wil be a perfect disciple, shall be as his master.

41 ¶ And why seekest thou a mote in thy brothers eye, and considerest not the beame that is in thine owne eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou seeest not the beame that is in thine owne eye? Hypocrite, cast out the beame out of thine owne eye first, and then shalt thou see perfectly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

a It might bee that this captaine did lie with his garison in Cepernaum.

b In building them a Temple for their assemblies, hee shewed his zeale towards the true seruice of God.

c The friends speake to Iesus in the captaines name.

d Or command by a word onely that it to be.

e He commendeth this heathen captaine, because he assueth himselfe vpon Christs word alone.

When he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, hee entred into Cepernaum.

2 And a certaine Centurions seruant was sicke and readie to die, which was deare vnto him.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, hee sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that hee would come and heale his seruant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying, that hee was worthy that he should doe this for him.

5 For hee loueth, sayd they, our nation, and he hath built vs a Synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when he was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter vnder my roofe.

7 Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but say the word, and my seruant shall be whole.

8 For I likewise am a man set vnder authority, and haue vnder mee souldiers, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth, and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my seruant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, hee marvelled at him, and turned him and said to the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, no nor in Israel.

10 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they found the seruant that was sicke, whole.

11 And it cam to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called Pain, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

12 Now when hee came nere to the gate of the city, behold there was a dead man carried out, who was the only begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widow, and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, hee had compassion on her, and sayd vnto her, Marce not.

14 And he went and touched the coffin, (and they that bare him, stood still) and hee sayd, Pong man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

15 And hee that was dead, sat vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certain men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou hee that should come, or shall we wait for another?

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they sayd, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou hee that should come, or shall we waite for another?

21 And at that time hee cured many of their sicknesses and plagues, and of euill spirits, and vnto many blind men hee gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered and sayd vnto them, Goe your wayes and shew Iohn what things ye haue seene & heard: that the blind see, the halt goe, the lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise againe, and the poore receiue the Gospel.

23 And blessed is hee, that shall not be offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, hee began to speake vnto the people of Iohn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reede shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and linc delicate ly, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, and greater then a Prophet.

27 This is hee of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are begotten of women: neuer thelesse, he that is the least in the kingdome of God, is greater then hee.

30 But the Pharisees and the scribes of the Law despised the counsell of God against themselves, and were not baptised of him.

31 * And the Lord said, Whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation? & what thing are they like unto?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not danced: wee haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

33 For Iohn Baptist came, neither eating bread, nor drinking wine: and ye say, He hath the deuill.

34 The Sonne of man is come, and eateth and drinketh: and ye say, Behold, a man which is a glutton, and a drinker of wine, a friend of Publicanes and sinners.

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 * And one of the Pharisees desired him that hee would eate with him: and hee went into the Pharisees house, and sat down at table.

37 And beholde, a woman in the citie, which was a sinner, when shee knewe that Iesus sat at table in the Pharisees house, shee brought a booke of ointment.

38 * And she stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with teares, and did wipe them with the haire of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisees which had heard him, saw it, they spake with themselves, saying, If this man were a Prophet, he should surely haue knowne, who, and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him: for shee is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender, which had two debtors: the one ought him hundred pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothing to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and sayd, I suppose, that hee to whom hee forgave most. And hee sayd vnto him, Thou hast truly iudged.

44 Then hee turned to the woman, and sayd vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, and thou gauest me no water to my feet: but she hath washed my feet with teares, and wiped them with the haire of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kisse: but shee since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feet.

46 Mine head with oyle thou diddest not anoynt: but she hath anoynted my feet with ointment.

47 Therefore I say vnto thee, Many sinnes are forgiven her: for shee loued much. To whom a little is forgiven, shee doeth loue a little.

48 And hee sayd vnto her, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

49 And they that sat at table with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that euen forgiveth sinnes?

50 And he sayd to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee, goe in peace.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ with his Apostles goe from towne to towne, and preach. 3 The women minister vnto them of their goods. 5 Hee sheweth the parable of the seeds. 21 Hee telleth who is his mother and his brother. 24 Hee sheweth the raging of the lake. 27 He delivereth the possessed. 33 The deuils enter into the herde of swine. 41 He healeth the sicke woman, and hairens daughter.

And it came to passe afterward, that hee himselfe went through euery citie and towne, preaching, and publishing the kingdom of God, and the twelve were with him.

2 And certaine women which were healed of euill spirits, and infirmities, as Mary which was called Magdalene, out of whom went seven deuils,

3 And Iohnna the wife of Chuza, Herodes steward, and Sulanna and many other which ministered vnto him of their substance.

4 * Now when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all citie, he spake by a parable.

5 A sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was trodden under feet, and the fowles of heauen deuoured it up.

6 And some fell on the stones, and when it was sprung vp it withered away, because it lacked moistnesse.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes sprung up with it, and choked it.

8 And some fell on good ground, and sprung up and bare fruit, an hundred fold. And as he said these things, he cried, Whom hath eares to heare, let him heare.

9 Then his disciples asked him, Demanding what parable that was.

10 And he said, Vnto you it is giuen to know the secrets of the kingdom of God, but to other in parables, that when they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not understand.

11 * The parable is this, the seed is the word of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterward cometh the deuill, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should beleue, and be saved.

13 But they that are on the stones are they which when they haue heard, receiue the word with ioy: but they haue no rootes, which for a while beleue, but in the time of temptation goe away.

14 And that which fell among thornes, are they which haue heard, and after their departure are choked with cares, and with riches, and voluptuous lining, and bring forth no fruit.

21 But he answered, and said vnto them, My mother, and my brethren are these which heare the word of God, and doe it.

22 * And it came to passe on a certaine day, that hee went into a ship with his disciples, and he said vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto the other side of the lake. And they laun-ched forth.

23 And as they sailed, he fell asleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in feardie.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, wee perishe. And he arole, and rebuked the winde, and the waves of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then hee said vnto them, Where is your faith? And they feared, and wondered among themselves, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the windes and water, and they obey him?

26 * So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Ga-lile.

27 And as hee went out to land, there met him a certaine man out of the citie, which had a deuill long time, and hee ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graues.

28 And when he saw Iesus, he cryed out, and fell downe before him, and with a loude voice sayd, What haue I to doe with thee, Iesus the Sonne of God, the most High? I beseech thee torment me not.

29 For he commanded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for oft times he had caught him: therefore hee was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but hee brake the bands, and was caried of the deuill into wildernesses.)

30 Then Iesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion, because many deuills were entred into him.

31 And they besought him, that he would not commaund them to goe out into the deepe.

32 And there was there by, an herde of many swine, feeding on an hill, and the deuils besought him, that he would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the herd was caried with violence from a steepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the heardmen saw what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they tolde it in the citie and in the countrey.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Iesus, and found the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Iesus, clothed, and in his right minde, and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuill was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenes, besought him, that hee would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship and returned.

38 Then the man out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but Iesus sent him away, saying,

39 * Returne into thine owne house, and shew what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached throughout all the countrey, what great things Iesus had done vnto him.

40 * And it came to passe when Iesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 * And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and hee was the ruler of the Synagogue, who fel downe at Iesus feete, and besought him that he would come into his house.

42 For hee had but a daughter onely, about twelue yeeres of age, and shee lay a dying. (And as hee went, the people thronged him.)

43 And a woman hauing an issue of blood twelue yeeres long, which had spent all her substance vpon Physicians, and could not be healed of any:

44 When shee came betwixt him, she touched the hemme of his garment, and immediately her issue of blood stancheth.

45 Then Iesus said, Who is it that hath touched mee? When euery man denied, Peter sayd, and they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, and tread on thee, and sayest thou, Who hath touched me?

46 And Iesus said, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman saw that shee was not hid, she came trembling, and fell downe before him, and tolde him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

from the ruler of the Synagogues house, which said to him, Thy daughter is dead: disleafe not the Waiter.

50 When Iesus heard it, hee answered him, saying, Feare not, believe onely, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he went into the house, he suffered no man to goe in with him, save Peter, and James, and Iohn, and the father and mother of the maide.

52 And all wept and sorowed for her: but he said, Weepe not, for she is not dead, but sleepeeth.

53 And they laught him to scorne, knowing that she was dead.

54 So he thrust them all out, and tooke her by the hand, and cryed, saying, Waide, arise.

55 And her spirit came againe, and she rose straightway: and he commaunded to giue her meate.

56 Then her parents were astonied: but he commaunded them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

2 He sendeth out the twelue Apostles to preach.
7 Herod heareth tell of him. 12 Hee feedeth five thousand men with five loaves & two fishes. 19 Discourses opinions of Christ. 28 Hee transfigureth himselfe upon the mount. 42 He delivereth the possessed, 47 and teacheth his disciples to bee lowly. 54 They desire vengeance, but he reproveth them.

Ten called he the twelue disciples to together, and gaue them power and authority ouer all deuils, and to heale diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdome of God, and to cure the sicke.

3 And he said to them, Take nothing to your iourney, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, nor silver, neither haue two coates.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receiue you, when ye goe out of that citie, shake off the very dust from your feete for a testimony against them.

6 And they went out, and went throughout euery towne preaching the Gospel, and healing euery where.

7 ¶ Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he doubted because that it was said of some, that Iohn was risen againe from the dead:

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared, and of some, that one of the olde Prophets was risen againe.

9 Then Herod said, Iohn haue I beheaded: who then is this, of whom I heare such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And when the Apostles returned, they tolde him what great things they had done. Then he tooke them, and went aside into a solitary place, neere to the citie called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knew it, they followed him, and he receined them, and spake unto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had neede to be healed.

12 And when the day began to weare away, the twelue came, and said vnto him,

Send the people away, that they may goe into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meate: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he sayd vnto them, Giue yee them to eate. And they sayd, We haue no more but five loaves and two fishes, except wee should goe and buy meate for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. Then he said to his Disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then he tooke the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and blessed them, and brake and gaue to the disciples to set before the people.

17 So they did all eate, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelue baskets full of broken meate.

18 ¶ And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answered, and sayd, Iohn Baptist: and others say, Elias: and some say, that one of the olde Prophets is risen againe.

20 And he sayd vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answered, and said, The Christ of God.

21 And he warned, & commaunded them, that they should tell that to no man, 22 Saying, The Sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reprobued of the Elders, and of the hie Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and the third day rise againe.

23 ¶ And he sayd to them all, If any man will come after me, let him denie himselfe, and take vp his crosse daily, and follow me.

24 ¶ For whosoever will saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall saue it.

25 For what auantageth it a man, if he winne the whole world, and destroy himselfe, or lose himselfe?

26 ¶ For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed when he shall come in his glory, and in the glory of his Father, and of the holy Angels.

27 ¶ And I tell you of a suretie, there he some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the kingdome of God.

28 ¶ And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those words, that he tooke Peter and Iohn, and James, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment was white and glistered.

30 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias, him, were beaue with sleepe, and when they awoke, they saw his glorie, and the two men standing with him.

31 Which appeared in glory, and told of his departing, which he should accomplish at Ierusalem.

33 And it came to passe as they departed from him, Peter said vnto Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to bee here: let vs therefore make three Tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wilt not what he said.

34 While hee thus spake, there came a cloud, and ^h overshadowed them, & they feared when they were entering into the cloud.

35 * And there came a voyce out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

36 And when the voyce was past, Iesus was found alone: and they kept it close and tolde no man in those dayes any of those things which they had seene.

37 And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, much people met him.

38 * And beholde, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master. I beseech thee, behold my sonne, for he is all that I haue.

39 And loe, a spirit taketh him, and suddenly he crieth, and hee teareth him, that hee someth, and with much pain departeth from him, when he hath bruised him.

40 Now I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Iesus answered, and said, ^m O generation faithlesse and crooked, how long now shall I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy sonne hither.

42 And whiles he was yet comming, the deuill tent him, and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the vnclane spirit, and healed the child, and deliuered him to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God: and while they all wondered at all things which Iesus did, he said vnto his disciples, 44 * Marke these words diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they ^a vnderstood not that word: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that word.

46 * Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should bee the greatest.

47 When Iesus saw the thoughts of their hearts, he tooke a little childe, and set him by him,

48 And hee said vnto them, Whosoener receiveth this little childe in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoener shall receiue me, receiveth him that sent me: for hee that is least among you all, he shall be great.

49 * And John answered, and said, Master, wee saw one casting out deuils in thy Name, and we forbade him, because hee followeth thee not with vs.

50 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Forbidde ye him not: for he that is not against vs, ^o is with vs.

51 And it came to passe, when the ^p dayes were accomplished, that hee should be receiued vp, he setted himselfe fully to goe to Ierusalem,

52 And sent messengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritanes, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they would not receiue him, because his ^q behauiour was, as though hee would goe to Ierusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and John saw it, they sayd, Lord, wilt thou that wee commaund that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as * Elias did?

55 But Iesus turned about and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not of what spirit ye are.

56 For the Sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 And it came to passe, that as they went in the way, * a certaine man said vnto him, I will follow thee, Lord, whithersoener thou goest.

58 And Iesus said vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birds of the heauen haue nests, but the Sonne of man hath not whereon to lay his head.

59 But he said vnto another, Follow me. And the same said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but goe thou & preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another said, I will follow thee, Lord: but let me first goe bid them farewell which are at mine house.

62 And Iesus said vnto him, No man that putteth his hand to the plough, & ^x looketh backe, is apt to the kingdome of God.

by dead, hee meaneth those that are vnprofitable to serue God. ^x To bee hindered or intrangled with respect of any worldly commodity, or slayed to goe forward for any paine or trouble.

13 Woe bee to thee, Chorazin: woe bee to thee, Bethsaida: for if the miracles had bene done in Tyrys and Sidon, which haue been done in you, they had a great while agoone repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 Therefore it shall be easier for Tyrys, and Sidon at the iudgement, then for you.

15 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted to heauen, shalt be thrust down to hel.

16 He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that despiseth you, despiseth me: and he that despiseth mee, despiseth him that sent me.

17 And the seuentie turned againe with ioy, saying, Lord, euen the deuils are subdued to vs through thy Name.

18 And he said vnto them, I saw Satan like lightning, fall downe from heauen.

19 Beholde, I giue vnto you power to tread on serpents, and scorpions, and ouer all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you.

20 Neuerthelesse, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are writen in heauen.

21 That same houre reioyced Iesus in the spirit, and said, I confesse vnto thee, Father, Lord of heauen and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and learned, and hast reuealed them to babes: euen so, Father, because it so pleased thee.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are giuen me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: neither who the Father is, saue the Sonne, & he to whom the Sonne will reueale him.

23 And hee returned to his disciples, and sayd secretly, Blessed are the eyes which see that ye see.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets and Kings haue desired to see those things which ye see, and haue not seene them, and to heare those things which ye heare, and haue not heard them.

25 Then beholde, a certaine expounder of the Law stood by, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I doe to inherite eternall life?

26 And he said vnto him, What is written in the Law? how readest thou?

27 And he answered, & said, Thou shalt loue thy Lord God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy strength, and with all thy thought, and thy neighbour as thy selfe.

28 Then he sayd vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this doe, and thou shalt liue.

29 But he willing to iustifie himselfe, sayd vnto Iesus, What is then my neighbour?

30 And Iesus answered, and sayd, A certaine man went downe from Ierusalem to Iericho, and fell among theeues, and they robbed him of his rayment, and wounded him, and departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by chance there came downe a certaine Priest that same way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise also a Leuite, when hee was come nere to the place, went and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certaine Samaritane, as he iourneyed, came nere vnto him, and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound by his wounds, and poured in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beast, and brought him to an Inne, and made prouision for him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he tooke out two pence, and gaue them to the hoste, and said vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompense thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the theeues?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Iesus vnto him, Goe, and doe thou likewise.

38 Now it came to passe as they went, that hee entred into a certaine towne, and a certaine woman named Martha, receiued him into her house.

39 And shee had a sister called Marie, which also sat at Iesus feete, and heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much seruising, and came to him, and said, Master, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serue alone? bid her therefore that she helpe me.

41 And Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou carest, and art troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needfull. Mary hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

3 Our dayly bread giue vs: for the day: 4 And forgive vs our sinnes: for euen we forgive euery man that is indebted to vs: And leaue vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

5 Moreover he said vnto them, Which of you shall haue a friend, and shall goe to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loaves?

6 For a friend of mine is come: out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before him:

7 And he within should answer and say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with mee in bed: I cannot rise and giue them to thee.

8 I say vnto you, Though he would not arise, and giue him, because he is his friend, yet doubtlesse because of his importunitie, he would rise, and giue him as many as he needed.

9 And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shall be giuen you: seeke, and ye shall find: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiveth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a stone? or if he aske a fish, will hee for a fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he aske an egge, will he giue him a scorpion?

13 If ye then which are euill, can giue good gifts vnto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father giue the holy Ghost to them, that desire him?

14 Then he cast out a deuill which was dumbe: and when the deuill was gone out, the dumbe spake, and the people wondered.

15 But some of them sayd, Wee casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the devils.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

17 But he knewe their thoughts, and said vnto them, Every kingdome diuided against it selfe, shall be desolate, and an house diuided against an house, shall fall.

18 So if Satan also be diuided against himselfe, how shall his kingdome stand, because yee say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out devils, by whome doe your children cast them out: Therefore shall they bee your iudges.

20 But if I by the finger of God cast out devils, doubtlesse the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, the things that he possesseth are in peace.

22 But when a stronger then he commeth vpon him, and overcommeth him, hee taketh from him all his armour wherein hee trusted, and diuideth his spoiles.

23 Wee that is not with me, is against mee: and he that gathereth not with mee, scattereth.

24 When the vnclane spirit is gone out of a man, hee walketh through drie places, seeking rest: and when he findeth none, he sayth, I will returne vnto my house whence I came out.

25 And when hee commeth, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then he goeth he, and taketh to him seuen other spirits worse then himselfe: and they enter in and dwell there: so the last state of that man is worse then the first.

27 And it came to passe, as hee sayd these things, a certaine woman of the company lifted vp her voyce, and said vnto him, Blessed is the wombe that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he sayd, Yea, rather blessed are they that heare the word of God, and keepe it.

29 And when the people were gathered thicke together, hee began to say, This is a wicked generation: they seeke a signe, and there shall no signe be giuen them, but the signe of Jonas the Prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a signe to the Ninuites, so shall also the sonne of man be to this generation.

31 The Queene of the South shall rise in iudgement with the men of this generation, and shall condemne them: for she came from the vtmost parts of the earth to heare the wisdom of Salomon, and behold, a greater then Salomon is here.

32 The men of Nineue shall rise in iudgement with this generation, and shall condemne it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas: and behold, a greater then Jonas is here.

39 And the Lord said to him, Indeede yee Pharises make cleane the outside of the cup and of the platter: but the inward part is full of rauening and wickednesse.

40 Dee fooles, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

Name. 10 Blasphemy against the Spirit. 14 Not to passe our vocation. 15 Not to giue our selues to conuetous care of this life, 32 but to righteousness, almes, watching, patience, wisdom, and concord.

16 At the meane time, there gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another: and he began to say vnto his disciples first, Take heede to your selues of the leaue of the Pharises, which is hypocritike.

2 For there is nothing couered, that shall not be reuealed: neither hid, that shall not be knownen.

3 Wherefore whatsoeuer ye haue spoken in darkenesse, it shall be heard in the light: and that which yee haue spoken in the eare, in secret places, shall bee preached on the houles.

4 And I say vnto you, my friends, Bee not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that are not able to doe any more.

5 But I will forewarne you, whom yee shall feare: feare him which after hee hath killed, hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say vnto you, him feare.

6 Are not sine sparrows bought for two farthings, and yet not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 Yea, and all the haire of your head are numbred: feare not therefore: yee are more of value then many sparrows.

8 Also I say vnto you, whosoener shall confesse me before men, him shall the Sonne of man confesse also before the Angels of God.

9 But he that shall denie me before men, shall be denied before the Angels of God.

10 And whosoener shall speake a worde against the Sonne of man, it shall be forgiven him: but vnto him, that shall blaspheme the holy Ghost, it shall not bee forgiven.

11 And when they shall bring you vnto the Synagogues, and vnto the rulers and princes, take no thought how, or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall speake.

17 Therefore he thought with himselfe, saying, What shall I doe, because I haue no roume where I may lay up my fruits?

20 But God said vnto him, O foole, this night will they fetch away thy soule from thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast prouided?

21 So is he that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meate: and the body more then the rayment.

24 Consider the rauens: for they neither sowe nor reape: which neither haue storehouse nor barn, and yet God feedeth them: how much more are yee better then foules?

25 And which of you by taking thought, can add to his stature one cubite?

26 If yee then be not able to doe the least thing, why take yee thought for the remnant?

27 Consider the lilies how they growe: they labour not, neither spinne they: yet I say vnto you, that Salomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grasse which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the ouen, how much more will hee clothe you. O ye of little faith?

29 Therefore take not what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drinke, neither stand in doubt.

30 For all such things the people of the world seeke for: and your Father knoweth that ye haue need of these things.

31 But rather seeke ye after the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be ministered vnto you.

32 Feare not, little flocke: for it is your fathers pleasure, to giue you the kingdom.

33 Sell that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bags, which ware not old, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no thiefe cometh, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your hearts be also.

35 Let your loynes be girded about, and your lights burning,

36 And ye your selues like vnto men that waite for their master, when he will returne from the wedding, that when hee cometh and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whom the Lord when he cometh, shall finde waking: verely I say vnto you, hee will gird himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serue them.

38 And if hee come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 Now vnderstand this, that if the Goodman of the house had knowne at what houre the thiefe would haue come, he would haue watched, and would not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter sayd vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithfull steward, and wise, whom the master shall make ruler over his household, to giue them their portion of meat in season?

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when he cometh, shall finde so doing.

44 Of a truth I say vnto you, that hee will make him ruler over all that hee hath.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My master doth deferre his coming, and shall begin to smite the seruants, and maydenes, and to eat & drinke, and to be drunken,

46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when hee thinketh not, and at an houre when hee is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the unbelieuers.

47 And that seruant that knew his masters will, and prepared not himselfe neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But hee that knew it not, and yet did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes: for vnto whomsoever much is giuen, of him shall be much required, and to whom men much commit, the more of him will they aske.

49 I am come to put a fire on the earth, and what is my desire, if it be already kindled?

50 Notwithstanding I must be baptized with a baptism, and how am I grieved, till it be ended?

51 Thinke yee that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather debate.

52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house diuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be diuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 Then said he to the people, When you see a cloud rise out of the West, straightway yee say, A showre cometh: and so it is.

55 And when yee see the South winde blow, ye say, that it will be hote: and it cometh to passe.

56 Hypocrites, yee can discerne the face of the earth, and of the heauen: but why discern ye not this time?

57 Yea, and why iudge you not of your selues what is right?

58 While thou goest with thine aduersarie to the ruler, as thou art in the way, giue diligence in the way, that thou mayest bee deliuered from him, lest hee bring thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the sayler, and the sayler cast thee into prison.

Or, set at libertie out of Satans bands.

There were certaine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Suppose yee, that these Galileans were greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eightene, vpon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, were sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except yee amend your liues, yee shall all likewise perish.

6 Hee spake also this parable, A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard: and hee came and sought fruite thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Beholde, this thre yeres haue I come and sought fruit of this figge tree, and finde none: cut it downe: why keepeth it also the ground barren?

8 And hee answered, and said vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yere also, till I digge round about it, and doing it.

9 And if it beare fruit, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmities eightene yeres, and was bowed together, and could not lift up her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus saw her, he called her to him and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy disease.

13 And he layd his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and sayd vnto the people, There are fixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come and bee healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lord, and sayd, Hypocrite, doeth not each one of you on the Sabbath day loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, and leade him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham whom Satan had bound, loe, eightene yeres, bee loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day.

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, What is the kingdom of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seede which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree, and the fowles of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe hee sayd, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke and hid in thre peckes of flour, till all was leavened.

22 ¶ And hee went through all cities and townes, teaching, and journeying toward Ierusalem.

27 But hee shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence yee are: depart from mee, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and al the Prophets in the kingdom of God, and your selues thrust out at doores.

And it came to passe, that when hee was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharisees on the Sabbath day to eat bread, they watched him.

2 And behold, there was a certaine man before him, which had the dropfie.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake unto the expounders of the Law, and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then hee tooke him, and healed him, and let him goe.

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an asse or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pul him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him againe to those things.

7 ¶ He spake also a parable to the guests, when he marked how they chose out the chief roomes, and said unto them,

8 ¶ When thou shalt bee bidden of any man to a wedding, let not thy selfe downe in the chiefe place, lest a more honorable man then thou be bidden of him,

9 And hee that bade both him and thee, come and say to thee, Sitte this man come, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest roome.

10 ¶ But when thou art bidden, go, and sit down in the lowest roome, that when he that bade thee, commeth, he may say unto thee, Friend, sit by higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

11 ¶ For whosoever exalteth himselfe, shall be brought low, & he that humbleth himselfe shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then he sayd he also to him that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor the rich neighbors, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blind,

14 And thou shalt bee blessed, because they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt bee recompensed at the resurrection of the iust.

15 ¶ Now when one of them that sate at table heard these things, he sayd unto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the Kingdome of God.

16 Then said he to him, ¶ A certaine man made a great supper, and bade many,

17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: the first said unto him, I have bought a farme, and I must needs goe out and see it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another sayd, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to proue them: I pray thee haue me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant returned, and shewed his matter these things. Then was the good man of the house angry, and sayd to his servant, ¶ Goe out quickly into the places and streets of the City, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant sayd, Lord, it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is roome.

23 Then the Master said to the servant, Goe out into the high wayes and hedges, and compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 Nowe there went great multitudes with him, and hee turned and sayd unto them, 26 ¶ If any man come to me, and hate not his father and mother, and wife & children, and brethren and sisters, yea, and his owne life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 ¶ And whosoever beareth not his crosse, and commeth after me, cannot be my disciple.

Then resorted vnto him all the Publicans and sinners, to heare him.

2 Therefore the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, He receiuech sinners, and eateth with them.

3 Then spake hee this parable to them, saying,

4 What man of you hauing an hundred sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leaue ninety and nine in the wilderness, and goe after that which is lost, vntill hee finde it?

5 And when he hath found it, he laiceth it on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends & neighbors, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue found my sheepe which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninety and nine iust men, which need none amendment of life.

8 Either what woman hauing ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doeth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seeke diligently till she finde it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and neighbors, saying, Reioyce with me: for I haue found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

11 He sayd moreouer, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the yonger of them said to his father, Father, giue mee the portion of the goods that falleth to me. So he diuided vnto them his substance.

13 So not long after, when the yonger sonne had gathered all together, hee tooke his iourney into a farre Countrey, and there he wasted his goods with riotous lusing.

14 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessity.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and he sent him to his farme to feede swine.

16 And he would faine haue filled his belly with the huskes that the swine ate: but no man gaue them him.

17 Then he came to himselfe, & said, How many hired seruants at my fathers haue bread ynough, and I die for hunger?

18 I will rise and go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make mee as one of thy hired seruants.

20 So he arose, & came to his father, and when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ranne and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne sayd vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

22 Then the father said to his seruants,

Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feete, 23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eat and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is al-lue againe: and he was lost, but he is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Nowe the elder brother was in the field, and when he came and drew nere to the house, he heard melody and dancing.

26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he said vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then hee was angry, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But he answered, and sayd to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commaundement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kisse, that I might make merry with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goods with har-lots, thou hast for his sake killed the fatted calfe.

31 And hee said vnto him, Sonne, thou art euer with me, and all that I haue is thine. It was meete that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is al-lue againe: and he was lost, but he is found.

he accepteth not the person, but feedeth indifferently all them that beleue in him, with his body and blood to life euerslasting.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ exhorteth his to wisdom and liberalitie by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reprehendeth the couetousnesse and hypocrisis of the Pharisees. 16 Of the end and force of the law. 18 Of the holy state of marriage. 19 Of the rich man and Lazarus.

AND hee saide also vnto his Disciples, There was a certaine rich man, which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him that he wasted his goode.

2 And he called him, and said vnto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? Gue an account of thy stewardship: for thou shalt be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himselfe, What shall I doe? for my master wil take away from me the stewardship. I cannot dig, and to beg I am ashamed.

4 I know what I will doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called he euery one of his masters debtors, and sayd vnto the first, How much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he sayd, An hundred measures of oyle. And he said to him, Take thy writing, and sit downe quickly, and waite hys.

7 Then said he to anoother, How much owest thou? And hee sayde, An hundred measures k Thy part which as a Jew, is nothing diminished by that, that Christ was also killed for the Gentiles: for a Christ teacheth hereby that likewise as he which is in authority, and hath riches if he get friends in his prosperity, may be relieved in his aduersity: so our liberality toward our neighbor shall stand us in such stead at the day of judgement, that God will accept it as done vnto him.

b God who doth here represent the master of the house, doth rather commend the prodigall waste of his goods, and the liberal giving of the same to the poore, then the strait keeping and hoarding of them.

c That is, either wickedly gotten, or wickedly kept, or wickedly spent, and hereby we be warned to suspect riches, which for the most part are an occasion to their possessors of great wickedness.

d They which cannot well be flow worldly goods, will be flow ill spirituall treasures: and therefore they ought not to be committed vnto them.

e As are riches and such like things, which God hath giuen not for your selues onely, but to bestow vpon others.

measures of wheate. Then hee said to him Take thy writing, and write foursecore.

8 And the Lord commended the vnjust steward, because hee had done wisely. Wherefore the children of this world are in their generation wiser then the children of light.

9 And I say vnto you, Make your friends with the riches of iniquitie, that when ye shall want, they may receiue you into euerlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in the least, hee is also faithfull in much: and he that is vnjust in the least, is vnjust also in much.

11 If then ye haue not bene faithfull in the wicked riches, who will trust you in the true treasure?

12 And if ye haue not bene faithfull in another mans goods, who shall giue you that which is yours?

13 No seruant can serue two Masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or else hee shall leane to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serue God and riches.

14 All these things heard the Pharisees also which were couetous, and they moted him.

15 Then he said vnto them, Ye are they which iustifie your selues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The Law and the Prophets endored vntill John: and since that time the Kingdom of God is preached, and euery man preacht into it.

17 Now it is more easie that heauen and earth shall passe away, then that one tittle of the Law should fall.

18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 There was a certaine rich man, which was clothed in purple, and fine linen, and fared well and delicately euery day.

20 Also there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, which was layde at his gate full of sores, 21 And desired to be refreshed with the crummes that fell from the rich mans table: yea and the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger dyed, and was caried by the Angels into Abrahams bosome. The rich man also died and was buried.

23 And being in hell in torments, he lieth by his eyes, and saw Abraham afarre off, and Lazarus in his bosome.

24 Then he cryed and said, Father Abraham haue mercie on mee, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuest thy pleasures, and likewise Lazarus paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betwene you and vs there is a great gulfe set, so that they which would go from hence to you, cannot, neither can they come from thence to vs.

27 Then hee said, I pray thee therefore Father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house, 28 (For I haue five brethren) that he may testifie vnto them, least they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham said vnto him, They haue Moses and the Prophets: let them heare them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one come vnto them from the dead, they will amend their liues.

31 Then he said vnto him, If they heare not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be perswaded, though one rise from the dead againe.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ teacheth his Disciples to auoid occasions of offence. 3 One to forgive another. 5 We ought to pray for the increase of faith. 6 He magnifieth the vertue of faith, 10 and sheweth the vniuersality of man, 11 healeth tenne lepers, 10 speaketh of the latter dayes, and of the end of the world.

Then said hee to the disciples, It cannot be auoided, but that offences will come, but woe be to him by whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a great millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were cast into the sea, then that hee should offend one of these litte ones.

3 Take heed to your selues: if thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him: and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And though he sinne against thee seven times in a day, and seuen times in a day turne againe to thee, saying, It repenteth me, thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the Apostles said vnto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith, as much as is a graine of mustardseed, and should say vnto this mulberry tree, Blucke thy selfe by the rootes, and plant thy selfe in the sea, it should euen obey you.

o Christ describeth spirituall things by such maner of speech, as is most proper to our vnderstanding: for our soules haue neither fingers nor eyes, neither are they thurstie, or speake: but the Lord as it were in a table, painteth forth the state of the life to come, as our capacitie is able to comprehend it.

10 So likewise ye, when ye haue done all those things which are commaunded you, say, Allee are vniprofitable seruants: we haue done that which was our duty to doe.

11 And so it was when he went to Ierusalem, that he passed thorow the mids of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as hee entred into a certaine towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood as farre off.

13 And they lift vp their voices and said, Iesus, Master, haue mercie on vs.

14 And when he saw them, hee said vnto them, Goe, shew your selues vnto the Priests. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 Then one of them, when hee saw that hee was healed, turned backe, and with a loude voyce praised God,

16 And fell downe on his face at his feet, and gaue him thanks: and hee was a Samaritan.

17 And Iesus answered, & said, are not there ten cleansed: but where are the nine?

18 There are none found that returned to giue God praise, saue this stranger.

19 And he sayd vnto him, Arise, Goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 And when hee was demaunded of the Pharises, when the Kingdome of God should come, hee answered them, and sayd, The kingdome of God cometh not with obseruation.

21 Neither shall men say, Loe here, or loe there: for behold, the Kingdome of God is within you.

22 And hee sayd vnto the Disciples, The dayes will come, when yee shall desire to see one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 Then they shall say to you, Beholde here, or behold there: but go not thither, neither follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part vnder heauen, shineth vnto the other part vnder heauen, so shall the Son of man be in his day.

25 But first must he suffer many things, and be reproboured of this generation.

26 And as it was in the dayes of Noe, so shall it be in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

27 They ate, they dranke, they married wives, and gaue in marriage vnto the day that Noe went into the Arke: and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the dayes of Lot: they ate, they dranke, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built,

29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

30 After these examples shall it be in the day when the Son of man shall be reuealed.

31 At that day, he that is vpon the house and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out, and hee that is in the field likewise let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.

32 Remember Lots wife.

33 Whosoever will seeke to saue his soule, shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose it, I shall get it life.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two in one bed: the one shall be receiued and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together: the one shall be taken and the other shall be left.

36 Two shall be in the field: one shall be receiued and another shall be left.

CHAP. XVIII.

By the example of the widow, & the Publicane, Christ teacheth how to pray. 15 By the example of children, he exhorteth to humilitie. 18 Of the way to be saved, and what things let. 29 The reward promised to him 31 and of the crosse. 35 A blind man receiveth sight.

And he spake also a parable vnto them, to this ende, that they ought alwayes to pray and not to waite faint.

2 Saying, There was a iudge in a certaine city, which feared not God, neither reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widow in that cite, which came vnto him, saying, Doe me iustice against mine aduersarie.

4 And he would not for a time: but afterward hee layde with him selfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will doe her right, least at the last she come and make me wearie.

6 And the Lord sayd, Weare what the vnrighteous iudge saith.

7 Now shall not God auenge his elect, which cry day & night vnto him, yea, though he suffer long for them?

8 I tell you hee will auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 He spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselves that they where iust, and despised other.

10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.

11 The Pharise stood and prayed thus with himselfe, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vnjust, adulterers, or euen as this Publicane.

would not lift vp so much as his eyes to be mercifull to me a sinner.

14 I tell you this man departed to his house iustified: rather then the other: For euery man that exalteth himselfe shall bee brought low, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

15 They brought vnto him also babes, that hee should touch them. And when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called: them vnto him, and said, Suffer the babes to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say vnto you, Whosoever receiveth not the kingdom of God as a babe, he shall not enter therein.

18 Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to doe, to inherit eternall life?

19 And Jesus said vnto him, Why cal-lest thou me good? none is good save one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements, Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witness: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Now when Jesus heard that, hee sayd vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing, Sell all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come follow me.

23 But when he heard those things, hee was very heauie: for he was marueilous rich.

24 And when Jesus saw him sorrowfull, hee said, With what difficulty shall they that haue riches enter into the kingdom of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a camel to go through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 Then sayd they that heard it, And who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Loe, wee haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he said vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kingdom of Gods sake,

30 Which shall not receiue much more in this world, and in the world to come life euerslasting.

31 Then Jesus tooke vnto him the twelve, and sayd vnto them, Behold, we goe vp to Ierusalem, and all things shall be fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets.

32 For hee shall be deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shall be spiritually increased, and shall be spitte on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they wil put him to death: but the third day he shall rise againe.

34 But they vnderstood none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, neither perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

35 And it came to passe, that as hee was come neere vnto Iericho, a certaine blinde man sat by the way side begging.

36 And when hee heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they said vnto him, that Jesus of Nazareth passed by.

38 Then he cried, saying, Jesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that hee should hold his peace, but hee cried much more, O Sonne of Dauid haue mercie on me.

40 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come neere, he asked him,

41 Saying, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Jesus said vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saued thee.

43 Then immediately hee receiued his sight, and followed him, praising God: and all the people when they saw this, gaue praise to God.

*1 Of Zaccheus. 12 The ten pieces of money. 38
Christ rideeth to Ierualem, and weepeth for it. 45
He chaseth out the merchants, 47 and his enemies seeke to destroy him.*

Now when Jesus entred and passed thro-uow Iericho,

2 Behold, there was a man named Zac-cheus, which was the chiefe receiuer of the tribute, and he was rich.

3 And hee sought to see Jesus, who hee should be, and could not for the presse: because he was of a low stature.

4 Wherefore he ran before, and climed vp into a wild figge tree, that he might see him, for he should come that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, hee looked vp and saw him, and said vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and re-ceiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they saw it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge with a sinner.

8 And Zaccheus stood forth, and said vnto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the halfe of my

h He that faithfully bestoweth the graces of God, shall haue them increased, but they shall be taken away from him that is vnprofitable, and witheth them not to Gods glory.

i Hereby we perceive the excellent constancy of Christ, who notwithstanding he did now fight against the reuour of death, and Gods iudgement: yet went before his fearefull disciples, and led the way to death.

Matth. 27. 1. Marke 1. 1.

11 And whiles they heard these things, he continued and spake a parable, because hee was nere to Ierusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdom of God should shortly appeare.

12 He sayd therefore, * A certaine noble man went into a farre countrey, to receiue for himselfe a kingdom, and so to come againe.

13 And he called his tenne seruants, and deliuered them tenne pieces of money, and said vnto them, * Occupie till I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe when hee was come againe, and had receiued his kingdom, that hee commaunded the seruants to bee called to him, to whome he gaue his money, that he might know what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased ten pieces.

17 And he said vnto him, Well good seruant: because thou hast bene faithfull in a very little thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased five pieces.

19 And to the same hee sayd, Be thou also ruler ouer five cities.

20 So the other came, and sayd, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue layd vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strait man, thou takest vp that thou laydest not downe, and reapest that thou didst not sowe.

22 Then he said vnto him, Of thine owne mouth wilt I iudge thee, O euill seruant. Thou knewest that I am a strait man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gauest thou not my money into the banke, that at my coming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he said vnto them that stood by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they said vnto him, Lord, hee hath ten pieces.)

26 * For I say vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it shall be giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shall be taken from him.

27 Whereouer those mine enemies, which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, hee went forth before, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 * And it came to passe, when hee was come nere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called the mount of Olives, hee sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Goe ye to the towne which is before you, wherem alldone as yee are come; yee shall finde a colt tied, whereon neuer man sate: looke him, and bring him hither.

31 * And if any man aske you, why yee looke him, thus shall ye say vnto him, Because the Lord hath neede of him.

32 So they that were sent went their way, and found it as he had layd vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said vnto them, Why looke ye the colt?

34 And they sayd, The Lord hath neede of him.

35 * So they brought him to Iesus, and they cait their garments on the colt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as hee went, they spred their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come nere to the going downe of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to reioyce, and to praye God with a loude voyce, for all the great workes that they had seene, 38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heauen, and glory in the highest places.

39 Then some of the Pharisees of the company said vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered and said vnto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would crie.

41 * And when hee was come nere, hee beheld the citie, and wept for it,

42 Saying, * O if thou haddest euen known at the least in this thy daye those things, which belong vnto thy peace! but now are they hid from thine eyes.

43 For the dayes shall come vpon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keepe thee in on euery side, 44 And shall make thee euen with the ground, and thy children which are in thee, and they shall not leaue in thee a stone vpon a stone, because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 * He went also into the Temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought,

46 Saying vnto them, It is written, * Mine house is the house of prayer, but yee haue made it a denne of thieues.

47 And he taught daily in the Temple. And the hie Priests, and the Scribes, and the chief of the people sought to destroy him.

48 But they could not finde what they might doe to him: for all the people hangd vpon him when they heard him.

3 And he answered, and said unto them; I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

4 The baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then beleeued ye him not?

6 But if we shall say, Of men, all the people will stone us: for they be perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

9 ¶ Then began hee to speake to the people this parable, * A certaine man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a strange country, for a great season.

10 And at a time he sent a seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruite of the vineyard, but the husbandmen did beate him, and sent him away empty.

11 Again he sent yet another seruant, and they did beate him, and foule intreated him, and sent him away empty.

12 Moreover, he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I doe? I will send my beloued Sonne: it may be that they will doe reverence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned with themselves, saying, This is the helpe: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore doe unto them?

16 Hee will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyard to others: but when they heard it, they sayd, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What meaneth this then that is written, * The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head of the corner.

18 And whosoever shall fall upon that stone, shall be broken: and on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

19 Then the hie Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they were cōfused that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should take him in his talke, and to stoner him vnto the power and authoritie of the Governour.

21 And they asked him saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest right, neither dost thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truly.

22 Then Iesus said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing, and ye shall answer me.

23 But he persecuted these craftie, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Celsars.

25 Then he said vnto them, * Since then vnto Celsar the things which are Celsars, and to God those which are Gods.

26 And they could not reprove his saying before the people: but they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certaine of the Sadducees, (which denie that there is any resurrection) and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seed vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seven brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and hee died without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and hee died childlesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

32 And last of all, the woman died also.

33 Therefore as the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she be? for seuen had her to wife.

34 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, The children of this world marrie wives, and are married.

35 But they which shall be counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marrie wives, neither are married.

36 For they can die no more, forasmuch as they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the sonnes of God, since they are the children of the resurrection.

37 And that the dead shall rise againe, euen * Moses shewed it, besides the bush, when he said, The Lord is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For hee is not the God of the dead, but of them which liue: for all liue vnto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the Pharisees answered, and said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that, durst they not aske him any thing at all.

41 ¶ Then said he vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

42 And Dauid himselfe saith in the booke of the Psalmes, * The Lord said vnto my Lord, Sit at my right hand.

43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 Saying, Dauid called him Lord, how is he then his sonne?

45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people, he said vnto his disciples, 46 * Beware of the Scribes, which desire to be honoured in long robes, and loue salutations in the markets, and the high seats in the Synagogues, and the chiefest houses at feasts.

Mat. 41. 9.

p By the secret counsell of God, as Actes 4. 28.

NOW the Feast of unleavened bread is now nere, which is called the Pascheouer.

2 And the high Priestes and Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entred Satan into Iudas, who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelue.

4 And he went his way and communed with the high Priestes and captaines, how he might betray him to them.

5 So they were glad, and agreed to giue him money.

6 And he consented and sought opportunity to betray him vnto them, when the people were away.

7 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread when the Pascheouer must be sacrificed.

8 And hee sent Peter and John, laying, See and prepare vs the Pascheouer, that wee may eat it.

9 And they said to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare it?

10 Then hee said vnto them, Behold, when yee be entred into the citie, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the house that hee entred in,

11 And say to the good man of the house, The master sayth vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eat my Pascheouer with my disciples?

12 Then hee shall shew you a great high chamber trimmed, there make it ready.

13 So they went and found as hee had said vnto them, and made ready the Pascheouer.

14 ¶ And when the houre was come, hee satte downe, and the twelue Apostles with him.

15 Then he said vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eat this Pascheouer with you before I suffer.

16 For I say vnto you, I will not eat of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

17 And he tooke the cup, & gaue thanks, and sayd, Take this, and diuide it among you.

18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruite of the vine, vntill the kingdome of God be come.

19 ¶ And hee tooke bread, and when hee had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue to them, saying, This is my body, which is giuen for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also after Supper he tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood which is shed for you.

21 ¶ Yet behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truly the Sonne of man goeth as it is appointed: but woe to that man, by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it should be, that should doe that.

24 ¶ And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But hee said vnto them, The kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ouer them, are called Grauous lords.

26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the least: and the chiefest as he that serueth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? is not hee that sitteth at table? And I am among you as hee that serueth.

28 And ye are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I appoynt vnto you a kingdome, as my Father hath appoynted to mee, 30 That ye may eate and drinke at my table in my kingdome, and sit on seats, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired you, to winnow you as wheate.

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith faile not: therefore when thou art conuered, strengthen thy brethren.

33 ¶ And hee said vnto him, Lord, I am ready to goe with thee into prison, and to death.

34 But hee sayd, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crow this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And hee said vnto them, When I sent you without bag, and scrip, and shoes, lacked yee any thing? And they sayd, No thing.

36 Then hee said to them, But now hee that hath a bag, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and hee that hath none, let him sell his coat, and buy a sword.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written must be performed in mee, ¶ Euen with the wicked was hee numbred: for doubtlesse those things which are written of me, haue an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he sayd vnto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And hee came out, and went (as hee was wont) to the mount of Oliues: and his disciples also followed him.

40 ¶ And when he came to the place, hee sayd to them, Pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

41 And hee gate himselfe from them about a stones cast, and kneeled downe and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this cup from mee: neuertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angel vnto him, from heauen, comforting him.

45 And he rose up from prayer, and came to his disciples, and found them sleeping for heaviness.

46 And he said unto them, Why sleepe ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while hee yet spake, behold, a company, and he that was called Judas one of the twelve, went before them, and came neere unto Iesus to kisse him.

48 And Iesus sayde unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?

49 Now when they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with sword?

50 And one of them smote a servant of the hie Priest, and strooke off his right eare.

51 Then Iesus answered, and said, Suffer them thus farre: and he touched his eare, and healed him.

52 Then Iesus sayd to the hie Priests, and captains of the Temple, and the Elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as unto a thiefe with swords and staves?

53 When I was dayly with you in the Temple, yet stretched not forth the hands against me: but this is your very houre, and the power of darkenesse.

54 ¶ Then tooke they him, and led him, and brought him to the hie Priests house. And Peter followed afaire off.

55 ¶ And when they had kindled a fire in the mids of the hall, and were set downe together, Peter also sat downe among them.

56 And a certaine maide beeynd him as he sat by the fire, and having well looked on him, sayd, This man was also with him.

57 But he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while, another man saw him, and sayd, Thou art also of them. But Peter sayd, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of an houre after, a certaine other affirmed, saying, Verely, even this man was with him: for hee is also a Galilean.

60 And Peter sayd, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediatly while he yet spake, the cocke crewe.

61 Then the Lord turned backe, and looked upon Peter: and Peter remembred the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, ¶ Before the cocke crow, thou shalt denie me this.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 And the men that helde Iesus, mocked him, and strooke him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they smote him on the face, and asked him, saying, ¶ Prophecie who it is that smote thee.

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ And as soone as it was day, the Elders of the people, and the hie Priests and the Scribes came together and led him into their Council, 67 Saying, ¶ Art thou the Christ? tell vs. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not beleue me.

68 And if also I aske you, ye will not answer me, nor let me goe.

69 ¶ Hereafter shall the Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Sonne of God? And he said to them, Ye say that I am.

71 Then sayd they, What neede we any further witnesse? for wee our selues haue heard it of his owne mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Iesus is brought before Pilate and Herod. 18 Of Barabbas. 26 Of Simon the Cyrenian. 27 The women make lamentation. 33 Christ crucified. 34 He prayeth for his enemies. 42 Hee conuerterth the thiefe and many others at his death, 53 and is buried.

¶ Then the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, Wee haue found this man peruertering the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, that he is Christ a king.

3 ¶ And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the hie Priests, and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching throughout all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knew that he was of Herods iurisdiction, hee sent him to Herode, which was also at Ierusalem in those dayes.

8 And when Herod saw Iesus, hee was exceedingly glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because hee had heard many things of him, and trusted to haue seene some signe done by him.

9 Then questioned hee with him of many things: but he answered him nothing.

10 The hie Priests also & Scribes stood forth, and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herod with his men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arrayed him in white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 ¶ And said unto them, Ye haue brought this man unto me, as one that peruerterth the people: and behold, I haue examined him before you, and haue found no fault in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him.

15 ¶ No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him: and loe, nothing worthy of death is done him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

17 ¶ For of necessity hee must haue let one loose unto them at the feast.

19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, and murder, was cast in prison.

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

22 And he said vnto them the third tyme, But what euill hath hee done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore cha-

23 But they were instant with loud voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them, & of the chief priests prevailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to doe with him what they would.

26 ¶ And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the field, and on him they layd the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and said, ¶ Daughters of Ierusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

29 For behold, the daies will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that neuer bare, and the paps which neuer gaue sucke.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountaines, ¶ Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Cover vs.

31 ¶ For if they doe these things to a greene tree, what shall be done to the drie?

32 ¶ And there were two others, which were euill doers, led with him to be slaine.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then said Iesus, Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saved others: let him save himselfe, if hee be the Christ, the Chosen of God.

36 The soldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him vinegar.

37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, save thyselfe.

38 And a superscription also was written ouer him in Greeke letters, and in Latine. and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

39 And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thyselfe and vs.

40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, ¶ Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 We are in deede righteously here: for we haue receiued things worthy of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And hee said vnto Iesus, Lord remember mee when thou comest into thy kingdome.

43 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

44 ¶ And it was about the sixth houre: and there was a darknesse ouer all the land, mid-day, vntill the ninth houre.

45 And the sunne was darkened, and the vaile of the Temple rent through the middes.

46 And Iesus cried with a loude voyce, and sayd, ¶ Father, into thine hands I commend my spirit. And when he had thus said, he gaue up the ghost.

47 ¶ Now when the Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a surety this man was iust.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stood as farre off, and the women that followed him from Galilee, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And behold, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a Counsellor, a good man and a iust, 51 He did not consent to the counsel and deed of them, which was of Arimathea, a city of the Iewes: who also himselfe was layd for the kingdome of God.

52 He went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

53 And tooke it down, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laid it in a tombe between out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet layde.

54 And that day was the Preparation, and the Sabbath day.

55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galilee, beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was layd.

56 And they returned, and prepared odours and oynments, and rested the Sabbath day, according to the commandment.

how he spake vnto you, when he was yet in Galile,

7 Saying, that the Sonne of man must be deliuered into the hands of sinfull men, and be crucified, & the third day rise againe.

8 And they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things vnto the eleuen, and to all the remnant.

10 Now it was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as 12 Then arose Peter, and ranne vnto the 13 And behold, two of them went that Emmaus.

14 And they talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe drew neere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they could not know him.

17 And he said vnto them, What manner of communications are these that yee haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleophas) answered, and said vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Ierusalem, & hast not known the things which are come to passe therein, in these dayes?

19 And hee sayde vnto them, What things? And they said vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet mighty in deede and in word before God, and all the people.

20 And how the high Priests and our rulers deliuered him to bee condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had bene he that should haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

22 Yea, and certaine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And when they found not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which sayd, that he was aliue.

24 Therefore certaine of them which were with vs, went to the Sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had said, but him they saw not.

25 Then he said vnto them, Fools, and slow of heart to beleue all that the Prophets haue spoken,

26 Dought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And hee began at Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew neere vnto the towne which they went to, but he made as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, A-hide with vs: for it is towards night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tary with them.

30 And it came to passe as he sat at table with them, he tooke the bread, and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him: but hee was taken out of their sight.

32 And they sayd betweene themselves, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when hee opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them,

34 Which sayd, The Lord is risen in deede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they told what things were done in the way, and how he was knownen of them in breaking of bread.

36 And as they spake these things, Jesus himselfe stood in the midst of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed and afraid, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are yee troubled, and wherfore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold mine hands and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle mee, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, and ye see me haue.

40 And when hee had thus spoken, hee shewed them his hands and feete.

41 And while they yet beleued not for joy, and wondred, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honie combe.

43 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of mee in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus it is written, & thus it behoued Christ to suffer, and to rise againe from the dead the third day,

47 And that repentance and remission of sinnes should bee preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things.

49 And behold, I will send the promise

The holy Gospel of Iesus Christ, according to Iohn.

1. 14. 17. The divinitie, humanitie, and office of Iesus Christ. 15 The testimonies of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and that Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by it, and without it was made nothing that was made.

4 In it was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in the darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God whose name was Iohn.

7 The same came for a witnesse, to beare witnesse of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.

8 Hee was not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of the light.

9 That was true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 Hee was in the world, and the world was made by him: and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them he gave power to be the sonnes of God, even to them that beleeue in his Name.

13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and we sawe the glory thereof, as the glory of the only begotten Son of the Father) full of grace and truth.

15 Iohn bare witnesse of him, and cryed, saying, This was he of whom I said. Hee that cometh after me, is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulnesse have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the Law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Iesus Christ.

18 No man hath seene God at any time: the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 When this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Priests and Levites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? and he said, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? and he answered, No.

22 Then sayde they vnto him, Who art thou, that we may give an answer to them that sent vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe?

23 He said, I am the voyce of him that cryeth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Elias.

24 Now they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.

27 He it is that cometh after me, which is preferred before me, whose shoe I latchet I am not worthy to vntie.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan where Iohn did baptize.

29 The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming vnto him, & saith, Beholde the Lambe of God, which taketh away the sinne of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knewe him not: but because he should be declared to Irael, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I sawe the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a dove, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, hee said vnto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit come downe, and tarry still on him, that is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I sawe, and bare record, that this is the Sonne of God.

35 The next day, Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples:

36 And he beheld Iesus walking by, and said beholde the Lambe of God.

37 And the two Disciples heard him speake and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, and sawe them follow, and sayde vnto them, What seeke ye? And they said vnto him, Rabbi, (which is to say by interpretation, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 Hee saide vnto them, Come and see. They came and saw where hee dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth houre.

Gen. 28. 12.

41 The same found his brother Simon first, and saide vnto him, We haue found the Messias, which is by interpretation, the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Iesus. And Iesus beheld him, and said, Thou art Simon the sonne of Iona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, a stone.

43 The day following, Iesus would goe into Galile, and found Philip, and saide vnto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip found Nathanael, and sayd vnto him, We haue found him, of whom Moses did write in the Lawe, and the Prophets, Iesus of Nazaret the sonne of Ioseph.

46 Then Nathanael saide vnto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazaret?
Philip saide to him, Come and see.

47 Iesus saue Nathanael comming to him, & saide of him, Behold indeed an Israelite, in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael saide vnto him, Whence knewest thou me? Iesus answered, and saide vnto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast vnder the figge tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and saide vnto him, Rabbi, thou art the Sonne of God:
thou art the King of Israel.

50 Iesus answered, and saide vnto him, Because I saide vnto thee, I sawe thee vnder
the figge tree, || beleeuest thou? thou shalt see greater things then these.

51 And he saide vnto him, Verely, verely
I say vnto yee, hereafter shall yee see heauen open, and the Angels of God ascending and descending vpon the Sonne of man.

CHAP. II.

8 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 Hee drineth the buyers and sellers out of the Temple. 19
He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 Hee converteth many, and distrusteth man.

And the third day was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the Mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his Disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the Mother of Iesus saide vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus saide vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His Mother saide vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were set there six water-pots of stone after the manner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three || firkins a peece.

7 And Iesus sayde vnto them, Fill the water-pots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brimme.

8 Then hee saide vnto them, Draw out now, and beare vnto the || gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knew not whence it was, but the ser-uants which drew the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the butlegrome,

10 And sayd vnto him, All men at the beginning set fourth good wine, and when men haue well drunke, then that which is worse:
but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill now.

11 This beginning of || miracles did Jesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed fourth his glory: and his disciples beleued on him.

12 After that hee went downe into Capernaum, hee and his mother, and his bre-
not many dayes there.

13 For the Iewes Pascheouer was at hand.
Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 And he found in the Temple those that sold oxen & sheepe and dones, and changers of money, sitting there.

15 Then he made a scourge of smal cordes, and draue them all out of the Temple with the sheepe and oxen, & powred out the changers money, and ouerthrew the Tables,

16 And saide vnto them that sold dones,
Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house a house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, * The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and saide
vnto him, What || signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and sayd vnto them,
* Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Forty and six yeres was this Temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But he spake of the Temple of his body.

22 Aftone therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he thus sayd vnto them: and they beleued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had said.

23 Now when hee was at Ierusalem at the Pascheouer in the feast, many beleued in his name, when they saw his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knew them all,

25 And had no neede that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

There was now a man of the Pharises,

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and bee borne?

5 Iesus answered, Certily, verily I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of water and of the Spirit, hee cannot enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh; and that that is borne of the Spirit, is Spirit.

7 Maruile not that I sayd to thee, Thou must be borne againe.

8 The winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: So is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and sayd vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him,
Art thou a teacher of Israel and knowest not these things?

11 Certily, verily I say vnto thee, we speak that we know, & testifie that we haue seene:
but ye receive not our witness.

12 If when I tell you earthly things, ye believe not, how should ye believe if I shall tell you of heavenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

14 And as Moyses lift up the Serpent in the wilderness, so must the Sonne of man be lift up.

15 That whosoever beleueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternal life.

16 For God so loued the world, that he hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoever beleueth in him, should not perish, but haue everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Sonne into the world, that he should condemne the world, but that the world through him might bee saued.

18 He that beleueth in him, shall not be condemned: but he that beleueth not, is condemned already, because he beleueth not in the name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loued darkenesse rather than light, because their deeds were euill.

20 For euery man that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither cometh to light, least his deeds should be reproboued.

21 But he that doeth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds might be made manifest, that they are wrought according to God.

22 After these things came Iesus & his disciples into the land of Iudaea, and there tarried with them, and baptised.

23 And Iohn also baptised in Enon, besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question betweene Iohns disciples and the Iewes, about purifying.

26 And they came vnto Iohn, and sayd vnto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whom thou barest witnes, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Iohn answered and sayd, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 Hee that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friends of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegromes voyce.
This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

30 Ye must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that is come from on hie, is aboue all: he that is of the earth, is of the earth and speaketh of the earth, he that is come from heauen, is aboue all.

32 And what he hath seene and heard, that he testifieth: but no man receiueth his testimony.

33 He that hath receiued his testimony, hath sealed that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by measure.

35 The Father loueth the Son, and hath giuen all things into his hand.

36 He that beleueth in the Son, hath euerlasting life, & he that obeteth not the Son, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth
on him.

 k God being of a spirituall nature requireth a spirituall seruice, and agreeable to his nature.

8 For his disciples were gone a way into the city to buy meat.

9 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it, that thou being a Jew alkest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria: for the Iewes meddle not with the Samaritans.

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me drink, thou wouldest haue asked of him, and he woulde haue giuen thee liue water of life.

11 The woman said vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our Father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, and he himselfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattell?

13 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Whosoener drinketh of this water shall thirst againe.

14 But whosoener drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more athirst: but the water that I shall giue him, shall be in him a well of water, springing vp into everlasting life.

15 The woman sayd vnto him, Sir, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.

16 Iesus said vnto her, Go, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, & said, I haue no husband. Iesus sayd to her, Thou hast well sayd, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had fise husbands, and he whom thou now hast, is not thine husband: that saidest thou truly.

19 The woman said vnto him, Sir I see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and ye say that in Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, beleue me, the houre commeth, when ye shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem worship the Father.

22 We worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know: for salutations of the Iewes.

23 But the houre commeth, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: for the Father requireth euen such to worship him.

24 God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and truth.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know well that Messias shall come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus sayd vnto her, I am hee that speake vnto thee.

27 And vpon that came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What alkest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and sayd to the men, 29 Come, see a man which hath told me all things that euer I did: Is not hee the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came vnto him.

31 In the meane while the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said vnto them, I haue meat to eat, that ye know not of.

33 Then the disciples between themselves, sayd, man brought him meat?

34 Iesus said vnto them, My meat is, that I may do the wil of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, and then commeth harvest? Behold, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: for they are white already vnto harvest.

36 And he that reapeth, receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit vnto life eternall, that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, might be reioyce together.

37 For herein is the saying true, that one soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that, whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.

39 Now many of the Samaritanes of the city beloued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, He hath told me all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him that hee would tary with them: and he abode there two dayes.

41 And many more beleued because of his owne word.

42 And they said vnto the woman, Now we beleue, not because of thy saying: for wee haue heard him our selues, and know that this is indeed the Christ the Saviour of the world.

43 So two dayes after, hee departed thence, and went into Galile.

44 For Iesus himselfe had testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne country.

45 Then when he was come into Galile, the Galileans receiued him, which had seene all the things that hee did at Ierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.

46 And Iesus came againe into Cana of Galile, where he had made of water wine. And there was a certaine ruler whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iudaea into Galile, he went vnto him, and besought him that he would go down, and heale his sonne: for he was euen ready to die.

48 Then said Iesus vnto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not beleue.

49 The ruler said vnto him, Sir, goe downe before my sonne die.

50 Iesus said vnto him, Goe thy way, thy sonne liueth: and the man beleued the word that Iesus had spoken vnto him, and went his way.

After that, there was a feast of the Iewes, & Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

2 And there is at Ierusalem by the place of the sheepe, a poole called in Chreth Bethesda, hauing fise porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blind, halt, and withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angel went down at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: wholoer then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had been diseased eight and thirty yeeres.

6 When Iesus saw him lie, and knew that he now long time had been diseased, hee said vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before mee.

8 Iesus saide vnto him, Rise: & take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and toke vp his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: it is not lawfull for thee to carie thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made mee whole, hee said vnto mee, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And hee that was healed, knew not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude, that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and said vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because hee had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and saide vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of himselfe, saue that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoever things he doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, and sheweth him all things, whatsoever he himselfe doeth, and he will shew him greater workes then these, that yet should maruile.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all iudgement vnto the Sonne, 23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne as they honour the Father: hee that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that heareth my word, and beleueth in him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, The houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that heare it, shall liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in himselfe, so likewise hath he giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe, 27 And hath giuen him power also to execute iudgement, in that he is the Sonne of man.

28 Maruelle not at this: for the houre shall come, in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, that haue done good vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent mee.

31 If I should beare witness of myselfe, my witness were not true.

32 There is another that beareth witness of mee, and I know that the witness which he beareth of me, is true.

33 He sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witness vnto the truth.

34 But I receiue not the record of man: neuertheless, these things I say, that ye might be saued.

CHAP. VI.

38 Iesus feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes. 39 Hee departeth away, that they should not make him King. 40 He reprooeth the fleshy beuers of his word. 41 The carnall are affected at him. 42 The flesh profiteth not.

After these things Iesus went his way
ouer the sea of Galilee, or of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles, which he did on them that were diseased.

3 Then Iesus went vp into a mountaine, and there he sate with his disciples.

4 Nowe the Passouer, a feast of the Jewes, was neere:

5 Then Iesus lift by his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, he said vnto Philip, Whence shall wee buy bread, that these might eate?

6 (And this he said to proue him: for he himselfe knew what he would doe.)

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that euery one of them make take a little.

8 Then saide vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother,

9 There is a little boy here, which hath five barley loaves, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus saide, Make the people sit downe (Now there was much grasse in that place.) Then the men sate downe, in number about five thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread and gaue shankes, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were satisfied, hee said vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that nothing bee lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the five barley loaves, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a truth the Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come, and take him to make him a King, he departed againe into a moun-taine him selfe alone.

16 When euene was now come, his disciples went downe vnto the Sea.

17 And entred into a ship, and went ouer the Sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the Sea arose with a great wind that blew.

19 And when they had rowed about five and twenty, or thirty furlongs, they saw Iesus walking on the Sea, and drawing neere vnto the ship: so they were afraid.

20 But he said vnto them, It is I: bee not afraid.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship: and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 The day following, the people which stood on the other side of the Sea, said that there was none other ship there, saue that one, wherein his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone alone.

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias neere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.

24 Now when the people saw that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the Sea, they said vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and said, Verily, verily I say vnto you, ye seeke me not, because ye saw the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for the meate that endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the Sonne of man shall giue vnto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they vnto him, What shall we doe, that we might worke the works of God?

29 Iesus answered, and said vnto them,
This is the worke of God, that ye beleeue in him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we may see it, and beleeue thee? what doest thou worke?

32 Then Iesus saide vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ° Moses gaue you not bread from heauen, but my Father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is he which commeth down from heauen, and giueth life vnto the world.

34 Then they sayd vnto him, Lord, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus sayde vnto them, I am the bread of life: hee that commeth to mee, shall not hunger, and ° hee that beleueth in mee, shall neuer thirst.

36 But I sayd vnto you, that ye also haue serue me, and beleue not.

37 All that the Father giueth me, shall come to me: and him that commeth to mee,
I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to doe mine owne will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath giuen me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every man which seeth the Sonne, and beleueth in him, should haue euerlast-ing life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Jewes then murmured at him, because hee sayde, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

42 And they said, ° Is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose Father and Mother we know? how then saith hee, I came down from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, and sayd vnto them, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can come to mee, except the Father which hath sent me, draw him, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the ° Prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, commeth vnto me.

46 ° Not that any man hath serue the Father, saue hee which is of God, hee hath serue the Father.

47 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleueth in mee, hath euerlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 ° Your Fathers did eat Manna in the wildernesse, and are dead.

50 This is the bread, which commeth downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it should not die.

51 I am the ° liuing bread which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this bread, hee shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 Then the Jewes stroue among themselues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue no ° life in you.

54 Whosoener ° eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternall life, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeede, and my blood is drinke indeede.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, ° dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the liuing Father, hath sent me, so line I by the Father, and hee that eateth me, euen he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake hee in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his Disciples (when they heard this) said, This is an hard saying:
who can ° heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his Disciples murmured at this, sayde vnto them, Doeth this offend you?

62 What then if yee should see the Sonne of man ° ascend vp ° where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh ° profiteth nothing: the wordes that I spake vnto you, are Spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleue not: for Iesus knewe from the beginning whited they were that beleued not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Iesus to the twelue, Will ye also goe away.

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Waiter, to whome shall we goe? thou hast
the wordes of ° eternall life:

69 And we beleue, and knowe that thou art ° the Christ the sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iesus answered them, Haue not I ° chosen you twelue, and one ° of you is a Deuill?

71 Now he spake it of Judas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelue.

the Jewes sought to kill him.

2 His brethren therefore said vnto him,

5 For as yet his brethren beleued not in him.

6 Then Iesus saide vnto him, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway readye.

b Why the world hateth Christ.

c Christ doeth not vterly deny that he would go to the feast, but signifieth that as yet hee was not fully determined.

7 The world cannot hate you: but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the works thereof are euill.

8 Goe ye vp vnto this feast, I will not goe vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 These things he saide vnto them, and abode still in Galilee.

10 But as soon as his brethren were gone by, then went he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were privately.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and said, Where is hee?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some saide, He is a good man: other saide, Nay, but he deceiueth the people.

d These were the heads of the people, who did enuie Christ.

Or, letters.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Iewes.

14 Now when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, How knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

e In that, that he is man only.

16 Iesus answered them, and sayde, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

f By this marke wee may know whether the doctrine be of God or of man.

21 Iesus answered, and sayde to them, I haue done one worke: and yett all marueille.

22 Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision (not because it is of Moses, but of the Fathers) and yett on the Sabbath day circumsise a man.

Deut. 1. 16, 17.

24 Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.

25 Then said some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this hee, whom they goe about to kill?

Or, freely.

26 And beholde, hee speaketh openly, and they say nothing to him: doe the Rulers knowe in dedde, that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit wee know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no man shall know whence he is.

28 Then cryed Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, See both know mee, and know whence I am: yett am I not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man laide handes on him, because his houre was not yett come.

31 Now many of the people beleued in him, and sayd, When the Christ cometh, will hee doe moe miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharisees and high Priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then saide Iesus vnto them, Yett am I a little while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.

34 We shall seeke me, and shall not finde me, and where I am, can ye not come.

35 Then sayde the Iewes among themselves, Whither will hee goe, that wee shall not finde him? Will hee goe vnto them that are dispersed among the Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he saide, Wee shall seeke me, and shall not finde mee? and where I am can ye not come?

37 Now in the last and great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto mee, and drinke.

38 Hee that beleueth in me, as sayth the Scripture, out of his belly shall flow riuers of water of life.

39 This spake he of the Spirit which they that beleued in him, should receiue: for the holy Ghost was not yett giuen, because that Iesus was not yett glorified.

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, sayde, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Other said, This is the Christ: some said, But shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Sayth not the Scripture, that the Christ shall come of the seed of Dauid, and out of the towne of Bethlechem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissension among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man laide hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priests and Pharisees, and they sayde vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Neuer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Art ye also deceived?

48 Doeth any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees beleue in him?

49 But this people which know not the Law, are curled.

50 Nicodemus sayde vnto them, (Hee that came to Iesus by night, and was one of them.)

51 Doeth our Law iudge a man before it heare him, and know what hee hath done?

C H A P. VIII.

11 Christ deliuereth her that was taken in adultery. 12 He is the light of the world. 14 He sheweth from whence he is come, wherefore, and whither he goeth. 32 Who are free and who are bond. 34 Of free men and slaves, and their reward. 46 He despiseth his enemies. 59 And being persecuted, withdraweth himselfe.

And Iesus went vnto the mount of Olives,

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, & all the people came vnto him, and he late downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees brought vnto him a woman, taken in adultery, and set her in the mids,

4 And said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moyses in the Law commanded vs, that such should bee stoned: what sayest thou therefore?

6 And this they sayd to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to accuse him. But Iesus stooped downe, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him he lift himselfe vp, and said vnto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe hee stooped downe, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the mids.

10 When Iesus had lift vp himselfe againe, & saw no man but the woman, he said vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus said, Neither do I condemne thee: go and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walke in darknesse, but shall haue the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therfore said vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not true.

14 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, & whither I goe: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I goe.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Lawe, that the testimony of two men is true.

e He would not iudge rashly as they did. Dent. 17. 6. and 19. 15. matth. 18. 16. 2. cor. 13. 1. 1. ioh. 10. 28.

18 I am one that beare witness of my selfe, & the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then sayd they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye neither knowe mee, nor my Father. If ye had knowen me, ye should haue knowen my Father also.

20 These words spake Iesus in the streety, as hee taught in the Temple, and no man layd hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I go my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then said the Iewes, Will hee kill himselfe, because he sayth, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, I am from beneath: I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore vnto you, that ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye beleene, that I am hee, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus said vnto them, When the same thing that I said vnto you from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Iesus vnto them, When ye haue lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye know that I am hee, and that I doe nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me, is with mee: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 As he spake these things, many beleued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which beleued in him, If ye continue in my word, ye are verily my disciples, 32 And shall know the trueth, and the trueth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We be Abrahams seed, & were neuer bound to any man: why sayest thou then, We shall bee made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, that whosoever committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the houle for ever: but the Sonne abideth for ever.

36 If the Sonne therfore shall make you free, ye shall be free in deed.

37 I know that ye are Abrahams seed, but ye seeke to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seen with my Father: and ye doe that which ye haue seene with your father.

39 They answered and said vnto him, Abraham is our Father. Iesus sayd vnto them, 40 But now yee goe about to kill me, a man that haue told you the trueth, which I haue heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Doe the workes of your father. Then said they to him, We are not borne of fornication: we haue one Father, which is God.

42 Therefore Iesus said vnto them, If God were your Father, then would ye loue me: for I proceeded forth, and came from God, neither came I of my selfe, but hee sent mee.

43 Why do ye not vnderstand my talke? because ye cannot heare my word.

44 We are of your father the deuill, and the lusts of your father ye will doe: hee hath bene a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the trueth, because there is no trueth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

45 And because I tell you the trueth, yee beleeue me not.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the trueth, why doe yee not beleeue me?

47 Hee that is of God, heareth Gods words: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and sayd vnto him, Say we not well, that thou art a Samaritane, and hast a deuill?

49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuill, but I honour my Father, and ye haue dishonoured me.

50 And I seeke not mine owne praise: but there is one that seeketh it, and iudgeth.

51 Verily, verily I say vnto you, If a man keepe my word, he shall neuer see death.

52 Then said the Iewes to him, Now know we that thou hast a deuill. Abraham is dead, and the Prophets, and thou sayest, If a man keepe my word, he shall neuer taste of death.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham which is dead? and the Prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe?

54 Iesus answered, If I honour my selfe, mine honour is nothing worth: it is my Father that honoureth me, whom ye say that he is your God.

55 Yet yee haue not knownen him: but I know him, and if I should say I know him not, I should be a liar like vnto you: but I know him, and keepe his word.

56 Your father Abraham reioyced to see my day, and he saw it and was glad.

57 Then said the Iewes vnto him, Thou art not yet fiftie yers old, and hast thou seene Abraham?

58 Iesus said vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then took they vp stones to cast at him, but Iesus hid himselfe, and went out of the Temple.

CHAP. IX.

Of him that was borne blinde, 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blind men Christ giueth sight.

As Iesus passed by, hee saw a man which was blinde from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the workes of God should be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent mee, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 As soone as he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay.

7 And said vnto him, Goe wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had seene him before when he was blinde, sayd, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some said, This is hee: and others said, He is like him: but he himselfe said, I am hee.

10 Therefore they said vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, & anointed mine eyes, and sayd vnto me, Goe to the pool of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they said vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him how he had receiued sight. And he said vnto them, He laid clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then sayde some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others sayde, How can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? And there was a dissention among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because hee hath opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we know not: or who hath opened his eyes, we can not tell: hee is olde enough; aske him: he shall answer for himselfe.

22 These wordes spake his parents, because a God doth not alwayes punish men for their sinnes.

cause they feared the Jewes: for the Jewes had ordeined already, that if any man did confesse that he was the Christ, he should be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, Weis olde enough: alke him.

24 Then againe called they the man that had bene blind, and said vnto him, ^f Sine glory vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 Then hee answered, and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I cannot tell: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

26 Then sayde they to him againe, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue tolde you already, and ye haue not heard it: wherefore would ye heare it againe? I will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, and sayd, We thou his disciple: we be Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: but this man we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and sayd vnto them, Doubtles this is a marueilous thing, that ye know not whence he is, and yet hee hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him heareth he.

32 Since the world began, was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he could haue done nothing.

34 They answered, and said vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and dost thou teach vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had cast him out: and when hee had found him, hee sayd vnto him, Dost thou beleue in the Sonne of God?

36 He answered, and said, Who is hee, Lord, that I might beleue in him?

37 And Iesus said vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then hee said, Lord, I beleue, and worshipped him.

39 And Iesus sayd, I am come vnto iudgement into this world, that they which see not, might see: and that they which see, might be made blinde.

40 And some of the Pharises which were with him heard these things, and said vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus sayd vnto them, If yee were blinde, yee should not haue sinne: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sinne remaineth.

CHAP. X.

11 Christ is the true shepheard, and the doore. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 24 Hee is asked if hee be Christ. 32 His workes declare that he is God. 34 The princes called gods.

Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that entreteth not in by the doore into the shepfold, but climbeth vp another way, hee is a thiefe and a robber.

2 But he that goeth in by the doore, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voice, and hee calleth the sheepe by name, and leadech them out.

4 And when he hath sent forth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And they will not follow a stranger, but they flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the doore of the sheepe.

8 All that euer came before me, are thieves and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the doore: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall goe in and goe out, and finde pasture.

10 The thiefe cometh not, but for to steale, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

11 I am the good shepheard: the good shepheard giueth his life for his sheepe.

12 But an hireling, and hee which is not the shepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe comming, and hee leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the sheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because hee is an hireling and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good shepheard, and know mine, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my sheepe.

16 Other sheepe I haue also, which are not of this fold: them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voice, and there shall be one shepfold, and one shepheard.

17 Therefore doeth my Father loue me, because I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this commandement haue I receiued of my Father.

19 Then there was a dissention againe among the Jewes for these sayings.

20 And many of them sayd, Hee hath a deuill, and is mad: why heare ye him?

21 Other said, These are not the words of him that hath a deuill: can the deuill open the eyes of the blinde?

22 And it was at Ierusalem the feast of the Dedication, and it was winter.

A And a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that * Marie which an-oynted the Lord with oymment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, behold, hee whom thou louest, is sicke.)

4 When Iesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might bee glorified thereby.

5 Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after hee had heard that hee was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, hee said to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples said vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to * stone thee, and dost thou goe thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not ^b twelue houres in the day: if a man walke in the day he stumbleth not, because hee seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake hee, and after hee sayd vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I goe to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, hee shall be safe.

13 Howbeit Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.

14 Then Iesus said vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs goe vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

17 Then came Iesus and found that 19 And many of the Iewes were come to Iesus was comming, went to meet him: but Mary sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou haddest bin here, my brother had not bin dead.

22 But now I know also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whosoever liueth and beleueth in me, shall neuer die. Beleuest thou this?

27 Shee said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when shee had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for for thee.

29 And when shee heard it, shee arose quickly and came vnto him.

towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

32 Then when Mary was come where Iesus was, and saw him, she fell downe at his feete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 When Iesus therefore saw her weepe, and the Iewes also weepe which came with her, he groined in the spirit, and was troubled in himselfe, 34 And said, Where haue yee layde him? They said vnto him, Lord, come and see.

35 And Iesus wept.

36 Then said the Iewes, Behold, how he loued him.

37 And some of them said, Could not hee, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also that this man should not haue died?

38 Iesus therefore againe groined in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was layd vpon it.

39 Iesus sayd, Take yee away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Iesus said vnto her, Sayd I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleue, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was layd. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, & sayd, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I know that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I said it, that they may beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As hee had spoken these things, hee cryed with a loude voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foote with bandes, and his face was bound with a napkin. Iesus sayde vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 Then many of the Iewes which came to Marie, and had seene the things, which Iesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharisees, and tolde them what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priests, and the Pharisees a councill, and said, What shall we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Cafaphas, which was the hie Priest that same yere, said vnto them, We perceiue nothing at all,

50 Now yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake he not of himselfe: but being hie Priest that same yere, he prophesied that Iesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation onely, but that he should gather together in one the children of God which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey neere to the wilderness, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Iewes Pascheouer was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vnto Ierusalem before the Pascheouer to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among themselves, as they stode in the Temple, What thinke ye that he cometh not to the feast?

57 Now both the hie Priests and the Pharisees had giuen a commandement that if any man knew where he were, hee should shew it, that they might take him.

Then Iesus fixe dayes before the Pascheouer, came to Bethania, where Lazarus was, which was dead, whom hee had raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that late at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Mary a pound of oymment of spikenard very costly, and anoynted Iesus' feete, and wiped his feete with her haire, and the house was filled with the sauour of the oymment.

4 Then sayd one of his disciples, euen Iudas Iscariot Simons sonne, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this oymment solde for three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 Now hee sayd this, not that hee cared for the poore, but because hee was a thiefe, and had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen.

7 Then said Iesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying she kept it.

8 For the poore alwayes yee haue with you, but me ye shall not haue alwayes.

9 Then much people of the Iewes knew that hee was there: and they came, not for Iesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 The hie Priests therefore consulted that they might put Lazarus to death also,

Zach. 9. 9.

12 Tooke branches of palme trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna, Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

14 And Iesus found a young asse, and sate thereon, as it is written,

15 * Feare not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh sitting on an asses colt.

16 But his disciples understood not these things at the first: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembered they, that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, bare witness that hee called Lazarus out of the graue, and raised him from the dead.

18 Therefore met him the people also, because they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 And the Pharisees said among themselves, Perceiue ye how ye proue nothing? Behold, the world goeth after him.

20 ¶ Now there were certaine * Greekes among them that came vp to worship at the feast.

21 And they came to Philip, which was of Bethsaida in Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Iesus.

22 Philip came and tolde Andrew: and againe Andrew and Philip tolde Iesus.

23 And Iesus answered them, saying, The houre is come, that the sonne of man must be glorified.

24 Verily, verily I say vnto you, except the wheate come fall into the ground and die, it biddeth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 * He that s loueth his life, shall lose it, and hee that hateth his life in this world, shall keepe it vnto life eternall.

26 * If any man serue me, let him follow me: for where I am, there shall also my seruant be: and if any man serue me, him will my Father honour.

27 Nowe is my soule troubled, and what shall I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voice from heauen, saying, I haue both glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.

29 Then sayde the people that stood by and heard, that it was a thunder: others said, An Angel spake to him.

30 Iesus answered, and said, This voice came not because of mee, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the iudgement of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 * And I, if I were lift vp from the earth, will draw all men vnto me.

33 Now this said hee, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We haue heard out of the * Lawe, that the Christ biddeth for ever: and how sayest thou, that the Sonne of man must be lift vp? who is that Sonne of man?

35 Then Iesus said vnto them, Yet a litle while is the light with you: walke while ye haue light, lest the darkenesse come vpon you: for he that walketh in the darke, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While yee haue light, beleue in the light, that ye may be the children of the light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, and hid himselfe from them.

37 ¶ And though hee had done so many miracles before them, yet beleued they not on him:

38 That the saying of Elias the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he said, * Lord, who beleued our report? and to whom is the * arme of the Lord reueiled?

39 Therefore could they not beleue, because that Elias saith againe, 40 * He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and should be conuerted, and I should heale them.

41 These things sayd Elias when hee saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 Neuerthelesse euen among the chiefe rulers many beleued in him: but because of the Pharisees, they did not confesse him, lest they should be cast out of the Synagogue.

43 * For they loued the * praisse of men, more then the praisse of God.

44 And Iesus cryed, and sayd, Hee that beleueth in mee, beleueth not in me, but in him that sent me.

45 And hee that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I * am come a light into the world, that whosoever beleueth in me, should not abide in darkenesse.

47 * And if any man heare my wordes, and beleue not, I iudge him not: for I came not to iudge the world, but to saue the world.

48 He that refuseth me, and receiueeth not my wordes, hath one that iudgeth him: the word that I haue spoken, it shall iudge him in the last day.

49 For I haue not spoken of my selfe: but the Father which sent me, he gaue me a commandement what I should say, & what I should speake.

3 Iesus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, and that hee was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his vpper garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that he poured water into a bason and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feete?

7 Iesus answered and said vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feet. Iesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with mee.

9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also the hands, and the head.

10 Iesus said to him, He that is washed, needeth not, save to wash his feete, but is cleane euery whit: and ye are cleane, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 So after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he said vnto them, Know ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and yet say well: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your feete, ye also ought to wash one anothers feete.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should doe, euen as I haue done to you.

16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, The seruant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then hee that sent him.

18 I I speake not of you all: I knowe whom I haue cholen: but it is that the scripture might be fulfilled, * Hee that eateth bread with mee, hath lift vp his heele against me.

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, hee that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he that receiueth mee, receiueth him that sent me.

21 When Iesus had said these things, he was troubled in the spirit, and testified, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 When the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Iesus, holome, whom Iesus loued.

24 To him deckened therefore Simon Peter, that hee should alke who it was of whom hee spake.

25 He then, as he leaned on Iesus breast, said vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, Hee it is, to whome I shall giue a sop, when I haue dipped it: and he wet a sop, and gaue it to Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the sop, Satan entred in to him. Then said Iesus vnto him, What thou doest, doe quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knew for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Judas had the bagge, that Iesus had said vnto him, Buy those things that we haue neede of against the feast: or that he should giue some thing to the poore.

30 Assoone then as hee had receiued the sop, hee went immediatly out, and it was night.

31 When he was gone out, Iesus said, Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, & shall straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: ye shall seeke me, but as I said vnto the Iewes, Whither I goe, can ye not come: also to you say I now.

34 A new commandment giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Iesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now: but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said vnto him, Lord, why can I not follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Iesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Verely, verely I say vnto thee, The cocke shall not crow, till thou haue denied me thrise.

21 He that hath my Commandements, and keepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, shall be loued of my Father: and I will loue him, and will shew mine owne selfe to him.

22 Judas sayd vnto him, (not Iscariot)
Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shew thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him,
If any man loue mee, hee will keepe my

I am the true Vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 Every branch that beareth not fruit in me, hee takeeth away: and euery one that beareth fruit he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now are ye cleane through the word, which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Abide in mee, and I in you: as the branch cannot beate fruit of it selfe, except it abide in the Vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the Vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without mee can ye doe nothing.

6 If a man abide not in mee, hee is cast foorth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in mee, and my wordes abide in you, alke what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruit, and be made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loued mee, so haue
I loued you: continue in my loue.

10 If ye shal keepe my Commandements,

5 But now I goe my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me,* Whither goest thou?

6 But because I haue sayde these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorrow.

7 Yet I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I goe not away, the Comforter will not come vnto

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sinne, and of righteousnesse, and of iudgement.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith vnto vs, A litte while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, A litte while, and ye shall see me, and for I goe to my Father?

18 They sayde therefore, What is this that hee saith, A litte while? wee know not what he saith.

19 Now Iesus knew that they would aske him, and said vnto them, Doe ye enquire among your selues of that I sayde, A litte while, and ye shall not see mee: and againe, A litte while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily I say vnto you, that ye shall weepe and lament, and the world shall reioyce: and ye shall sorrow, but your sorrow shall be turned to ioy.

29 His disciples said vnto him, Loe, now speakest thou plainly, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should aske thee. By this we beleue that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Doe you beleue now?

32 Behold, the houre cometh, and is already come, that pee shall be scattered euery man into his owne, and shall leaue me alone: but I am not alone: for the Father is with mee.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that in mee ye might haue peace: in the world ye shall haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receive the truth.

These things spake Iesus, and lift up his eyes to heauen, and sayd, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee.

2 Thou hast giuen him power ouer all flesh, that hee should giue eternall life to all them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they know thee to be the onely very God, and whom thou hast sent, Iesus Christ.

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

5 And now glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: chine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the words which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, and haue knowne surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleueed that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world: but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, & I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe them in thy Name, euen them whom thou hast giuen mee, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name, those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the childe of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things speake I in the world, that they might haue my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I haue giuen them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepest them from euil.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctifie them with thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou didst send me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be sanctified through the truth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleue in me through their word.

21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in me, and I in thee: euen that they may be also one in vs, that the world may beleue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gauest mee, I haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one.

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfect in one, & that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them as thou hast loued me.

24 Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, be with mee euen where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 Righteous Father, the world also hath not knowne thee, but I haue knowne thee, and these haue knowne that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued me, may be in them, and I in them.

ternes and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth, and said vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Iesus said vnto them, I am he. Now Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soone then as he had said vnto them
I am he, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them againe, Whom seeke ye? And they said Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he, therefore if ye seeke me, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the word might be fulfilled which he spake. Of them which thou gauest me haue I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the hie Priests seruant, and cut off his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen me?

12 Then the band and the captaine, and the Officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to *d Annas first (for hee was father in lawe to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest: the same yere)

14 *And Caiaphas was hee that gaue counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 *Now Simon Peter followed Ie-sus, and another disciple, and that disciple was knowne of the hie Priest: therefore hee went in with Iesus into the hall of the hie Priest.

16 But Peter stood at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was knowne vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then said the maide that kept the doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he sayd, I am not.

18 And the seruants and officers stood there, which had made a fire of coales: for it was cold, and they warmed themselves.
and Peter also stood among them and warmed himselfe.

19 *The hie Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I neuer taught in the Synagogue, or in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secret haue I sayd nothing.

21 *Althaskest thou me? aske them which heard me, what I sayd vnto them: behold, they know what I sayd.

22 *Then he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stood by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerst thou the hie Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witness of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 *Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.

25 *And Simon Peter stood and warmed himselfe, and they said vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it, and sayd, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin, whose care Peter smote off, sayd, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediately the cocke crew.

28 *Then led they Iesus from Cai-phas into the common hall. Now it was morning, and they themselves went not into the common hall, lest they should bee defiled, but that they might eate the Pas-souer.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered, and said vnto him, If he were not an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes said vnto him, It is not lawfull for vs to put any man to death.

32 It was that the word of Iesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 *So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and said vnto him, Art thou the king of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iew? Thine owne nation and the hie Priests haue de-liuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this world, if my kingdome were of this world, my seruantes would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Iewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a king then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witness vnto the trueth:
every one that is of the trueth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate said vnto him, What is trueth?
and when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, and said vnto them, I find in him no cause at all.

39 *But you haue a custome, that I should deliuer you one loose at the Pas-souer: will ye then that I loose vnto you the king of the Iewes?

40 *Then cryed they all againe, saying,
Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murderer.

4 Then Pilate went forth againe, and sayd vnto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may knowe, that I find no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus forth, wearing a Crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, b Beholde the man.

6 Then when the high Priestes and officers saw him they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himselfe the Sonne of God.

8 When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraid.

9 And went againe into the Common hall and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer.

10 Then said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from above: therefore hee that deliuered mee vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

12 From thence forth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cæsars friend: for whosoener maketh himselfe a King, speaketh against Cæsar.

13 When Pilate heard that worde, he brought Iesus forth, and late downe in the Iudgement seate in a place called the Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the Passouer, and about the sixt houre: and hee sayd vnto the Iewes, Behold your King.

15 But they cryed, away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate sayd vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The high Priestes answered, We haue no King but Cæsar.

16 Then deliuered hee him vnto them to be crucified. And they tooke Iesus and led him away.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens skeltes, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the mids.

19 And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified was nere to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, Greeke and Latine.

21 Then said the high Priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure parts, to eery souldier a part, and his coate, and the coate was without seame, wouen from the toppe thorow-out.

24 Therefore they said one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lots for it whose it shall be. This was that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, * They parted my garments among them, and on my coate did cast lots. So the souldiers did these things in deede.

25 Then stood by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister Marie the wife of Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus saw his mother and the Disciple standing by, whom hee loued, he sayd vnto his mother, Woman, beholde thy sonne.

27 Then said he to the Disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre the Disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it about an hyssope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vinegar, he said, It is finished, and bowed his head and gaue vp the ghost.

31 The Iewes then, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an hie day) belounght Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that hee saith true that he might beleue it.

36 For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shall be broken.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the Sepulchre, and saw the linnen clothes lie,

7 And the kerchiefe that was vpon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe.

8 Then went in also the other Disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw it, and beleueed.

9 For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the Disciples went away againe vnto their owne home.

11 * But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she bowed herselfe into the sepulchre, 12 And saw two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Iesus had lain.

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She said vnto them, They haue taken away my Lord, and I know not where they haue layd him.

14 When she had thus said, she turned her selfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knew not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She supposing that hee had bene the gardiner, said vnto him, Sir, if thou hast boene him hence, tell me where thou hast layd him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus saith vnto her, Mary. She turned her selfe, and said vnto him, Rabbouni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus sayth vnto her, Touch me not, for I am not yet ascended to my Father, but goe to my brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your God.

18 Marie Magdalene came and told the Disciples, that she had seene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 * The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the disciples were shut where the Disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stood in the midst, and said to them, Peace be vnto you.

20 And when hee had so said, hee shewed vnto them his hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.

21 Then saide Iesus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent mee, so send I you.

22 And when he had said that, he breathed on them, and said vnto them, Receiue the holy Ghost.

23 * Whosoener sinnes yee remit, they are remitted vnto them: and whosoener sinnes yee retaine, they are retained.

24 * But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, We haue seene the Lord: but he said vnto them, Except I see in his hands the print of the nayles, and put my finger into the print of the nayles, and put mine hand into his side, I will not beleuee it.

26 * And eight dayes after, againe his Disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus when the doores were shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, said he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see my hands, and put forth thine hand, and put it into my side, and bee not faithlesse, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and said vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus said vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene mee, thou beleeuest: blessed are they that haue not seene, and haue beleeued.

30 * And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his Disciples, which are not writen in this booke.

31 But these things are writen, that yee might beleeue that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleeuing ye might haue life through his Name.

C H A P. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his Disciples againe. Hee commandeth Peter earnestly to feed his sheepe. 18 He ferewarneth him of his death. 23 Of Christes manifold miracles.

|| Or, lake of Genesareth.

After these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto them, I goe a fishing. They said vnto him, Wee also will goe with thee. They went their way and entered into a ship straightway, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheless the Disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

|| Or, children.

5 Iesus then said vnto them, || Sires, haue ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

a Albeit they knew him not, yet they followed his counsell, because they had all night taken paines in vaine. b It was some linen garment, which fishers vsed to weare, which being trussed vnto him, couered his nether parts, and also letted not his swimming.

7 Therefore said the disciple whom Iesus loued vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, hee girded his coat to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by ship (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits) and they drew the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they saw hote coales, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred fiftie and thre: and albeit they were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the Disciples durst alke him, Who art thou, seeing they knew that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Ie-sus shewed himselfe vnto his Disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 So when they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee more then these? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee sayde vnto him, Feede my lambs.

16 He said to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee? He sayd vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Feed my sheepe.

17 He said vnto him the third time, Simon the sonne of Iona louest thou mee? Peter was sorie because he said to him the third time, Louest thou mee? and sayd vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus sayde vnto him, Feed my sheepe.

18 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt bee old, thou shalt stretch forth thine handes, and another shall gird thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And thus spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when hee had said this he said to him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and saw the Disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also leane on his breast at supper, and had said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore saw him, hee sayd to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Iesus said vnto him, If I will that he tary till I come, what is it to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this Disciple should not die. Per Iesus said not to him, He shall not die: but, If I will that he tary till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that Disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

25 Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, I suppose the world could not containe the bookes that should be written, Amen.

c The Minister cannot wel teach his Congregation, except he loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feed not the flocke.

d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ causeth him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.

e In stead of a girdle, thou shalt bee tyed with bands & coards: and whereas now thou goest at libertie then thou shalt be drawen to punishment, when thy flesh shall after a sort resist. Chap. 13. 23.

f But God would not charge vs with so great an heape: seeing therefore that we haue so much as is necessary, we ought to content our selues and praise his mercy.

The Actes of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGUMENT.

Christ after his Ascension performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby that he was not onely mindfull of his Church, but would bee the head and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mighty power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a few simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the sound of his Gospel. And here in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, wee may plainly perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppress and overthrow the Gospel: he raiseth conspiracies, tumults, commotions, persecutions, slanders, and all kind of cruelty. Again, we shall here behold the prouidence of God, who overthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to follow their Captaine Christ, leaving leaving as it were by this historie a perperuall memorie to the Church that the Crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction is but the beginning of another: Yet neuertheless God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings, and tentations of his to a good issue, giuing them as it were in sorrow, ioy: in bonds, freedom: in prison deliuerance: in trouble, quietnesse: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent Sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercy of God. Of the grace and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitye. An exhortation to the ministers of Christs flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall points of our faith: so that this onely history in a maner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and Religion.

CHAP. I.

7 The words of Christ and his Angels to the Apostles. 9 His ascension. 14 Wherein the Apostles be occupied till the holy Ghost bee sent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

I haue made the former treatise, O Theophilus, of all that Iesus began to doe and teach, 2 Until the day that hee was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghost, had giuen commandments vnto the Apostles, whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also hee presented himselfe aliuie after that he had suffered, by many infallible tokens, being scene of them by the space of fouertie dayes, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the kingdom of God.

4 And when hee had gathered them together, he commanded them that they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the father, which, sayd hee, ye haue heard of me.

5 For Iohn in deede baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost within these few dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said vnto them, it is not for you to know the times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power.

8 But ye shall receiue power of the holy Ghost, when he shall come on you: and ye shall bee witnesses vnto mee both in Ierusalem and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken vp: for a cloud tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as hee went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparell,

11 Which also sayd, Men of Galile, why stand ye gazing into heauen? This 13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an upper chamber, where abode both Peter, and James, and Iohn, and Andrew, Phillip, and Thomas, Bartolomew and Matthew, James the sonne of Alphæus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas James brother.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his bretheren.

15 And in those dayes Peter stood by in the middes of the disciples, and sayde, (now the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundred and twentie.)

16 We men and bretheren, this Scripture must needs haue bene fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was guide to them that toke Iesus.

17 For hee was numbred with vs, and had obtained fellowship in this ministration.

18 He therefore hath purchased a feld with the reward of iniquitie: and when he had throwen downe himselfe headlong, he brast asunder in the mids, and all his bowels gashed out.

22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that he was taken vp from vs, must one of them bee made a witness with vs of his resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barlabas, whose surname was Iesus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed saying, Thou Lord which knowest the hearts of all men, shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen, that he that should take in hand that excellent office of an Apostle, might be chosen by the authoritie of God.

17 And it shall be in the last dayes, saith God, I will poure out of my Spirit vpon all flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shall prophesie, and your yong men shall see visions, and your olde men shall dreame dreames.

18 And on my seruants, and on mine handmaides I will poure out of my Spirit in those dayes, and they shall prophesie.

19 And I will shew wonders in heauen above, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood and fire, and the vapour of smoke.

20 ¶ The Sunne shall bee turned into darkenesse, and the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall bee that whosoener shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 ¶ Ye men of Israel, heare these words, Iesus of Nazaret, a man approoued of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the midstes of you, as yee your selues also know:

23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of the wicked, being deliuered by the determinate counsell, and || foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:

24 Whom God hath rayled vp, and loosed the sorowes of death, because it was impossible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David sayth concerning him, I beheld the Lord alwayes before mee: for hee is at my right hand, that I should not bee shaken.

26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreouer also my flesh shall rest in hope.

27 Because thou wilt not leaue my soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

28 Thou hast shewed mee the wayes of life, and shalt make me full of ioy with thy countenance.

29 ¶ Men and brethren, I may boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarke David, that hee is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.

30 Therefore seeing he was a Prophet, and knew that God had sware with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loynes he would rayle vp Christ concerning the flesh to set him vpon his throne,

CHAP. III.

7 The lame is restored to his feet. 12 Peter preacheth Christ vnto the people.

NW Peter and John went vp together into the Temple, at the ninth houre of prayer.

a Which is with vs three a clocke
after noone, which was their euening sacrifice, at which the Apostles were present, to teach that the shadowes of the Law were abolished by that Lambe that tooke away the sinnes of the world.

33 Since then that he by the right hand of God hath been exalted, and hath receiued of his Father the promise of the holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this which ye now see and heare.

34 For David is not ascended into heauen, but he saith, * The Lord sayd to my Lord, * Sit at my right hand,

35 Until I make thine enemies thy foot-stool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know for a surety, that God hath made him both Lord & Christ, this Iesus, I say, whom ye haue crucified.

37 Now when they heard it, they were pricked in their hearts, and said vnto Peter and the other Apostles, * Men and brethren,
what shall we doe?

38 Then Peter said vnto them, I mend your liues, and ye be baptized euery one of you in the Name of Iesus Christ for the remission of sinnes: and ye shall receiue the gift of the holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is made vnto you, and to your children, and to all that are afare off, euen as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words he besought, and exhorted them, saying, * Save your selues from this forward generation.

41 Then they that gladly receiued his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added to the Church about three thousand // soules.

42 And they continued in the Apostles doctrine, and fellowship, and breaking of bread, and prayer.

43 And as he came vpon euery soule:
and many wonders and signes were done by the Apostles,

44 And all that beloued, were in one place, and had all things // common.

45 And they solde their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as eu-ery one had need.

46 And they continued daily with one accord in the Temple, and breaking bread // at home, did eate their meat together with gladnesse and singlenesse of heart,

47 Praising God, and had fauour with all the people: and the Lord added to the Church // from day to day, such as should be saved.

2 And a certaine man which was a creple from his mothers wombe was caried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple called Beautiful, to aske almes of them that entered into the Temple.

3 Also seeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, desired to receiue an almes.

4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with John, said, * Look on vs.

5 And he gaue heed vnto them, trusting to receiue something of them.

6 Then said Peter, * Siluer and gold haue
I none, but such as I haue, that giue I thee:
In the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, rise vp and walke.

7 And he tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediately his feet and ankle bones receiued strength.

8 And he leaped vp, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the Temple, walking and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walke, and praising God.

10 And they knew him, that it was hee which sat for the almes at the Beautifull gate of the Temple, and they were amazed, and were astonished at that which was come vnto him.

11 And as the creeple which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran amazed vnto them in the porch which is called Salomons.

12 So when Peter saw it, hee answered vnto the people, * Ye men of Israel, why maruaile ye at this, or why looke ye so stupidly on vs, as though by our owne power or godlinesse we had made this man
goe?

13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, * the God of our fathers hath glorified his Sonne Iesus, whom ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pil-late, when hee had iudged him to be deli-uered.

14 * But ye denied the Holy one and the Just, and desired a murderer to be giuen
you,

15 And killed the Lord of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.

16 And his Name hath made this man sound, whome ye see, and knowe, through faith in // his Name: and the faith which is in him, hath giuen to him this disposition of his whole body in the presence of you all.

17 And now brethren, I know // through ignorance ye did it, as did also your gouer-nours.

18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his Prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath thus fulfilled.

19 Amend your liues therefore, and turne, that your sinnes may be pur away, when the time of refreshing // shall come from the presence of the Lord.

20 And he shall send Iesus Christ, which before was preached vnto you.

till the time that all things be restored, which God had spoken by the mouth of his holy Prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses sayd unto the Fathers, The Lord your God shall raise up unto you a Prophet, even of your brethren like unto me: ye shall heare him in all things wharsoeuer he shall say unto you.

23 For it shall be, that every person which shall not heare that Prophet, shall be destroyed out of the people.

24 Also all the Prophets from Samuel, and thenceforth as many as haue spoken, haue likewise foretold of these dayes.

25 We are the children of the Prophets, and of the covenant which God hath made unto our fathers, saying to Abraham, "Thou shalt be blessed."

26 First unto you hath God raised up his Sonne Jesus, and him he hath sent to blesse you, in turning every one of you from your iniquities.

27 So that our regeneration and newnesse of life is inclosed vnder this blessing.

C H A P. III.

3 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of prison preach the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainly the Name of Christ. 16 They are commanded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good success of the Gospel. 32 The increase, unity, and charitie of the Church.

As they spake unto the people, the Priests and the captaine of the Temple, and the Sadduces came upon them,

2 Taking it grievously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they layd hands on them, and put them in hold untill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word, believed, and the number of the men was aboute foure thousand.

5 And it came to passe on the morrow, that their Rulers and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Anas the chiefe Priest, & Cataphas, and Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high Priests.

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the holy Ghost, said vnto them, Ye Rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 For as much as we this day are examined of the good worke done to the impotent man, to witt, by what means he is made whole,

10 Be it known vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye haue crucified, whom God raised againe from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is the stone cast aside of youe builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name vnder heauen, whereby we must be saved.

13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and vnderstood that they were vilerne men, & without knowledge, they marueiled, and knew them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commanded them to goe aside out of the Councell, and conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, What shall we doe to these men? For surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly known to all them that dwell in Ierusalem, and we cannot denie it.

17 But that it bee noised no further among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in no wise they should speake or teach in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and said, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For we cannot but speake the things which we haue seene and heard.

21 So they threatened them, and let them go, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for al men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboute fouertye yere old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then as soone as they were let go, they came to their fellowes, and shewed all that the high Priests and Elders had sayd vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift by their voyces to God with one accord, & said, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea & all things that are in them.

25 Which by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast said, "Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?"

26 The kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For doubtles against thine holy Sonne Iesus, whom thou hast annointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered themselves together.

28 To doe whatsoeuer thine hand and thy counsell had determined before to be done.

29 And now, O Lord, behold their threatenings, and grant vnto thy seruants with all boldnesse to speake thy word, 30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes and wonders may be done by the Name of thine holy Sonne Iesus.

31 And when as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled

26 Also Ioses, which was called of the Apostles, Barnabas (that is by interpretation, the sonne of consolation) being a Leuite, and of the countrey of Cyprus, 27 Whereas hee had land, sold it, and brought the money, and layd it downe at the Apostles feet.

CHAP. V.

1 The hypocrisie of Ananias and Sapphira punished. 2 Miracles are done by the Apostles.

17 They are taken, but the Angel of God bringeth them out of prison. 29 Their bold confession before the Councill. 34 The councill of Gamaliel. 40 The Apostles are beat, and reioyce in trouble.

B At a certaine man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept away part of the price, his wife also being of counsell, and brought a certaine part, and layd it downe at the Apostles feet.

3 Then said Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldst lie vnto the holy Ghost, and keepe away part of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, whether it was sold, or not, was it thine: and after it was sold, was it not in thine owne power? how is it that thou hast coeined this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Now when Ananias heard these words, he fell downe, and gaue by the ghost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men rose vp and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it came to passe about the space of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter sayd vnto her, Tell mee, soldst thou the land for so much? And she sayd, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue ye agreed together, to tempt the Spirit knownen your craftie fetch? which declareth, that when men do any thing of an euill conscience, they doe not onely pronounce the sentence of damnation vpon themselves, but also prouoke the wrath of God, because they doe prouee, as it were purposely, whether God be righteous and Almighty.

of the Lord? behold, the fate of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then she fell downe straightway at his feet, & yielded vp the ghost, and the young men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the handes of the Apostles, were many signes and wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accord in Salomons porch.

13 And of the other: durst no man loyne himselfe to them: neuertheless the people magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that believed in the Lord, both of men and women, grew more and more.)

15 In so much that they brought the sicke into the streetes, and laid them on beds, and couches, that at the least way the shadow of Peter, when he came by, might shadow some of them,

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, and them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the Sadducees) and were full of indignation, 18 And laid hands on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and sayd, 20 Goe your way and stand in the Temple, and speake to the people all the wordes of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entered into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Councill together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, & found them not in the prison, they returned and told it,

23 Saying, Certainly we found the prison shut and lare as was possible, & the keepers standing without before the doores: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one, and shewed them, saying, Behold, the men that ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they should haue bene stoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Councill, and the chiefe Priest asked them,

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answ red and sayd, We ought rather to obey God

30 The God of our fathers hath raised vp Iesus, whom ye slew, and hanged on a

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right

32 And we are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 Now when they heard it, they haist for anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there vp in the Council a certaine Pharisee named Gamaliel, a doctoz of the Law, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a litle space,

35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take heed to your selues, what ye intend to doe touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp Theu das boasting himselfe, to whom resorted a number of men, about a foure hundred, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man, rose vp Judas of Galilee, in the dayes of the tribute, and drew away much people after him: hee also per ished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And now I say vnto you, Refraine your selues from these men, & let them alone:
for if this counsell, or this worke be of men,
it will come to nought:

39 But if it bee of God, ye cannot de stroy it, lest ye be foundeuen lighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commaunded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, & let them
goe.

41 So they departed from the Council:
reioycing that they were counted worthy to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And daily in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach and preach Iesus Christ.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke ye out among you such men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisdom, which we may appoint to this busines.

4 And we will give out selues contin

5 And the saying pleased the whole mul faith and of the holy Ghost, and Philip and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a Proselyte of Antiochia.

6 Which they set before the Apostles, and they prayed, and laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, & the number of the disciples was multiplied in Ierusalem greatly, and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the faith.

Gen. 12. 1.

2 And said unto him, Come out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

3 Then came hee out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran, and after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this land wherein ye now dwell.

4 And he gaue him none inheritance in it, no, not the breadth of a foot: yet he promised that he would giue it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

5 But God spake thus, that his seed should be a sojourner in a strange land, and that they should keepe it in bondage, and current it right & four hundredth yeres.

6 But the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I iudge, saith God: and after that, they shall come forth and serue me in this place.

7 Ipe gaue him also the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate Isaac, and circumcised him the eight day: and Isaac begate Jacob, and Jacob the twelue Patriarkes.

8 And the Patriarkes mooued with enuie, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

9 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and gaue him fauour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and ouer his whole house.

10 Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction: that our fathers found no sustenance.

11 But when Jacob heard that there was come in Egypt, hee sent our fathers first.

12 And at the second time Joseph was knowne of his brethren, and Josephs kindred was made knowne vnto Pharaoh.

13 Then sent Joseph and caused his father to be brought, and all his kindred, euery threescore and thirtie soules.

14 So Jacob went downe into Egypt, and he died, and our father,

15 And were remoued vnto Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that Abraham had bought for money of the sonnes of Emor, sonne of Sychem.

16 But when the time of the promise drew nere, which God had sworne to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 17 Till another King arose, which knew not Joseph.

18 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and euill intreated our fathers, and made them to cast out their young children, that they should not remaine aliu.

19 The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house thre moneths.

20 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter tooke him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

21 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in wordes and in deedes.

22 Now when he was full fortie yere old, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel.

23 And when he saw one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarrell that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

24 For he supposed his brethren would haue understood that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they understood it not.

25 And the next day hee shewed himselfe vnto them as they stroue, and would haue set them at one againe, saying, I see ye are brethren, why doe ye wrong one to another?

26 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

27 Alit thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

28 Then fled Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in y land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

29 And when fortie yeres were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire, in a bush.

30 And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew nere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

31 I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold it.

32 Then the Lord said to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

33 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, & am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

34 This Moses whom they forsooke, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge: the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hand of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

35 He brought them out, doing wonders and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red Sea, and in the wilderness fortie yeres.

36 This is that Moses which layd vnto the children of Israel, A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise vp vnto you, euery of your brethren, like vnto me, him shall ye heare.

37 This is he that was in the Congregation, in the wilderness with the Angel, which spake to him in mount Sina, & with our fathers, who receiued the lively oracles to giue vnto vs.

38 To whom our fathers would not obey, but refused, and in their hearts turned backe againe into Egypt,

39 Saying vnto Aaron, Make vs gods that may goe before vs: for we know not what is become of this Moses, that brought

55 But he being full of the holy Ghost, looked stedfastly into heauen, and saw the glory of God, and Iesus standing at the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, I see the heauens open, and the Sonne of man standing at the right hand of God.

1 And Saul consented to his death, and at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, and they were all scattered abroad through the regions of Iudea, and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, * carried Steuen among them, to be buried, and made great lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauck of the Church, and entred into euery house, and drew out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 Then came Philip into the city of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vnclane spirits crying with a loud voice, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palkes, and that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 And there was before in the city a certaine man called Simon, which vied witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, That hee himselfe was some great man.

10 To whom they gaue heede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And they gaue heede vnto him, because that of long time hee had bewitched them with forceries.

12 But as soone as they beleued Philip, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe beleued also and was baptized, and continued with Philip, and wondered, when hee saw the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 Now when the Apostles which were at Ierusalem, heard say that Samaria had receiued the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the holy Ghost,

16 (For as yet he was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized onely in the Name of the Lord Iesus)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the Apostles hands, the holy Ghost was giuen, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that on whomsoeuer I lay the hands, hee may receiue the holy Ghost.

20 Then said Peter vnto him, Thy money perissh with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obtained with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor fellowship in this busines: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickednesse, and pray God, that if it bee possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I see that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, Pray ye to y Lord for me, that none of these things which ye haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 So they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritanes.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise, and goe toward the South, vnto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem vnto Gaza, which is a waste.

27 And he arose, & went on: and behold, a certaine Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Quene of the Ethiopians chiefe gouernour, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Jerusalem to worship.

28 And as he returned sitting in his charret, he read Eneas the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philip, Go nere, and loyne thy selfe to yonder charret.

30 And Philip ran thither, & heard him reade the Prophet Eneas, and said, But vnderstandest thou what thou readeest?

31 And he said, How can I, except I had a guide: & he desired Philip that he would come vp and sit with him.

32 Nowe the place of the Scripture which he read, was this, I was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe dumbe before his shearer, so opened hee not his mouth.

33 In his humilitie, his iudgement hath bene crastred: but who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, & the Eunuch sayd, See, here is water: what doest thou let me to be baptized?

37 And Philip sayd vnto him, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. Then he answered, and said, I beleue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then hee commaunded the charret to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And as soon as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch saw him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus, and hee walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

3 Now as he journeyed, it came to passe, that as he was come nere to Damascus, suddenly there shined round about him a light from heauen.

4 And hee fell to the earth, and heard a voyce saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

14 Moreover, here he hath authoritie of the high Priests, to bind all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord said vnto him, Go thy way: for he is a ^h cholen vessell vnto mee to ⁱ beare my Name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

20 And straightway hee preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God,

21 So that all that heard him were amazed, and sayd, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this Name in Ierusalem, and came hither for that intent, that hee should bring them bound vnto the high Priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jewes which dwelt at Damascus, ^k confirming that this was the Christ.

23 And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Jewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

24 But their laying awaite was knowne of Saul: now they ^m watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, hee assayed to ioyne himselfe with the Disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleueed not that he was a Disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, & brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how hee had seene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken vnto him, & how he had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.

28 And he was ⁿ conuersant with them at Ierusalem,

29 And spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and spake and disputed with the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to ^o Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest throughout all Iudea and Galile, & Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda, 33 And there hee found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the palsey.

34 Then said Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and make vp thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa a certaine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called Dorcas) shee was full of good workes and almes which shee did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and died: and when they had washed her, they layd her in an upper chamber.

38 Now so much as Lydda was neere to Ioppa, and the Disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that hee would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose & came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber, where all the widowes stood by him weeping, & shewing the coates and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sayd, 41 Then hee gaue her the hand, and lift her vp, and called the ^p Saints & widowes, and restored her alieue.

fraido, and said, What is it, Lord? And hee said unto him, Thy prayers and thine almes are come up into remembrance before God.

5 Now therefore send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: † he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, hee called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morrow as they went on their iourney, and drew neere vnto the citie, Peter went by vpon the house to pray, about the sixth houre.

10 Then waxed he an hungred, & would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And he saw heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were all manner of foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowles of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eate.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted or vncleane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thise: and the vessel was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which hee had seene meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had enquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit sayd vnto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, and doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter went downe to the men which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayd, Behold, I am hee whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the capitaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them, and the next day Peter went forth with them, and certaine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feete, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my selfe am a man.

27 And as hee talked with him, he came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, We know that it is an unlawfull thing for a man that is a Jew, to company or come vnto one of an other nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man polluted, or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for me?

30 Then Cornelius sayd, Foure dayes agoe, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And sayd, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the Sea side) who when hee commeth, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediately, and thou hast well done to come. Now therefore are wee all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceiue, that God is no acceptor of persons.

35 For in euery nation hee that feareth him and worketh righteousnesse, is accepted with him.

36 ¶ Ye know the word which God hath sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lord of all.

37 Euen the word which came through all Iudaea beginning in Galile, after the baptism which Iohn preached,

38 To wit, how God anoynted Iesus of Nazaret, with the holy Ghost, & with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the deuill: for God was with him.

39 And wee are witnesses of all things which hee did both in the land of the Jewes, and in Ierusalem, whom they slew, hanging him on a tree.

40 Him God raised vp the third day, and caused that he was shewed openly:

41 Not to all the people, but vnto the witnesses chosen before of God, euen to vs which did eate and drinke with him, after he arose from the dead.

42 And hee commanded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testifie, that it is he that is ordained of God a Iudge of quicke and dead.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 So they of the circumcision which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speake with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which haue received the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 So he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tary certaine dayes.

CHAP. XI.

4 Peter sheweth the cause wherefore hee went to the Gentiles. 18 The Church approacheth it. 21 The Church increaseth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia. 28 Agabus propheseth dearth to come, 29 and the remedie.

Now the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they of the circumcision contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the cite of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I saw this vision. A certaine vessel coming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

6 Toward the which, when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then behold, immediatly there were thre men already come vnto y house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto me, that I should goe with them without doubting: moreover these six brethren came with me, and we entered into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs how he had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 Hee shall speake wordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, * euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how hee said, * Iohn baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gave them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when we believed in the Lord Iesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles graunted repentance vnto life.

19 And they which were scattered abroad because of the affliction that arole about Steuen, walked throughout till they came vnto Phenice, and Cyprius, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprius and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number believed and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Jerusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas that he should goe vnto Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come, and had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would cleaue vnto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people toynded themselves vnto the Lord.

25 And departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when he had found him, hee brought him vnto Antiochia, and it came to passe, that a whole peere they were conuersant with the Church, and taught much people, insomuch, that the Disciples were first called Christians in Antiochia.

27 In those dayes also came Prophets from Jerusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stood vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit that there should be great famine throughout all the world, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples every man according to his ability, purposed to send succour vnto y brethren which dwelt in Iudea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders by the handes of Barnabas and Saul.

g For they did know by Gods word, that Angels were appointed to defend the faithfull, and: I so in those dayes they were accustomed to see such fights h Which was lesse suspect, by reason of the brethren.

2 And hee killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And when hee saw that it pleased the Jewes, hee proceeded further to take Peter also (then were the dayes of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passouer to bring him forth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betwene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.

7 And behold, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and hee smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angel said vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and binde on thy sandals. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knew not that it was true which was done by the Angel, but thought he had seene a vision.

10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himselfe, hee sayd, Now I knowe for a trueth that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Jewes.

12 And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entry doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when she knew Peters voice, she opened not the entry doore for gladnesse, but ran in and tolde how Peter stood before the entrie.

15 But they sayde vnto her, Thou art madde. Yet shee affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then sayd they, It is his Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckened vnto them with the hand to hold their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And hee sayd, Goe shew these things vnto James and to the brethren: and he departed and went into another place.

18 Now as soone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him and found him not, he examined the keepers and commaunded them to be led to be punished. And hee went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herod intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and persuaded Blastus the kings chamberlain, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herod arrayed himselfe in royall apparell, and sat on the iudgement seat, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, The voice of God, and not of man.

23 But immediately the Angel of the Lord smote him, because hee gave not glory vnto God, so that hee was eaten of wormes, and gave by the Ghost.

24 And the word of God grewe, and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas and Sant returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and tooke with them John whose surname was Marke.

There were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine prophets and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Mana-hen, (which had bene brought vp with Herod the Tetrarch) and Saul.

2 Now as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

3 Then fasted they, and prayed, and laid their hands on them, and let them goe.

4 And they, after they were sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Jewes: and they had also John to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they found a certaine socerer, a false prophet, being a Jew, named Barjesus, 7 Which was with the Deputy Sergius Paulus a prudent man. Hee called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.

8 But Elymas the socerer (for so is his name)

i Both by flattereing words, & also by bribes. k Whiche should haue done if he had punished the flatterers, of whose vanitie he complained when he was a dying, as Iosephus writeth l The vilenesse of the punishment declareth how God detesteth pride and tyrannie: his grandfather also was eaten of lice name by interpretation) withstood them, and sought to turne away the Deputie from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, let his eyes on him,

10 And said, I ful of all subtilty and all mischife, the childe of the deuill, and enemye of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not cease to peruert the straight wayes of the Lord?

11 Now therefore behold, the hand of the Lord is vpon thee, and thou shalt be blinde, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediately there fell on him a miste and a darknesse, and he went about, seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he saw what was done, beleued, and was astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him, were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga, a citie of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antiochia, a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

15 And after the lecture of the Law and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Vee men and brethren, if yee haue any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood vp and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of Egypt, and with an high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the time of forty yeeres, suffered hee their manners in the wilderness.

19 And he destroyed seuen nations in the land of Chanaan, and diuided their land to them by lot.

20 Then afterward hee gaue vnto them Judges: about foure hundred and fiftie yeeres, vnto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a King, and God gaue vnto them Saul the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of fortie yeeres.

22 And after he had taken him away, hee raised vp David to be their King, of whom hee witnessed, saying, I haue found David the sonne of Jesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will do all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seede hath God accor- ding to his promise rayled vp to Israel the Saviour Jesus:

24 When Iohn had first preached before his coming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his course, hee said, whom ye thinke that I am, I am not hee: but behold, there commeth one after me, whose shoe of his feete I am not worthy to looke.

26 Vee men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the words of the Prophets, which are read euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God rayled him vp from the dead.

31 And hee was seene many dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Jerusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you that touching the promise made vnto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he raised vp Jesus, euen as it is written in y second Psalme, Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Now as concerning that hee raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath sayd thus, I will giue you the holy things of David which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore hee sayeth also in another place, Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Wherebeit, David after he had serued his time by the counsell of God, hee slept, and was layd with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But he whom God raised vp, saw no corruption.

38 Bee it knowen vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiveness of sinnes.

39 And from all things from which yee could not be iustified by the Law of Moses, by him euery one that beleueth is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets, 41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and banish away: for I worke a worke in your dayes, a worke which yee shall not beleue, if a man would declare it you.

42 And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, that they would preach these words to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolved, many of the Iewes, and Proselytes that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

c Which are the doctrine of the Apostles, that onely leadech vs to God.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, * It was necessary that the worde of God should first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing yee put it from you, and iudge your selues vnworthie of eueralsting life, loe, we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commaunded vs, saying, * I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be the saluation vnto the end of the world.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lord, and as many as were ordeined vnto eternall life, beleueed.

49 Thus the word of the Lord was published throughout the whole countrey.

50 But the Jewes stirred certaine without and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the cite, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coastes.

51 But they shooke off the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioy and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XLIIII.

3 God giueth successe to his word. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium and are persecuted. 13 At Lystra they would doe sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which refuse it, and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 23 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience. 23 Appoint ministers. 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

And it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Jewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jewes and of the Grecians beleueed.

2 But the vnbeleueing Jewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lorde, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the people of the cite were diuided: and some were with the Jewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Jewes with their rulers, to doe them violence, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about.

7 And there were preaching the Gospel.

8 Now there sate a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feete, which was a cripple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 We heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to bee healed,

10 Sayde with a loud voyce, † Stand vp: right on thy feete. And he leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Iupiters Priest, which was before their cite, brought bulles with garlands vnto the gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard it, they rent their clothes, and ranne in among the people, crying,

15 And saying, O men, why doe yee these things? Wee are euen men: subiect to the like passions that yee bee, and preach vnto you, that yee should turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, which made heauen and earth, and the sea, and all things that in them are.

16 Who in times past suffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne wayes.

17 Neuerthelesse, hee left not himselfe without a witnesse, in that he did good and gaue vs raine from heauen, and fruitfull seasons, filling our hearts with foodde and gladnesse.

18 And speaking these things, scarce restrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them.

19 Then there came certaine Jewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perswaded the people, † stoned Paul, and drew him out of the cite, supposing he had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the cite, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that cite, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia.

22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith affirming that wee must thorow many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by election in euery Church, & prayed, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleueed.

24 Thus they went thorowout Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached y word in Perga, they came downe to Attalia.

26 And thence sailed to Antiochia, from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that God had done by them, and how he had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

2 And when there was great dissension and disputation by Paul and Barnabas, against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of them should goe by to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But sayd they, certaine of the sect of the Pharisees, which did beleue, rose up, saying, that it was needefull to circumcise them, and to commaund them to keepe the Law of Moses.

10 Now therefore, why tempt ye God, to lay a yoke on the disciples necks, which neither our fathers, nor wee were able to beare?

11 But wee beleue, through the grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to bee saved, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which tolde what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they helde their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 Simeon hath declared how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 After this, I will returne, and will build againe the Tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I build againe, and I will set it vp.

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lord, and all the Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, sayth the Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God.

20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstaine themselves from filthinesse of idoles, and fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in euery citie them that preach him, seeing he is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their owne companie to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas, to wit, Judas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren.

23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 For as much as wee haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and cumbrd your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised and keepe the Law: to whome wee gaue no such commandement, 25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul.

26 Men that haue giuen by their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 Wee haue therefore sent Judas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay no more burthen vpon you, then these necessary things.

29 That is, that ye abstaine from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, & after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioyced for the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas being Prophets, exhorted the brethren with many wordes and strengthened them.

33 And after they had carried there a space, they were let goe in peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

25 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other the word of the Lord,

26 But after certaine dayes Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs retorne, and visite our brethzen in euery cite, where wee haue preached the word of the Lord, and see howe they doe, 27 And Barnabas counsell'd to take with them John called Marke.

28 But Paul thought it not meet to take him vnto their companie, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

29 Then were they so stirred, that they departed asunder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Marke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended of the brethzen vnto the grace of God.

41 And hee went thorow Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

CHAP. XVI.

1 When Paul had circumcised Timothee, he tooke him with him. 7 The spirit calleth them from one countrey to another. 14 Lydia is converted. 28 Paul and Silas imprisoned, convert the Iaylor. 37 and are deliuered as Romanes.

Then came hee to Derbe and to Lystra: and beholde, a certaine discipule was there, named * Timotheus, a womans sonne, which was a Jewesse and beleued, but his father was a Grecian,

2 Of whom the brethzen which were at Lystra and Iconium, reported well.

3 Therefore Paul would that he should goe forth with him, and tooke and circumcised him, because of the Jewes, which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went thorow the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe ordeined of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number dayly.

6 Nowe when they had gone thorowout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were forbidden of the holy Ghost, to preach the word in Asia.

7 Then came they to Mysia, and sought to goe into Bithinia: but the Spirit suffe- red them not.

8 Therefore they passed thorow Mysia, and came downe to Troas,

9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and pray'd him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs,

10 And after hee had seene the vision, immediately wee prepared to goe into Macedonia, being assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a straight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis.

12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe cite in the parts of Macedonia, and the whole inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and wee were in that cite abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day, wee went out of the cite, besides a riuer where they were wont to pray: and we sate downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia: a seller of purple, of the cite of the Thyatirians, which worshipped God, heard vs: whole heart the Lord opened, that shee attended vnto the things which Paul spake.

15 And when shee was baptized and her household, shee besought vs, saying, If yee haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house and abide there: and she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to prayer, a certaine mayd hauing a spirit of diuination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

17 She followed Paul and vs, and cryed, saying, These men are the seruants of the most high God, which shewe vnto vs the way of saluation.

18 And this did shee many dayes: but Paul being grieved, turned about, and sayd to the spirit, I commaund thee in the name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Now when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and dreyne them into the market place vnto the Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the Gouernors, saying, These men which are Jewes, trouble our cite,

21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the Gouernors rent their clothes, and commanded them to be beaten with rodde.

23 And when they had beaten them sore, they cast them into prison commaunding the Iaylor to keepe them surely.

24 Who hauing receiued such commandement, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feete fast in the stocks.

25 Nowe at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a psalme vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, and euery mans bands were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waken out of his sleepe, and when hee saw the prison doores open, he drew out his sword, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed with a loud voice, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for wee are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I doe to be saued?

o For the punishment was great against them that did iniurie to a citi-zen Romane,;

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vncoloured, which are Romans, they haue cast vs into prison, and now would they put vs out priuily: nay verely: but let them come and bring vs out.

38 And the sergeants tolde these wordes vnto the Gouer-nours, who feared when they heard that they were Romans.

39 Then came they & prayed them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia: and when they had seene the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul cometh to Thessalonica, 4 where some receiue him, and others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 Hee disputeth at Athens, and the fruit of his doctrine.

NOwe as they passed thorow Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures.

3 Opening & alledging that Christ must haue suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, sayd he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleeued, and ioyned in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God, a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a few.

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, moued with enuy, tooke vnto them certaine vagabonds and wicked fellows, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the citie, & made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drew Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are.

7 Whom Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is an other King, ouer Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people and the heads of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readinesse, and searched the Scriptures dayly, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a few.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knewe, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to goe as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the citie subject to idolatrie.

17 Therefore hee disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market, dayly, with whomsoeuer he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoikes, disputed with him, and some sayd, What wilt this babbler say: Others sayd, He seemeth to be a letter fourth of strange gods (because hee preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into Mars street, saying, May wee not know, what this new doctrine whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine strange things vnto our eares: wee would knowe therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers which dwelt there, gaue themselves to nothing els, but either to tell of to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stood in the middes of Mars street, and sayd, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things yee are too superstitious.

ration of God, we ought not to thinke that the Godhead is like vnto gold, or siluer, the which he will iudge the world in righte-ousnesse, by that man whom he hath appointed, whereof he hath giuen an assurance to all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 Now when they heard of the resurrection from the dead, some mocked, and other said, Wee will heare thee againe of this thing.

them.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Paul labourith with his hands, and preacheth at Corinthus. 6 He is detested of the Iewes, 8 yet recei-ued of many, 9 and comforted of the Lord. 14 Gallio refuseth to meddle with religion. 18 Pauls vow. 21
His faith in the providence of God, 22 and care for the brethren. 24 The praise of Apollos.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Iew named Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italy, and his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tents.)

4 And hee disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grecians.

5 Now when Silas and Timotheus came to him, he continued more stoutly, and wrought more abundantly, for many were added to his church.

6 Or, paulions, which were made of skins.

were come from Macedonia, Paul turned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Jesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphe-med, he shook his raiment, and said vnto them, Your blood be vpon your owne heads:
I am cleane; from henceforth will I go vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entered into a certaine mans house, named Justus, a worshipper of God, whose house Ioyued hard to the Synagogue.

8 And Crispus the chiefe Ruler of the Synagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleued and were baptized.

9 Then said the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall lay handes on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 So he continued there a yeele and sixe moneths, & taught the word of God among them.

12 Now when Gallio was deputy of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudge-ment seat,

13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deed, O ye Iewes, I would according to reason maintaine you.

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your Lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I will be no iudge of those things.

16 And hee drave them from the iudge-
ment seat.

17 Then took all the Grecians Sosthenes, the chiefe Ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he took leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that hee had shorne his head in Cenchrea, for he had a vow.

19 Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he entered into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes.

20 Who desired him to tary a longer time with them: but he would not consent.

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needs keepe this Feast that commeth in Ierusalem: but I will returne againe vnto you, if God will. So he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he came downe to Cesarea, he went by Ierusalem: and when he had saluted the Church, he went down vnto Antiochia.

23 Now when he had taried there a while,
he departed, and went thorow the cuntry of Galatia and Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 And a certaine Iew named Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus.

d And boyled with a certaine
zeale.

25 The same was instructed in the way of the Lord, and he spake fervently in the spirit, and taught diligently the things of the Lord, and knew but the baptisme of Iohn onely.

26 And he began to speake boldly in the Synagogue. Whom when Aquila & Pelli-cilla had heard, they tooke him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was minded to goe into Achaia, the brethren exhorted him, wrote to the disciples to receive him: & after he was come thither, he holpe them much which had beleeued through grace.

28 For mightily he confuted publickly the Jewes with great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iesus was the Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

6 The holy Ghost is given by Pauls hands. 9 The Jewes blaspheme his doctrine, which was confirmed by miracles. 13 The rashnesse and punishment of the Conversers, and the fruit that came thereof. 24 Demetrius raiseth sedition under pretence of Diana. 41
The God delivereth him, and appeaseth it by the Towne Clerke.

And it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed thorow the upper coasts, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples,

2 And said unto them, Have ye received the holy Ghost since ye beleeued? And they sayd unto him, Alas haue not so much as heard, whether there be an holy Ghost.

3 And he sayd unto them, Unto what were ye then baptized? And they sayd, Unto Iohns baptisme.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should beleeue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

6 And Paul layd his hands upon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 Moreover, he went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the Kingdome of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, hee departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schoule of one Tyrannus.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Iesus, both men and women. And that our sins may Jewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles
by the hands of Paul.

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sick, kerchiefs, or handkerchiefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them.

13 Then certaine of the vagabond Jewes, exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We adure you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were certaine sonnes of Screua a Jew, the Priest, about seuen which did this.

15 And the euill spirit answered and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I know:
but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the euill spirit was, ranne on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fledde out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was knowne to all the Jewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeued, came and confessed, and shewed their works.

19 Many also of them which used curious artes, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it fiftie thousand pieces of silver.

20 So the word of God grew mightily, and prevailed.

21 Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed by the Spirit to passe thorow Macedonia and Achaia, and to goe to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent hee into Macedonia two of them that ministered vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius, a siluer smith, which made siluer temples of Diana, brought great gaines vnto the craftsmen.

25 Whom he called together, with the workmen of like things, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we haue our goods.

26 Moreover, ye see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath perswaded, and turned away much people, saying, That they bee not gods, which are made with hands.

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, that the State should bee reprooued, but also that the Temple of the great Goddess Diana should bee nothing esteemed, and that it would come to passe, that her magnificence, which all Asia, and the world adore, should bee therefore put in doubt, which thing is contrary to the doing of faithfull,

Asia, and the world worshippeth, should be destroyed.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephelians.

29 And the whole citie was full of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one assent, and caught Gaius, and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, and Pauls companions of his journey.

30 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia, which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that he would not present himselfe in the common place.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assembly was out of order, and the more part knew not wherfore they were come together.

33 And some of the company dycted forth Alexander, the Jewes thrusting him forwards. Alexander then beckned with the hand, and would haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jewe, there arose a shout almost for the space of two houres of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephelians.

35 Then the towne Clerke, when he had stayed the people, said, Vee men of Ephesus, what man is it, that knoweth not, how that the citie of the Ephelians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which came downe from Iupiter?

36 Seeing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to bee appealed, and to doe nothing rashly.

37 For ye haue brought hither these men, which haue neither committed sacriledge, neither doe blaspheme your goddess.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius & the craftsmen which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are Deputies: let them accule one another.

39 But if yee enquire any thing concerning other matters, it may be determined in a lawfull assembly.

40 For wee are euen in seopardie to bee accused of this dayes sedition, forasmuch as there is no cause, whereby wee may giue a reason of this concourse of people.

41 And when he had thus spoken, hee let the assembly depart.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia.

7 He celebrateth the Lords Supper, and preacheth.

9 At Troas he raysed up Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his payer with them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

Now after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when hee had gone through those parts, and had exhorted them with many words, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried there three moneths, because the Jewes laid wait for him, as hee was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These went before, and taried vs at Troas.

6 And we sayled forth from Philippi, after the dayes of vnleauened bread, and came vnto them to Troas in fīue dayes, where we abode seuen dayes.

7 And the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continueth the preaching vnto midnight.

8 And there were many lights in an upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a windowe a certaine yong man, named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, hee ouercome with sleepe, fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went down, and laid himselfe vpon him, and embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, hee communed a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliue, and they were not a little comforted.

13 Then we went forth to ship, and sailed vnto the citie of Assos, that we might receiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and would himselfe goe aswt.

14 Now when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And wee sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day wee arriued at Samos, and taried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because hee would not spend the time in Asia: for he hastened to bee, if he could possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of Pentecost.

17 Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 When they were come to him, hee said vnto them, Vee knowe from the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

19 Seruing the Lord with all modestie, and with many teares, and tentations, which came vnto me by the layings awaite of the Jewes, 21 Witnessing both to the Jewes, & to the Grecians the repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Iesus Christ.

22 And now behold, I goe bound in the Spirit vnto Ierusalem, and know not what things shall come vnto me there.

23 Saue that the holy Ghost witnesseth in every citie, saying, that bands and afflictions abide me.

24 But I passe not at all, neither is my life deare vnto my selfe, so that I may fulfill my course with joy, and the ministracion which I haue receiued of the Lord Iesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that henceforth ye all, through whom I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Therefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you all the counsell of God.

28 Take heed therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, whereof the holy Ghost hath made you ouerscers, to feed the Church of God, which hee hath purchased with his owne blood.

29 For I know this that after my departing shall grievous wolues enter in among you, not sparing the flocke.

30 Moreover, of your owne selues shall men arise, speaking peruerse things, to draw disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three yeeres I ceased not to warne every one, both night and day with teares.

33 I haue coveted no mans siluer, nor gold, nor apparell.

34 Yea, ye know that these hands haue ministered vnto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I haue shewed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Iesus, how that he said, It is a blessed thing to giue, rather then to receiue.

36 And when hee had thus spoken, hee kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him.

38 Being chieflie loy for the words which hee spake, That they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the ship.

39 Although this be not orderly so written in any one place, yet it is gathered of diuers places of the Scripture in effect.

15 The same danger that he was in, and how hee escaped.

16 The same danger that he was in, and how hee escaped.

17 The same danger that he was in, and how hee escaped.

18 The same danger that he was in, and how hee escaped.

19 The same danger that he was in, and how hee escaped.

And as we lanch'd forth, and were departed from them, we came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.

2 And wee found a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboard, & let forth.

3 And when we had discovered Cyprius, we left it on the left hand, and sail'd toward Syria, and arriv'd at Cyprius: for there the ship unladed the burden.

4 And when we had found disciples, we taried there seven daies. And they told Paul through the Spirit, that hee should not goe up to Ierusalem.

5 But when the dayes were ended, wee departed and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wives and children euen out of the citie: and we kneeling down on the shore, pray'd.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, wee tooke shippe and they returned home.

7 And when wee had ended the course from Cyprius, we arriv'd at Idoles, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day Paul and they that were with him, departed, & came vnto Cesarea: and we entered into the house of Philp the Evangelist, which was one of the seven Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as wee taried there many dayes, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdle, and bound his owne hands and feete, and said, Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Jewes at Ierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, both wee & other of the same place besought him, that he would not goe up to Ierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe ye weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when he would not be perswaded we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord bee done.

15 And after those dayes wee trusted vp our fardels, and went up to Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprius an olde disciple, with whom he should lodge.

17 And when wee were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto James, and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when he had embraced them, hee tolde by order all things, that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministracion.

20 So when they heard it, they glorified

By the revelation of Gods Spirit.

The holy Spirit reuealed vnto them the persecutions that Paul should haue made against him, and the same Spirit also strengthened Paul to susteine them.

Chap. 6. 5.

This office of Deaconship was but for a time according as the Congregation had need, otherwise.

God would haue his seruants bands known, to the intent, that no man should thinke, that he cast himselfe into wilfull danger.

This was not to make Paul afraid, but to encourage him against the brunt fied the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest brother, how many thousand names there are which believe, and they are all zealous of the law.

21 Now they are informed of that, that thou teachest all the Jewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moles, and sayest, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to live after the customs.

22 What is then to be done? the multitude must needs come together: for they shall hear that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that wee say to thee. Take haue ^a four men, which haue made a vow.

24 Then take, and purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, that they may ^a haue their heads: and all shall know, that those things, whereof they haue bin informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepst the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleue, wee haue written, and determined ^a that they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselves from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entered into the Temple, declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, untill that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Jewes which were of Asia (when they saw him in the Temple) moued all the people, and ^a layde handes on him.

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the law, and this place: moreover he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 For they had scene before Trophimus an Ephelian with him in the cite, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the cite was moued, and the people ranne together: and they tooke Paul, and drue him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, sidings came into the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an uprore.

32 Who immediately tooke souldiers, and Centurions, and ranne ^a downe vnto them: and when they saw the chiefe Captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe captaine came neere, and tooke him, and commaunded him to be bound with two chaines, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when hee could not know the certaintie for the tumult, he commaunded him to be led into the castle.

25 And when he came vnto the griece, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

26 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

27 And as Paul should haue bin led into the castle, he said vnto the chiefe captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who said, Canst thou speake Greke?

28 Art not thou the ^a Egyptian who before these dayes raised a sedition, and led out into the wilderness foure thousand men that were murderers?

29 Then Paul said, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Jew, and citizen of ^a Tarsus a famous cite in Cilicia, and I beseech thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the griece, and beckned with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

YE men, brethren, and fathers, heare my defence now toward you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he said.)

3 I am verily a man, which am a Jew, borne in ^a Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up in this cite as the ^a secte of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect manner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 And I persecuted this ^a way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into prison both men and women.

5 As also the chiefe Priests doo becomen traitors, and all the state of the Elders: of whom also I receiued letters vnto the brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 As it was, as I journeyed, and was come nere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voice, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Iesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 Whereupon, they that were with me, stood as if they had been dead, and were afraid, but they heard not the voice of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shall I doe, Lord? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and get thee into Damascus: and there it shall be tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with mee, and came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Law, having good report of all the Jewes which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, recurre thy sight: and that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that Just one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnesse vnto all men, of the things which thou hast seene and heard.

16 Now therefore why tarrest thou? Rise, and bee baptized, and wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the Name of the Lord.

17 And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Jerusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And saw him saying vnto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy witness concerning me.

19 Then I sayd, Lord, they know that I *pisoned, and beat in every Synagogue them that beleued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy Martyr Stephen was shed, I also *stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he said vnto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 And they heard him vnto this word. But when they lift vp their voyces, and sayd, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meete that he should liue.

23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the ayre,

24 The chiefe Captaine commaunded him to be led into the Caste, and bade that he should be scourged and examined, that he might know wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said vnto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is a Romane, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went and told the chiefe Captaine, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe Captaine came, and said to him, Tell me, Art thou a Romane? And he said, Yea.

28 And the chiefe Captaine answered, With great summe obtained I this *burgesship. Then Paul said, But I was so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should haue examined him: and the chiefe Captaine also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Romane, and that he had bound him.

30 On the next day, because hee would haue knowen the certaintie wherefore hee was accused of the Jewes, hee loosed him from his bonds, and commaunded the hie Priests and all their Councill to come together: and he brought Paul, and let him befoze them.

CHAP. XXII.

3 The answer of Paul being smitten, and the overthrow of his enemies. 11 The Lord encourageth him. 23 And because the Jewes laid waite for him, he is sent to Cesarea.

1 And Paul beheld earnestly the Councill, and said, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vntill this day.

2 Then the high Priest Ananias commaunded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul to him, God will smite thee thou whited wall: for thou stirrest to iudge me according to the Law, and commaundest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Resist thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then said Paul, I know not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, *Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were of the Sadducees, and the other of the Pharisees, he cryed in the Councill, Men and brethren, *I am a Pharisee, the sonne of a Pharisee: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had said this, there was a dissention betwene the Pharisees and the Sadducees, so that the multitude was diuided.

8 *For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confesse both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharisees part rose vp, and stood, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissention, the chiefe Captaine fearing lest Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commaunded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the caste.

11 Now the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou beare witness also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Jewes made an assembly, and bound themselves with an oath, saying, that they would neither eat nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then foure, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priests and Elders, and sayd, We haue bound our selues with a solemne oath, that we will eat nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye and the Councill, signifie to the chiefe Captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to morrow, as though yee would know some thing more perfectly of him, and we, or ether he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters *sonne heard of a Paul doth not curse the high Priest, but denounceth sharply the punishment of God which should light vpon him, who under pretence of maintaining the Law, doth transgresse it.

of their laying about, he went, and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions unto him, and says, Bring this young man unto the chiefe Captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chiefe Captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, which hath some thing to say unto thee.

19 Then the chiefe Captaine took him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he said, The Jewes have conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the Council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in wait for him of them more then fouerty men, which have bound them selves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drinke, till they have killed him: and now are they ready, and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the young man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

23 And he called unto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may go to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and two hundred with darts, at the third houre of the night:

24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe unto Felix the Gouverneur.

25 And he wrote an Epistle in this manner:

26 Claudius Tylas unto the most noble Gouverneur Felix sendeth greeting.

26 As this man was taken of the Jewes, and should have bene killed of them, I came upon them with the garison, & rescued him, perceiving that he was a Romane.

28 And when I would have knowen the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Council.

29 There I perceived that he was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed mee, how that the Jewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things they had against him, farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned unto the castle.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they delivered the Epistle to the Gouverneur, and presented Paul also unto him.

34 So when the Gouverneur had read it, he asked of what Province he was: and when he understood that he was of Cilicia.

35 I will heare thee, says he, when thou accusest also are come, and commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 5 Felix greiveth him, thinking to have a bribe, and after leaveth him in prison.

Now after five dayes, Ananias the high Priest came downe with the Elders, & with Tertullus a certaine Oratour, which appeared before the Gouverneur against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee have obtained great quietnesse through thee, and that many worthy things are done unto this nation through thy providence.

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places most noble Felix with all thanks.

4 But that I be not tedious unto thee, I say thee that thou wastest heare us of thy civillie a few words.

5 Certainly we have found this man a peitilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jewes throughout the world, and a chiefe maintainer of the sect of the Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we took him, and would have iudged him according to our Law:

7 But the chiefe captaine Lyfias came upon us, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt enquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jewes likewise affirmed, saying, that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouverneur had beckned unto him that he should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answer for my selfe, forasmuch as I know that thou hast bene of many yeeres a iudge unto this nation.

11 Seeing that thou mayest know, that there are but twelve dayes since I came up to worship in Jerusalem.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither making uprore among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the city.

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse unto thee, that after the way which they call heretic, to worship I the God of my fathers, beleiving all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets.

15 And have hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they themselves take for also, shall be both of him and yours.

16 And herein I indevout my selfe to have

23 Now when Felix heard these things, he deferred them, and sayd, When I shall more perfectly knowe the things which concerne this way, by the coming of Lysias the chiefe captain, I will decide your matter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that he should haue ease, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 And after certaine daies came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewesse, and he called forth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

When Festus was then come into the prouince, after three daies he went by from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that hee would send for him to Ierusalem: and they layd wait to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should bee kept at Cesarea, and that hee himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, said hee, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there bee any wickednesse in the man, let them accuse him.

6 Now when hee had tarried among them no more then tenne daies, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sat in the iudgement seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Iewes which were come from Ierusalem, stood about him, and said many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not proue.

8 Forasmuch as hee answered, that hee had neither offended any thing against the Law of the Iewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 Per Festus willing to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou goe up to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to bee iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things, whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Councell, he answered, Wilt thou appeale vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 And after certaine daies, King Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many daies, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whom when I came to Ierusalem, the high Priests and Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to death, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following, I sat on the iudgement seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood by, they brought no crime of such things as I supposed.

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aliue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him, whether hee would goe to Ierusalem, and there bee iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to be referred to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrow, said he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morrow when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the common hall with the chiefe Captaines and chief men of the Citie, as Festus commandement Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jewes haue called vpon me, both at Ierusalem, and here, crying, that he ought not to liue any longer.

25 Yet haue I found nothing worthy of death, that he hath committed: neuertheless, seeing that hee hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whom I haue no certaine thing to write vnto my lord: wherefore I haue brought him forth vnto you, and specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue some what to write,

27 For mee thinketh it unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shew the causes which are layd against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approved by rehearsing his conuersation, 25 his modest answer against the iniurie of Festus.

Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answer this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Jewes:

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Jewes: wherefore, I beseech thee to heare me patiently.

4 As touching my life from my childhood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Jewes.

5 Which knewe mee heretofore (if they would testifie) that after the most straitest of our religion, I liued a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly turning God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O King Agrippa, I am accused of the Jewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should rayle against the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to do many contrary things against the Name of Iesus of Nazaret.

10 Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saints, I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the hie Priests, and when they were put to death, I gaue my sentence.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being moored against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the hie Priests,

13 At midday, O King, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightnesse of the sunne, shine round about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto mee, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, * Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against prickes. Chap 9.4. and 22.7.

15 Then I sayd, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feet: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoynt thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I will appear vnto thee.

17 Deliuering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee.

18 To open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision.

20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe workes worthy amendment of life.

21 For this cause the Jewes caught mee in the Temple, and went about to kill me. Chap. 21.30.

22 Neuertheless I obteyned helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Moles did say should come,

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that hee should bee the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as hee thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee madde.

25 But he sayd, I am not mad. O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of truth and sobernesse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O King Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleuest.

28 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Almoost thou perswadest mee to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul sayde, I would to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bondes.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betwene themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death,

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage, and his companie toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arrive.

Now when it was concluded, that wee should saile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certain others prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And we entred into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to saile by the coastes of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arrived at Sidon: and Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, & sayled hard by Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphilia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lykia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sayling into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Ostium, because the winde suffered vs not, we sayled hard by Candie, neere to Salomone.

8 And with much adoe sayled beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was now ieopardous, because also the fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And sayd vnto them, Syrs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuerthelesse the Centurion beleued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an haven of Candie, and lieth toward the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.

13 And when the Southerne wind blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sailed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wind, we let her goe, and were caried away.

16 And we ranne vnder a little Ile named Claudia, and had much adoe to get the boate.

17 Which they tooke by and used all helpe, vndergirding the shippe, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the vessell, and so were caried.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne noꝛ starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that wee should be saued, was taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and sayd, Syrs, yee should haue hearkened to mee, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to bee of good courage: for there shall bee no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

23 For there stood by me this night the Angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto thee all that sayle with thee.

25 Wherefore, syrs, be of good courage: for I beleene God, that it shall be so as it hath bene tolde me.

26 Howbeit, wee must be cast into a certaine land.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were caried to and fro in the Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approached vnto them,

28 And sounded, and found it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a litle further, they sounded againe, and found fiftene fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ankers out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Nowe as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ankers out of the fore-shippe, 31 Paul said vnto the Centurion, and the souldiers, Except these abide in the shippe, ye cannot be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away,

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue taried, and continued fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your safegarde: for there shall not an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

Or, boate.

Or, cast out the waves.

f That is, yee should haue used the losse by auoyding the danger.

d That is, the Northeast winde or euery East winde that is furious and stormy.

e This yle was west and by South from Candie straight toward the gulfe Syrtes, which were certaine boyling sandes that swallowed vp all that they caught.

26 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meate.

27 Now we were in the shippe in all two hundred threescore and sixteen soules.

28 And when they had eaten enough they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

29 And when it was day, they knewe not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken up the anchors, they committed the shippe vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bonds, and hoysed up the maine saile to the winde, and drew to the shoze.

41 And when they fell into a place where two seas met, they thrust in the ship, and the forepart sticke fast, and could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsell was^a to kill the prisoners: least any of them when he had swomme out, should flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, stayed them from this counsell, and commanded that they that could swimme, should cast themselves first into the sea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other some on boards, and some on certaine pieces of the shippe: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

^a Paul with his company are gently entreated of the barbarous people. ^b The viper hurteth him not. ^c He healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessary, he saied toward Rome. ^d Where being receiued of the brethren, he declarerth his businesse. ^e And there preacheth two yeeres.

And when they were come safe, then they knew that the yle was called^a Melita.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no little kindnesse: for they kindled a fire, and receiued vs euery one, because of the present showze, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of sticks, and layed them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and leapt on his hand.

4 Now when the Barbarians saw the worne hang on his hand, they sayd among themselves, This man surely is a^b murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet^c vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

5 But hee shooke of the worne into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when hee should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a graet while, and saw no inconuenience come to him, they changed their minds, and said, That he was a^d God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, and lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was that the father of Publius lay sick of the feuer, and of a bloody fluxe, to whome Paul entred in, and when hee prayed, he layd his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the Ile, which had diseases, came to him and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed they laded vs with things necessary.

11 Now after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the Ile, whose badge was^e Castor and Pollux.

12 And when we arrived at Syracuse we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence wee fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the South wind blew, and we came the second day to Puntoli.

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tary with them seuen daies, and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meet vs at the Market of Appius, and at the^f thirde^g Taverns, whom when Paul saw, hee thanked God, and waxed bold.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was^h suffered to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he sayd vnto them, Men, and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined mee, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of,

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you and to speake with you: for the hope ofⁱ Israels sake, I am bound with this chaine.

21 Then they said vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, wee knowe that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appoynted him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus both out of the Law of Moyses, and out of the Prophets from morning to night.

24 And some were perswaded with the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

28 Be it known therefore vnto you, that this saluation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they shall heare it.

29 And when he had said these things, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe great mercy of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousness is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption could not fulfill the Law, yea, committed most abominably, both against the law of God and nature, the infinite bounty of God, mindfull of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordained that mans saluation should only stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not only the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saved by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust onely through faith, and yet afterward receiued circumcision as a seale or badge of the same righteousness by faith. And to the intent that none should thinke that the couenant which God made to him, and his posteritie was not Performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ (which was the blessed seed) or else beleueed not that he was the true redeemer, because hee did not onely, or at least more notably preferue the Iewes: the examples of Ismael and Esau declare that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promise. The cause whereof is the onely wil of God: forasmuch as of his free mercie he electeth some to be saved, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias prooueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length will stretch toward the Iewes againe, and to gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This groundworke of faith and doctinelaid, instructions of Christian maners follow, teaching euery man to walke in roundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with patience and humblenesse, reuerencing and obeying the Magistrate, exercising charity, putting off the old man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weakes, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally, Saint Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

10 Alwayes in my prayers, beseeching that by some meanes one time or other I might haue a prosperous journey by the will of God to come vnto you,

11 * For I long to see you, that I might bestow among you some spirituall gift, to strengthen you,

12 That is, that I might bee comforted together with you, through our mutual faith, both yours and mine.

13 Now my brethren, I would that yee should not bee ignorant, how that I haue oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene ^m let hitherto) that I might haue some ⁿ fruit also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men, and to the vniuersity.

15 Therefore as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not ashamed * of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the * ^p power of God vnto saluation to euery one that belieueth, to the Jew first, and also to the || Grecian.

17 For by it the ^q righteousness of * God is reuealed from faith to faith: as it is written, * The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is reuealed from heauen against all ^r vngodlinesse, and vnrighteousnesse of men, which withhold the trueth in vnrightheousnesse.

19 Forasmuch as that, which may bee known of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternal power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in his workes, to the intent that they should be without excuse.

21 * Because that when they knew God, they ^s glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vaine in their imaginings, and their foolish heart was full of darknesse.

22 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping
things.

24 Wherefore also God * ^t gaue them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto uncleannesse, to defile their owne bodies betweene themselves:

25 Which turned the trueth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, || forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their || lust one toward another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and receiued in themselves such recompence of their errour, as was meete.

28 For as they regarded not to knowe
God, euen so God deliuered them by vnto a ^z reprobate minde, to doe those things which are not conuenient,

29 Being full of all vnrightheousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, courtesie, maliciousnesse, full of enuie, of murder, of debate, of deceit, taking all things in the euill part,
whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, ypocrites, boasters, inuentors of euill things, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, covenant breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer be appeased, mercilesse.

31 Which men, though they knew * the || Law of God, how that they which commit such things, are worthy of death, yet not onely doe the same, but also ^b fauour them that doe them.

CHAP. II.

1 He seareth the hypocrites with Gods iudgement, 7 And comforteth the faithfull. 12 To beate downe all vaine pretence of ignorance, holinesse, and of alliance with God, hee prooueth all men to be sinners. 15 The Gentiles by their conscience, 17 The Jewes by the Law written.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man,
T whoeuer thou art that || ^a iudgeth: * for in that that thou iudget another, thou con-demnest ^b thy selfe: for thou that iudget, doest the same things.

2 But wee know that the iudgement of God is according to ^c trueth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that iudget them which doe such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his bountifullnesse, and ^d patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifullnesse of God leadech thee to repentance?

5 But thou after thine hardnesse, and heart that cannot repent, * heapest vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of ^e wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

6 * Who will reward euery man according to his ^f works:

7 That is, to them which by continuance in well doing seeke glory, and honour, and immortalitie, eternall life:

ousnesse, shall be indignation and wrath.

o In the inward man and heart.

9 Tribulation and anguish shall be vpon the soule of euery man that doeth euill: of the Jew first, and also of the Grecian.

10 But to euery man that doth good, shall be glory, and honour, and peace, to the Jewe first, and also to the Grecian.

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as haue sinned without the Law, shall perishe also without the Law: and as many as haue sinned in the Lawe, shall be iudged by the Law.

13 (* For the hearers of the Law are not righteous before God: but the doers of the Law shall be iustified.)

14 For when the Gentiles which haue not the Law, doe by nature the things contained in the Law, they hauing not the Law, are a Law vnto themselves,

15 Which shew the effect of the Lawe written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witnesse, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing.)

16 At the day when God shall iudge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jewe, and rekest in the Law, and gloriest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Law:

19 And perfwadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darknesse,

20 An instructor of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the forme of knowledge, and of the truth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man should not steale, dost thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest, A man should not commit adulterie, dost thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacriledge?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Lawe, through breaking the Lawe, dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou doe the Law: but if thou bee a transgressor of the Law, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Law, shall not his vncircumcision bee counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Law) iudge thee, which by the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Law?

28 For he is not a Jew which is one outward: neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew which is one within, and the circumcision is of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

2 Having granted some prerogative to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, 10 he proueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes and Gentiles to be sinners, 21. 24 and to be iustified by grace through faith, and not by workes, 31 and so the Lawe to bee established.

What is then the preferment of the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision?

2 Much euery manner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what though some did not beleue? shall their vnbeliefe make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, and euery man a liar, as it is written, That thou mightest bee iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome when thou art iudged.

5 Now if our vnrightheousnesse commend the rightheousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrightheous which punisheth? (I speake as a man)

6 God forbid: else how shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the veritie of God hath more abounded through my lie, vnto his glory, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that wee say) why doe wee not euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are vnder sinne, 10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none, that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They haue all gone out of the way: they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 Their throte is an open sepulchre: they haue vled their tongues to deceit: the poylon of alpes is vnder their lips.

14 Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and calamitie are in their wayes,

17 And the way of peace they haue not known.

18 The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Now wee know that whatsoever the Law saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the Law, that euery mouth may be stopped, and all the world bee culpable before God.

20 Therefore by the workes of the Law shall no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Lawe cometh the knowledge of sinne.

21 But now is the righteousness of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witnesse of the Law and of the Prophets, 22 To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleue.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are deprived of the glory of God,

24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness, by the forgiveness of the sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God,

26 To shew at this time his righteousness, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the Law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.

29 God, is he the God of the Iewes only, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, even of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as the seale of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleue, not being circumcised, righteousness might be imputed to them also,

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the heire of the world, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Law bee heires, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Lawe causeth wrath: for where no Law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to that onely which is of the Lawe: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, *I haue made thee a father of many nations) even before God whom hee beleued, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those thinges which be not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham about hope beleued vnder hope, that he should be the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, *So shall thy seed be.

19 And he was not weak in the faith, considered not his owne body, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yeere old, neither the deadnes of Saras wombe,

20 Neither did he doubt of the promise of God through vnbeleefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue glory to God, 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed vnto him for righteousness,

24 But also for vs, to whom it shall bee imputed for righteousness, which beleue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead.

h Yet all mankind as it were sinned, when they were as yet included in Adams loynes.

k Which was Christ.

l For by Christ we are not onely deliuered from the sinnes of Adam, but also from all such as we haue added thereunto.

m The iustice of Iesus Christ, which is imputed to the faithfull.

n Which beleeue to be saued in Iesus Christ.

Then being iustified by faith, wee haue peace toward God through our Lord Iesus Christ.

2 * By whom also wee haue accessethrough faith vnto this grace, wherein we stand, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glorie of God.

3 Neither doe we so onely, but also we reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope.

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ when wee were yet of no strength, at his time died for the vngodly.

7 Doubtlesse one will scarce die for a righteous man: but yet for a good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while wee were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then being now iustified by his blood, wee shall be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when wee were enemies wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shall be saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom wee haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore as by one man sinne entered into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men forasmuch as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time of the Law was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moles, euen ouer them also that sinned not after the like manner of the transgression of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entered in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receiue the abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, reigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one, the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefit abounded toward all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Moreover, the Law entered thereupon, that the offence should abound: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousness vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glorie in the flesh, but rather seek to subdue it to the spirit, 3 He sheweth by the vertue and end of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 21 Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousness.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall we that are dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that all we which haue bene baptized into Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 We are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also should walke in newnes of life.

5 * For if wee be grafted with him to the similitude of his death, euen so shall wee be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the body of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth wee should not serue sinne.

7 For hee that is dead is freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall liue also with him,

9 Knowing that Christ being rayled fro the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that hee died, he died once to sinne: but in that hee liueth, hee liueth to God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that yee are dead to sinne, but are alieue to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall body, that yee should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither giue yee your members as weapons of unrighteousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are alieue from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

14 being dead we cannot sinne. g That he might destroy sin in our flesh.

h And sitteth at the right hand of the Father. i We may gather that we are dead to sinne, when sinne beginneth to die in vs, which is by the participation of Christs death, by whom also being quickned, we liue to God, that is, to righteousness.

k In that ye are led with the Spirit of God. l The mind first ministrereth vnto motions, whereby mans will is enticed: thence burst forth the lusts, by them the body is prouoked, and the body by his actions doth sollicite the mind: therefore he commandeth at the least, that we rule our bodies.

s Or the reward and recompense.

t Sinne is com- pared to a tyrant which reigneth by force, who giueth death as an allowance to them that were preferred by the law.

14 For sinne shall not haue dominion o- uer you, for ye are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace.

15 What then? shall we sinne, because we are not vnder the law, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whomsoever ye giue your selues as seruants to obey, his ser- uants ye are to whom ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bin the seruants of sin: but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine whereunto ye were deliuered.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the maner of man, be- cause of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to un- cleannes and to iniquity, to commit iniquity, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousness in holinesse.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sin, ye were freed from righteousness.

21 What fruite had yee then in those things, whereof yee are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your fruite in holinesse, and the end, euermoluing life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1. 7. 12 The use of the Lawe, 6. 24 And how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmity of the fleshfull. 23 The dangerous fight between the flesh and the spirit.

K Now yee not, brethren (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 For the woman which is in subjec- tion to a man, is bound by the Law to the man, while hee liueth: but if the man bee dead, she is deliuered from the Law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, shee shall be called an adul- tress: but if the man be dead, shee is free from the Law, so that shee is not an adul- tress, though she take another man.

4 So ye my brethren, are dead also to the Law by the body of Christ, that ye should be vnto another, eu'n vnto him that is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sinnes, which were by the law, had force in our members, to bring forth fruit vnto death.

6 But now wee are deliuered from the Law, being dead vnto it, wherein wee were holden, that we should serue in new- nesse of spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the law: for I had not knowen lust, except the Law had sayd, Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sin tooke an occasion by the com- mandement, and wrought in me all maner of concupiscence: for without the Law sinne is dead.

9 For I once was alive without the Law: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued,

10 But I died: and the same comman- dement which was ordeined vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the com- mandement, and deceiued me, and thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is holy, and the Commaundement is holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the Commandement.

14 For we knowe that the law is spiritu- all, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.

15 For I allow not that which I do: for what I would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If I do then that which I would not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that doe it: but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh dwelleth no good thing: for so will is present with me: but I find no meane to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing which I would, but the euill which I would not, that do I.

20 Now if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sin that dwel- leth in me.

21 I finde then by the Law, that when I would do good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God, con- cerning the inner man:

23 But I see another Lawe in my members, rebelling against the Law of my minde, and leading mee captiue vn- to the Law of sinne, which is in my mem- bers.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the bodie of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I my selfe in my minde serue the Law of God, but in my flesh the law of sinne.

we must in the meane time call to God through patience.

i But to liue after the spirit.

k So he nameth the holy Ghost, of the effect which he causeth in vs, when he propoereth vs saluation by the Law with an impossible condition, who also doth seale our saluation in our hearts by Christs free adoption, that wee consider not God

now as a rigorous Lord but as a most merciful Father. Gal. 4. 5, 6.

l So that we haue two witnesses, Gods Spirit, and ours, who is certified by the Spirit of God.

Now then there is no^a condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not^b after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the Law of the Spirit of life, which is in^c Christ Iesus, hath freed mee from the Law of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the Law, in as much as it was^d weake, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the^e similitude of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the^f righteousness of the Law, might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh labour the^g things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisdom of the Spirit is life and peace,

7 Because the wilddome of the flesh is enmity against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now yee are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ bee in you, the^h body is dead because of sinne: but theⁱ Spirit is life for righteousness sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwel in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to liue after the^j flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deeds of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the spirit of^k adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit^l beareth witness with our Spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 But the fruit of the Spirit is this, which he nameth the holy Ghost, of the effect which he causeth in vs, when he propoereth vs saluation by the Law with an impossible condition, who also doth seale our saluation in our hearts by Christs free adoption, that wee consider not God

now as a rigorous Lord but as a most merciful Father. Gal. 4. 5, 6.

l So that we haue two witnesses, Gods Spirit, and ours, who is certified by the Spirit of God.

17 If we be children, we are also^m heires, m Freely made euen the heires of God, and heires annexed partakers of the with Christ, if so bee that we suffer with fathers treasures. him, that wee may also bee glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are notⁿ worthy of the glory^o Or, of like value, which shall be shewed vnto vs

19 For the seruent desire of the creature wayreth when the sonnes of God shall be revealed.

20 Because the^p creature is subiect to n The creatures vanity, not of it owne will, but by reason of him which hath subdued it vnder hope, shall not be restless before that Gods children bee brought to their perfection: in the meane season they wait.

21 Because the creature also shall bee deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the sonnes of God.

22 For we know that euery creature groineth with vs also, and travaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the^q first fruites of the Spirit, euen wee doe sigh in our selves, wayting for the adoption, euen the^r redemption of our body.

24 For we are saued by hope: but^s hope that is seene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for wee know not what to pray as we ought: but the Spirit it self maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27 But he^t searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he^u maketh request for the Saints according to the will of God.

28 Also we know that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he^v knew before, hee also predestinated to be made like to the image of his Son, that hee might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Whereouer, whome hee predestinate, them also hee calleth, & whom hee calleth, them also hee iustificeth, and whom hee iustificeth, them hee also glorifieth.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can bee against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods cholen? It is God that^w iustificeth.

34 Who shall condemne? It is Christ which is dead, yea, & rather which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednes, or perill, or sword?

CHAP. IX.

1 Having testified his great loue towards his nation, and the signes thereof, 11 He entreateth of the election and reprobation. 24 Of the vocation of the Gentiles, 30 And reuersion of the Iewes.

I Say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing me witnesse in the holy Ghost,

2 That I haue great heavinesse, and continual sorow in mine heart.

3 For I would with my selfe to bee separated from Christ, for my brethren that are my kinsmen according to the flesh,

4 Which are the Israelites, to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, & the covenants, and the giuing of the Law, and the seruice of God and the promises.

5 Of whom are the fathers, & of whom concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is God ouer all, blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Notwithstanding it cannot bee that the word of God should make none effect: for all they are not Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither are they all children, because they are the seed of Abraham: but, In as Isaac shall thy seed be called:

8 That is, they which are the children of the flesh, are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is a word of promise, In this same time will I come, and Sara shall haue a sonne.

10 Neither he only felt this, but also Rebecca when she had conceived by one, euen by our father Isaac.

11 For per the children were borne, and when they had neither done good nor euill, (that the purpose of God might remaine according to election, not by works, but by him that calleth.)

12 It was said vnto her, The elder shall serue the yonger:

13 As it is written, I haue loued Jacob, and haue hated Esau.

14 What shall we say then? Is there vnrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, I will haue mercie on him to whom I will shew mercie:
and will haue compassion on him, on whom
I will haue compassion.

16 So then it is not in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercie.

17 For the Scripture saith vnto Pharao, For the same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore he hath mercie on whom he will, and whom he will, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto mee, Why doeth he yet complaine: for who hath resisted his will?

20 But, O man, who art thou which pleadest against God? shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power of the clay to make of the same lump one vessel to honour, and another to dishonour?

22 What and if God would, to shew his wrath, and to make his power knownen, suffer with long patience the vessels of wrath prepared to destruction?

23 And that he might declare the riches of his glory vpon the vessels of mercy, which he hath prepared vnto glory?

24 Yea, whom he hath called, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles,

25 As also in Osee, I will call them, My people, which were not my people:
and her, Beloued, which was not beloued.

26 And it shall bee, in the place where it was said vnto them, Ye are not my people, that there they shall be called, The children of the liuing God.

27 Also Elias cryeth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saved.

28 For he will make his account, and gather it into a sheaf comme with righteou-nesse: for the Lord will make a short count in the earth.

29 And as Elias said before, Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a seed, wee had bene made as Sodom, and had bene like to Gomorrah.

30 What shall wee say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousness, haue attained vnto righteousness, euen the righteousnesse which is of faith.

31 But Israel which followed the Law of righteousness, could not attaine vnto the Law of Righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it, not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Law: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone,

33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, and a rocke to make men fall: and euery one that beleueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

Brethren, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I beare them recorde, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God.

4 * For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness vnto euery one that beleueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the Law, That the man which doeth these things shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, * Say not in thine heart, Altho shall ascend into heauen: (that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 * Altho shall descend into the deepe: (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saith it? * The word is neere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the word of faith which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt beleue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man beleueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoever beleueth in him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Jewe and the Grecke: for hee that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoever shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saved.

14 But how shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleued? and how shall they beleue in him, of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautiful are they feet of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tydings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Elias saith, * Lord, who hath beleued our report?

17 Then saith is by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I demand, haue they not heard? * No doubt their sound went out through all the earth, and their words into the ends of the world.

19 But I demand, did not Israel know God? It test Moses saith, * I will prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 * And Elias is bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long haue I stretched forth mine hand vnto a disobedient and gainesaying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church, although it bee not seene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reuealed himselfe to the Gentiles. 18 Whom he warneth to humble themselves. 29 The gifts of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

1 Demand then, hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which hee knoweth before. Know yee not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seek my life?

4 But what saith the answer of God to him? * I haue reserved vnto my selfe seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of works: or else grace were no more grace: but if it be of works, it is no more grace: or else were works no more works.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that he sought: but the election hath obteined it, and the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they should not see, & eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dauid saith, * Let their table be made a snare, and a net, and a stumbling block, euen for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes bee darkened that they see not, & how downe their backs alwayes.

11 I demand then, haue they stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation cometh vnto the Gentiles, to prouoke them to follow them.

12 Therefore if the fall of them bee the riches of the world: and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall the abundance be?

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, more against the iudgements of God.

14 To trie if by any meanes I might prouoke them of my flesh to follow them, and might save some of them.

15 For if the calling away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving be but ^a life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruits be holy, so is the whole lump: and if the ^m roote bee holy, so are the branches.

17 And though some of the branches bee broken off, and thou being a wilde Oliue tree, wast grafted in for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of the ⁿ Oliue tree, 18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches: and if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well: through vnbeliefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: bee not high minded, but ^o feare.

21 For if God spared not the naturall branches, take heed, lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the bountifullnesse, and seueritie of God: toward them which haue fallen, seueritie: but toward thee, bountifullnesse. If thou continue in his bountifullnesse: or else thou shalt also be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in vnbeliefe, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the Oliue tree, which was wilde by nature, and wast grafted contrary to nature in a right Oliue tree, how much more shall they that are by nature, be grafted in their owne Oliue tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that yee should be ignorant of this secret, (least yee should be arrogant in your selues) that partly obstinacie is come to Israel, vntill the fullnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so ^a all Israel shall be saved, as it is written, ^b The deliuerer shall come out of Sion, and shall turne away the vngodlinesse from Iacob.

27 And this is my covenant to them, ^c When I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloued for the fathers sakes.

29 For the ^d gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

30 For euen as yee in time past haue not beleueed God, yet haue now obtained mercy through their vnbeliefe, 31 Euen so now haue they not beleueed ^e by the mercy shewed vnto you, that they also may obtaine mercie.

32 For God hath shut vp ^f all in vnbeliefe, that he might haue mercie on all.

33 O the deepenesse of the riches, both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how vnsearchable are his iudgements, and his wayes past finding out!

34 ^g For ^h who hath knowen the minde of the Lord? or who was his counsellor?

35 Or who hath ⁱ giuen vnto him first, and he shall be recompensed?

36 For of him, and through him, and for him are all things: to him be glorie for euer, Amen.

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and works of such as belene in Christ. 19 Not to seeke reuengeance.

I Beseech you therefore brethren, by the mercies of God, that yee giue vp your bodies a ^a liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your ^b reasonable seruice of God.

2 And fashion not your selues like vnto this world, but be ye changed by the renewing of your mind, that yee may ^c proue what is the ^d good wil of God, and acceptable, and perfect.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto mee, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to vnderstand, a haue that which is meete to vnderstand, but that he ^e vnderstand according to ^f sobriety, as God hath dealt to euery man the ^g measure of faith.

4 For as wee haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office,

5 So wee being many are one bodie in Christ, and euery one, one anothers members.

6 ^h Seeing then that we haue gifts that are diuers, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether we haue ⁱ prophesie, let vs prophesie according to the proportion of ^j faith:

7 Or an office, let vs wait on the office: or be that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or be that exhorteth, on exhortation: bee that ^k distributeth, let him doe it ^l with simplicitie: bee that ruleth, with diligence: bee that ^m sheweth mercy, with ⁿ cheerefulness.

9 Let loue be without dissimulation, ^o Abhorre that which is euill, & cleaue vnto that which is good,

10 ^p Bee affectioned to loue one another with brotherly loue. In giuing honour, gee one before another.

11 Not slothfull to doe seruice: seruent in spirit: seruing ^q the Lord.

12 Reioycing in hope, patient in tribulation, ^r continuing in prayer, 13 ^s Distributing vnto the necessities of the Saints: ^t giuing your selues to hospitality.

14 ^u Blesse them which persecute you: blesse, I say, and curse not.

1 The weake ought not to be despised. 10 No man should offend anothers conscience. 15 But one to support another in charitie and faith.

H Im that is weake in the * faith, receiue vnto you, but not b for controuersies of disputations.

2 One beleueth that he may eate of all things: and another, which is weake, eateth

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him

teth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath renewed him.

4 * Who art thou that condemnest anoueth God thanks: and he that * eateth not, eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thanks.

7 For none of vs liueth: to himselfe, net-ther both any die to himselfe.

8 For whether we liue, wee liue vnto the Lord: or whether wee die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore died, and rose againe, and reuiued, that hee might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother?
or why doest thou despise thy brother? * for wee shall all appeare before the iudgement

q Faith is here taken for a full perswasion of the Christian liberty in things indifferrent, as the Apostle interpreteth it in the 14 vers.

r Which hath none euill remorse of conscience in his doing.

f Meaning of a right conscience.

12 So then euery one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

14 I know, and am perswaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to bee vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother be grieved for the meate, now walkest thou not charitably: destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ died.

16 Cause not your commodity to be euil spoken of.

17 For the kingdom of God is not meate nor drinke, but righteousness, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoener is in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

19 Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: all things indeed are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weak.

22 Hast thou sayth? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is he that condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if he eate, because hee eateth not of faith: and whatsoever is not of faith is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 And by the onely mercy of God, which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 Hee sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 And requireth the same of them.

Which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weak, and not to please our selves.

2 Therefore let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things are written aforetime, are written for our learning, that wee through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures, might haue hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation giue you that ye be like minded one towards another, according to Christ Iesus, 6 That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore, receiue yee one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the glory of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision, for the truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercy, as it is written, * For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe hee saith, * Reioyce, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And againe, * Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and laude yee him all people together.

12 And againe, Elisas saith, * There shall be a roote of Jesse, and hee that shall rise to reigne ouer the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ioy and peace in beleeuing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Wherefore, brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen mee of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient in worde and deede, 19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Jerusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, least I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whom hee was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

22 Therefore also I haue bene oft let to come vnto you.

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue bene desirous many yeeres agoe to come vnto you,

24 When I shall take my journey into Spaine, I will come to you: for I trust

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that Saint Paul had preached at Corinthus a yee and a halfe, he was compelled by the wickednesse of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glory, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicity which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefe points of Christian Religion. Against these evils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproveth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to concord and humility, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heavenly wisdom of the Gospel, which cannot be periwaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is revealed by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this saluation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue received charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued himselfe skillfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they bee not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he had declared by manifest signes, that he neuer sought his owne glory, neither yet how he might liue, but onely the glory of Christ: which thing at his coming he would declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought themselves onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproved and unpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before Infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duty of marriage, of discord and dissention among the married, of virginity, and second marriage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, hee warneth them to haue respect to their weak brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindered, and their consciences wounded, which thing rather then he would doe, he would neuer vse that liberty, which God had given him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfe will was the cause of those great evils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glory in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to follow Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behaviour of men, and women in their assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the Spirituall gifts, which God hath given to maintaine loue, and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all, he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and well doing, sending his commendations, and wilhing them peace.

CHAP. I.

2 He prayeth the great graces of God shewed toward them, 10 Exhorting them to concord and humility, 19 He beateh downe all pride, and wisdom which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whom God hath chosen to confound the wisdom of the world.

PAUL called to be an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,
2 Unto the Church of God, which is at Corinthus, to them that are * sanctified in Christ Iesus, * Saints by calling, * with all that call on the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ in every place, both their Lord and ours:
3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

knit together in one mind, and in one iudgement.

11 For it hath bene declared vnto mee, my brethren, of you, by them that are of the house of Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that euery one of you sayeth, I am Pauls, and I am * Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christs.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were yee baptized into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but * Crispus, and * Gaius, 15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the household of Stephanas: furthermore know I not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent mee not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with * wisdom of wordes, * lest the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs which are saued, it is the * power of God.

19 For it is written, * I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will cast away the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the * scribe? where is the * disputer of this world? hath not God made the wisdom of this world foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the world by wisdom knew not God in the wisdom of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a * signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisdom.

23 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, wee preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 For the * foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weaknesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world, to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to confound the mighty things.

28 And vile things of the world, & things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are,

29 That no * flesh should reioyce in his presence.

According as the world esteemeth wise men.

Which are in mans iudgement almost nothing, but taken for abjects and call awayes.

30 But yee are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs * wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, 31 That according as it is written, * He that reioyceth, let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 He putteth for example his manner of preaching, which was according to the tenour of the Gospel, 8 Which Gospel was contemptible and hid to the carnall, 10 And againe honourable and manifest to the spiritual.

And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with * excellencie of wordes, or of wisdom, shewing vnto you the * testimony of God.

2 For I esteemed not to know any thing among you, saue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 * And I was among you in * weaknesse and in feare, and in much trembling.

4 Neither stood my word, and my preaching in the * enticing speech of mans wisdom, but in plain evidence of the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith should not bee in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisdom among them that are * perfit: not the wisdom of this world, neither of the * princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 But wee speake the wisdom of God in a mystery, euen the hid wisdom, which God had determined before the world, vnto our glory.

8 Which * none of the Princes of this world hath knowen: for had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the * Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, * The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare hath heard, neither came into mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuelled them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue the Spirit of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now wee haue * receiued not the Spirit of the world, but the Spirit, which is of God, that wee might know the things that are giuen to vs of God.

e That is, very few. f He calleth Iesus the mighty God, full of true glory and maiesty, whom Dauid also calleth the King of glory, Psal. 24.7. and steuen nameth him the God of glory, Acts 7.2. and hereby appeareth the diuinity of Christ, and coniunction of two natures in one person. sheweth what hee requireth on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

I Et a man to thinke of vs, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that euery man be found faith-full.

3 As touching me, I passe very litle to bee iudged of you, or of mans iudgement:
no, I iudge not mine owne selfe.

4 For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustificed: but hee that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall euery man haue praise of God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I haue doctrines. 11 Christ is the foundation of his Church.

16 The dignitie and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithfull.

A ND I could not speake vnto you, breneither yet now are ye able.

3 For yee are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and strife, and 4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then, and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye beleued, and as the Lord gaue to euery man?

God that giueth the increafe.

8 And he that planteth, and he that wa-tereth are one, and euery man shall receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods labourers: yee are Gods husbandry, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to mee, as a skilfull master builder, I haue laide the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let euery man take heed how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is laide, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man build on this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble,

13 Euery mans worke shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall bee reuealed by the fire: and the fire shall try every mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that he hath built

1 Hee reproveth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Willing them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace purity, 9 And flee wickednesse.

It is heard certainly, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the ^aGentiles, * that one should haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed vp, and haue not rather sorrowed, that he which hath done this deed: might be put from among you.

4 When yee are gathered together, and my spirit, ^cin the name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that such one, I say, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ,

5 * Bee deliuered vnto ^eSatan, for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Iesus.

6 Your reioycing is not ^fgood: * know yee not that a litle leauen leaueth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may be a new lump: * as ye are unleavened: for Christ our Passouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with old leauen, neither in the leauen of maliciousnesse and wickednesse: but with the unleavened bread of sinceritie and truth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, * that ye should not company together with fornicators,

10 And ⁱnot altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must goe out of the world.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye company not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or ^kan idolater, or a rayler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

12 For what haue I to doe to iudge them also, which are ^lwithout? doe ye not iudge them that are ^mwithin?

13 But God iudgeth them that are without. Put away therefore from among your selves that wicked man.

were conuerfant in the Church, whom they ought by discipline to haue corrected: for as touching strangers they ought by all means godly to win them to Christ. ^k Who to please both parts would bee present at idole seruice, and yet professe the Gospel. ^l Vnto whom the ecclesiasticall discipline doeth not stretch. ^m Which are subiect to Gods word, and to the discipline of the Church.

CHAP. VI.

1 Hee rebuketh them for going to law together before the heathen. 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 Hee reproveth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15 And sheweth that wee ought to serue God purely both in body and soule.

Are any of you, hauing businesse against another, be iudged vnder || the ^avniust, and not vnder the Saints?

2 * Doe yee not know, that the Saints shall iudge the world? If the world then shall be iudged by you, are yee vnworthy to iudge the smallest matters?

3 Know yee not that wee shall iudge the ^bAngels? how much more things that pertaine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgement of things pertaining to this life, ^cset vp them which are ^dleast esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, that can iudge betweene his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to law with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

cation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord being a seruant, is the Lords free man: likewise also hee that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 We are bought with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein hee was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, I haue no commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduise, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose then this to be good for the present necessity: I meane, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marry, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, hereafter that both they which haue wiues, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that weepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this world, as though they used it not: for the fashion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would haue you without care. The unmarried careth for the things of the world, how he may please the Lord.

33 But hee that is married, careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also betweene a virgin and a wife: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that shee may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the world, how shee may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your own commodity, not to tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that which is honest, and that ye may cleave fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vnicomely for his virgine, if shee passe the flower of her age, and neede so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them be married.

power over his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keepe his virginie, he doeth well.

28 So then hee that giueth her to marriage, doeth well, but he that giueth her not to marriage, doeth better.

29 The wife is bound by the Law, as long as her husband liueth, but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to marry with whom she will, onely in the Lord.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices

9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue them toward such as be weak.

As touching things sacrificed vnto idols, we know that we all haue knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is knowne of him.

4 Concerning therefore meat sacrificed vnto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God which is the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him: and one Lord Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some haue a conscience of the idol, vntill this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idol, and so their conscience being weak, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh not vs acceptable to God: for neither if we eate, haue we the life, neither if we eate not, haue wee the lesse.

9 But take heed lest by any meanes this power of yours be an occasion of falling to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be boldened to eate those things which are sacrificed to idols?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died.

12 Now when ye sinne so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 Wherefore if meate offend my brother, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

g Which eateth against his conscience, or in doubt. Rom. 14. 21.

n For that part that was burnt, was deuoured of the altar, and the other was due vnto the Priests by the Law.

o For now you haue no iust cause against me, seeing that I preached the Gospel freely vnto you.

p Seeing he is charged to preach he must willingly & earnestly follow it: for if he doe it by constraint, he doth not his duty.

q That I be not chargeable to them to whom I preach, seeing that they thinke that I preach for gaines.

A I not an Apostle? am not I free? haue I not seene Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my worke in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for ye are the lease of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defence to them that examine me, is this,

4 Haue wee not power to eate, and to drinke?

5 We haue we not power to leade about a wife being a sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 We I and Barnabas, haue not we power not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things according to man? saith not the Law the same also?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, *Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for ore?

10 Either saith hee it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt it is written, that hee which eareth, should eare in hope: and that hee that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we haue sown vnto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if wee reape your carnall things?

12 If others with you bee partakers of this power, are not we rather? neuertheless, we haue not vsed this power: but suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Doe ye not know, that they which minister about the holy things, eate of the things of the Temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

14 So also hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my reioycing vain.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is layd vpon mee, and woe is vnto mee, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I doe it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I doe it against my will, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verily that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free, that I abuse not mine authority in the Gospel.

19 For though I bee free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the more.

20 And vnto the Iewes I become as a Jewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Law, as though I were vnder the Law, that I may win them that are vnder the Law.

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Law (when I am not without Law as pertaining to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I may win them that are without Law.

22 To the weakke I become as weakke, that I may winne the weakke: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker therof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, runne all, yet one receiveth the prize: so run that ye may obtaine.

25 And euery man that prooueth master, abstaineth from all things: and they doe it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vntertainly: so fight I, not as one that beatech the ayre.

27 But I beate downe my body, and bring it into subiection, lest by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be reprobated.

C H A P. X.

Hee feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God. 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 and offence of their neighbour.

M Drouer, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were vnder the cloude, and all passed thorow the sea,

2 And were all baptized vnto Moses, in the cloud, and in the sea,

3 And did all eate the same spiritual meate,

4 And did all drinke the same spirituall drinke (for they dranke of the spirituall Rocke that followed them: and the Rocke was Christ)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were ouerthrowen in the wilderness.

6 Now these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that wee should not lust after euill things as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them, as it is written, *The people sate downe to eate and drinke, and rose vp to play.

8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fell in one day thre and twenty thousand.

 CHAP. XI.
 He rebuketh the abuser which were crept into their Church, 4 As touching prayer, prophesying, 18 And ministring the Lordes Supper, 23 Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.
 B^e ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.
 2 Now brethren, I commend you, that ye remember all my things, and keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.
 3 But I will that ye know, that Christ is the head of euery man: & the man is the womans head: and God is Christs head.
 4 Euery man praying, or prophesying hauing any thing on his head, dishonoureth his head.
 5 But euery woman that prayeth or prophesieth bare headed, dishonoureth her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though she were shauen.
 6 Therefore if the woman bee not conuered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be shorne or shauen, let her be couered.
 7 For a man ought not to couer his head: forasmuch as hee is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
 8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.
 9 For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.
 10 Therefore ought the woman to haue power on her head, because of the Angels.
 11 Neuertheles, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.

a praise vnto her: for her dayre is¹ giuen her for a couering.

16 But if any man lust to be contentious, we haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, nor with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I beleue it to be true in some part.

19 For there must be^a heresies euen among you, that they which are approued among you, might be knowen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lordes Supper.

21 For euery man when they should eate, taketh his own supper afoze, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 Haue ye not houses to eate and to drinke in? despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shal I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the^b Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 * And when he had giuen thanks, hee brake it, and sayd, Take, eat: this is my body which is^c broken for you: this doe ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he tooke the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood this doe as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shall eat this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoener shall eate this bread, & drinke the cup of the Lord^d unworthily, shal be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 * Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eat of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh his own damnation, because he discerneth not^e the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many^f sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tary one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eat at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

1 The diuersitie of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to be used to the edifying of Christs Church, 12 as the members of mans body serue to the use one of another.

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren I would not haue you^a ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and were carped away vnto the^b dumbe idoles, as ye were^c led.

3 Wherefore I declare vnto you, that no man^d speaking by the^e Spirit of God, calleth Iesus^f execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to^g profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of^h knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is giuenⁱ sayth, by the same Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit:

10 And to another^j the operations of great workes: and to another, ^k prophesie: and to another, ^l the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 * And all these things worketh euen the selfe same Spirit, distributing to euery man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are wee all baptized into^m one body, whether wee be Jewes or Grecians, whether wee be bond or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now God hath disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members, yet butⁿ one body:

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no need of thee: nor the head againe to the feet, I haue no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to bee^o more feeble, are incorporate into Christs body to be governed by the same spirit. m And therefore whatsoever the diuersitie is, yet the profite ought to bee common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, hee setteth forth the nature, office and praise thereof.

Though I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding braile, or a tinkling cymball.

2 And though I had the gift of prophesie, and knew all secrets, and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I could re-mooue mountaynes, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long: it is bountifull:
loue enuiereth not: loue doth not boast it selfe:
it is not puffed vp:

5 It disdaineth not: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger:
it thinketh not euill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquity, but reioyceth in the truth:

7 It suffereth all things: it beleeueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Hee exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spirituall gifts, 5 But chiefly prophesying. 34 He commandeth women to keepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be obserued in the Church.

Now after loue, and couet spirituall gifts, and rather that ye may prophesie.

2 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man heareth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth himselfe: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that ye all spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh diuers tongues, except he expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profit you, except I speake to you, either by reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 Whereouer, things without life, which giue a sound, whether it bee a pipe, or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be knowen what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to battell?

9 So likewise you by the tongue, except ye utter words that haue signification, how shall it be vnderstood what is spoken? for ye shall speake in the ayre.

10 There are so many kindes of voyces none of them is dumb.

11 Except I know then the power of the voyce, I shall be vnto him that speaketh, a 12 Euen so, forasmuch as yee couet spirituall gifts, seeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

tongue, pray that he may interpret.

s Paul beareth as yet with their weakenesse, because also these were the gifts of God: but yet hee sheweth that they should not passe this measure, that first one, after another, and at the utmost the third should read in a strange language, which was to declare Gods miracle in the gift of tongues: but chiefly he commandeth that nothing be done without interpretation.

t Or, learning, which Gods Spirit moueth them to vnder.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the vnderstanding also: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Els, when thou blestest with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the rounne of the vnderstanding, say Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily giuest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake a few wordes with mine vnderstanding, than I might also instruct others, then taine thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in vnderstanding, but as concerning malitiousnesse be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, * By men of other tongues, & by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleue, but to them that beleue not: but prophesying serueth not for them that beleue not, but for them which beleue.

23 If therefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speak strange tongues, there cometh they that are vnderstanding, or they which beleue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wits?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnderstanding, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face, and worship God, and say plainly, that God is in you indeed.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake, two or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuealed to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the spirits of the Prophets are subject to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as wee see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 * Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subject, as also the Law sayeth.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Came the word of God out from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet, or spirituall, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 * And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.

I am:

I am: and his grace which is in mee, was not in vaine: but I laboured more aboundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Therefore, whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleued.

12 ¶ Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whom he hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your sinnes.

18 And so they which are asleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life // onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the first fruits of them that sleepe.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made aliuie.

23 But every man in his owne order: the first fruits is Christ, afterward they that are of Christ, at his coming, shall rise againe.

24 Then shall be the end, when hee hath deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when he hath put down all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must reigne, til he hath put all his enemies vnder his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is death.

27 For hee hath put downe all things vnder his feet. (And when he saith that all things are subdued vnto him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe bee subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may bee all in all.

29 Else, what shall they doe which are baptized for the dead: if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for the dead?

e Christs death is not effectually, except hee rise from death.
f For if Christ be swallowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.
g As mortification and remission of sinnes depend on Christs death: so our quickening and restoring to life stand in his resurrection.

20 Why are wee also in jeopardy euery houre?

26 ¶ Fool, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

27 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that bodie that shall be, but bare come, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.

28 But God giueth it a bodie at his pleasure, euen to euery seede his owne body.

29 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fishes, and another of birds.

30 There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

31 There is another glory of the sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

32 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

33 It is sown in dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sown in weakenesse, and is raised in power.

34 It is sown a naturall body, and is raised a spirituall body: there is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

35 As it is also written, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit.

36 Howbeit, that was not first made which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

37 The first man is of the earth earthly: the second man is the Lord from heauen.

38 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

39 And as we haue borne the image of the earthly: so shall wee beare the image of the heavenly.

40 This I say I, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherit incorruption.

41 Beholde, I shew you a secret thing, which shall not all sleepe, but wee shall all be changed, b This naturall body as it is now, til it be made new by the Spirit of Christ.

c When the Lord cometh to iudgement, some of the Saints shall be aliuie, whom he wil change euen as if they were dead, so that this change is in stead of death to them.

q I take to witness all my sorowes wherein I may iustly reioice in y Lord, that I haue suffered them among you.

r That is, hauing regard to this present life, and not to Gods glory, and to life everlasting.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

As nothing can be written either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the purity and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them farre passing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profit all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubburnesse, and contemne the Apostles authority. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begun among them. First therefore he wisheth them well in the Lord, declaring that that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authority, yet they were necessary schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inability and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, he should haue bin compelled to vse rigour and severity. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former Epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euident both in that that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authority, he confuteth their arrogant bragges, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatry, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrow which ingendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercy and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicity of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas hee contrariwise fought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his coming he menaceth such as rebell against his authority, that hee will declare by liuely example that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 Hee declareth the great profit that cometh to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnesse, that he deferred his coming contrary to his promise, he proo- ueth his constancie, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

D I an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, & our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God which is at Corinthus, with all the Saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether we bee afflicted, it is for your consolation, and saluation, which is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether wee be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as we know that as yee are partakers of the sufferings, so shall yee be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how wee were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that wee altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, wee received the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God which raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom wee trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs, 11 So that yee labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thanks may bee giuen by many persons for vs.

12 For our reioycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity & godly purenesse, and not in fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to youwarde.

13 For we write none other things vnto you, then that yee read, or els that yee acknowledge, and I trust yee shall acknowledge vnto the end.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that wee are your reioycing, euen as yee are ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue had a double grace,

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be ledde forth toward Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnesse? or minde I those things which I minde, according to the flesh, that with mee should bee a Yea, yea, and Nay nay?

18 Yea, God is faithfull, that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is, by mee, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glory of God through vs.

21 And it is God which establisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anoynted vs.

22 Who hath also sealed vs, and hath giuen the earnest of the spirit in our hearts.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue toward them, 7 requiring likewise that they would be fauorable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also reioyced in God for the efficacy of his doctrine, 17 confuteth thereby such quarrell pickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the overthrow of his doctrine.

P A T I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heavynesse.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that should make mee glad, but the same which is made ^a sorry by me?

3 And I wrote ^b this same thing vnto you, least when I came, I should take heavynesse of them of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should be made sorry, but that yee might perceiue the loue, which I haue specially vnto you.

5 And if any hath caused sorrow, the same hath not ^c made me sorry, but partly (least I should ^d more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that now contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest the same ^e should bee swallowed by with ouer-much heavynesse.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you would ^f confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might knowe the prooue of you, whether yee would be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for verily if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the ^g sight of Christ, 11 Lest Sathan should ^h circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christs Gospel, and a dore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest // in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be vnto God, which alwayes maketh vs ⁱ to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sauour of his knowledge by vs in every place.

15 For we are vnto God the sweete sauour of Christ in them that are saved, and in them which perish.

16 To the one we are the sauour of death vnto death, and to the other the sauour of life vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things?

CHAP. III.

1 He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth which he preached. 6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false apostles, 7. 13 he maketh comparision betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

D O we begin to praise our selues againe? ^a Do we need we as some other, Epistles of commendation vnto you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 We are our epistle writtē in our hearts, which is vnderstood and read of all men,

3 In that ye are manifest to be the Epistle of Christ ^b ministred by vs, and writtē, not with ynke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in ^c tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues to thinke any thing as of our selues: but our sufficiency is of God,

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the new Testament, not of the ^d letter, but of the ^e Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the ^f Spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministrations of death written with letters, and ingrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moses for the ^g glory of his countenance (which glory is done away)

8 How shall not the ministrations of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministry of ^h condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministrations of ⁱ righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth, be glorious.

1 He declareth his diligence and roundnesse in his office. 8 And that which his enemies tooke for his disadvantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which hee endured, he turneth to his great advantage. 11. 17 shewing what profit cometh thereby.

Therefore, seeing that we haue this ministry, as we haue receiued mercy, we faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the clokes of shame, and walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the truth we approue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel bee then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, should not shine vnto them.

5 For wee preach not our selues, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Jesus sake.

6 For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkness, is he which hath shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we haue this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God, and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distress: in pouerty, but not ouercome of pouerty.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where wee beare about in our body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For wee which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the utility that cometh by the crosse. 4 How we ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 by whom, 9 and for what end. 14 19 He setteth forth the grace of Christ, 20 and the office of ministers, and all the faithfull.

For we know, that if our earthly house of this Tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a building given of God, that is, an house not made with handes, but eternall in the heauens.

2 For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen.

3 Because that if we be clothed, we shal not be found naked.

4 For in deed we that are in this Tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, because we would not be vnclothed, but would bee clothed vpon, that mortality might bee swallowed vp of life,

5 And hee that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway bold, though we know that whiles we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we walke by faith, and not by sight)

8 Nevertheless, we are bold, and loue rather to remoue out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.

9 Therefore alse wee couet, that both dwelling at home, and remouing from home, we may be acceptable to him.

n Therefore whosoever giueth place to ambition or vaine glory, is yet dead, and liueth not in Christ.

o As the onely faithfull doe in Christ.

p According to the estimation of the world: but as he is guided by the Spirit of God.

q We doe not esteem nor commend Christ himselfe now, as he was an excellent man: but as he was the Sonne of God partaker of his glory, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and doe you thinke that I wil flatter my selfe or any man in setting forth his gifts? Yea, when I prayse my ministry, I commend the power of God: when I commend our worthy facts, I praise the mighty power of God let forth by vs wormes and wretches. r Let him be regenerate, and renounce himselfe, els all the rest is nothing. Isa. 43. 19. reuel. 21. 5. Therefore without Christ wee cannot enioy the life everlasting, nor come to God. t That is, a sacrifice for sinne. u By imputation, when we shall be clad with Christs iustice.

the Lord, we ^b perswade men, and we ⁱ are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For wee praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that ye may haue to answer against them, which reioyce in the ^k face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether we be ^l out of our wit, we are it ^m to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because wee thus iudge, that if one bee dead for all, then were ⁿ all dead.

15 And he died for all, that they ^o which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselves, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 Therefore, henceforth know wee no man ^p after the flesh, yea, though we had knowne Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth ^q know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a ^r new creature. * Olde things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministry of reconciliation.

19 For God was ^s in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then are wee ambassadours for Christ: as though God did beseech you through vs, wee pray you in Christs stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For hee hath made him to be ^t sinne for vs, which knewe no sinne, that wee should be ^u made the righteousness of God in him.

things, that our ministry should not be ^b reprehended.

4 But in all things wee approue our selues as ^c the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours,

6 By ^d watchings, by fastings, by purity, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindness, by the ^e holy Ghost, by ^f lowe demeanour,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by euill report and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true:

9 As vnknowne, and yet knowne, as dying, and behold, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

10 As sorrowing, and yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our ^g mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

2 Receiue vs: wee haue done wrong to no man: we haue consumed no man: we haue defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnacion: for I haue laid before, that yee are in our hearts to die and liue together.

4 I vse great boldnesse of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when wee were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on every side, fightings without, and terrors within.

6 But God that comforteth the abject, comforted vs at the conuincing of Titus:

7 And not by his conuincing onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent minde to mieward, so that I reioyced much more.

8 For though I made you sory with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same Epistle made you sory, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that ye were sory, but that yee sorrowed to repentance: for yee sorrowed godly, so that in nothing yee were hurt by vs.

10 For godly sorrow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorrow causeth death.

11 For behold, this thing that yee haue bene a godly sory, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zealer: yea, what a punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Therefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore wee were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather were reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted anything to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in trueth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when hee remembereth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, hee exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saints, commending their good beginning.

23 After, hee commendeth Titus and his followers vnto them.

W Doe you also to wit, brethren, of the grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Because in great triall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouertie abounded vnto their rich liberality.

3 For to their power (I heare record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance that wee would receiue the grace and fellowship of the ministering which is toward the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as hee had begun, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as yee abound in every thing, in faith, and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue toward vs, euen so see that yee abound in this grace also.

8 This I say I not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore yee yee the naturalnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that he being rich, for your sakes became poore, that yee through his pouertie might be made rich.

10 And I shew my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to will, a yere agoe.

11 Now therefore performe to doe it also, that as there was a readinesse to will, euen so yee may performe it of that which yee haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should be eased and you grieved.

14 But vpon like condition at this time your abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be equalitie:

15 As it is written, * Wee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

19 And thanks be vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you,

17 Because he accepted the exhortation, yea, he was lo carefull, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches,

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellow in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministered by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde.)

20 Auoyding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministered by vs, 21 Proudlyng for honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

22 And

a This benefit of God appeared in two things, first, that the Macedonians being in so great affliction, were so prompt to helpe others: and next, that being in great pouerty, were very liberal towards others.

b So that a most abundant riuier of riches flowed out of their pouertie.

c So he calleth their liberality, either because they were the bellowers of Gods graces, or because they re-ceiued them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to see to the distribution thereof.

Chap. 9. 13.

d Every man may doe good that hath abilitie thereunto: but to will, and haue a mind to doe good, commeth of perfect charitie.

22 And we haue sent with them our brother whom we haue oft times proued to be diligent in many things: but now much more diligent, for the great confidence which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper to youward: of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Therefore shewe toward them, and before the Churches the praise of your loue, and of the reioycing that we haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them. 6 Hee exhorteth to giue almes cheerefully, 7 Shewing what fruit will come thereof.

FOR as touching the ministering to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaja was prepared a yere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that yee (as I haue said) be ready:

4 Lest if they of Macedonia come with mee, and finde you vnprepared, wee (I need not to say) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Therefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and hee that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As every man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not grudgingly, or of necessity: * For God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that yee alwayes hauing * all sufficiency in all things, may abound in euery good worke,

9 As it is written, * He hath sparred abroad, and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also he that sowerdeth seed to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplie your seed, and increase the fruits of your beneuolence,

11 That on all parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thankgiuing vnto God:

12 For the ministracion of this seruiue not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thankgiuing of many vnto God:

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministracion, praise God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberall distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And by their prayer for you, || desiring after you greatly for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thanks therefore bee vnto God for his unspeakable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles, and defendeth his authority, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he useth it.

NOW I Paul my selfe beseech you, by the meekenesse, and gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, am * base, but am bold toward you being absent.

2 And this I require you, that I neede not to bee bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to bee bold against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked according to the flesh.

3 Nevertheless, though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mighty through God to cast downe holds)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on things after the appearance: If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christ, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christ, euen so are wee Christ.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as if wee were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, sayth he, are soe and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speech is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deede, when wee are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which praise themselves: but they understand not that they measure themselves with themselves, and compare themselves with themselves.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the measure of the line, whercof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For wee stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though wee had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching the Gospel of Christ.

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you, according to our line abundantly.

g That is, vse no worldly eloquence.

h Other Churches relieved me.

i He did not onely labour with his hands for his liuing, but in his extreme pouertie preached diligently without burdening any man, or else waxing slothfull to do his duty to every man. Chap. 12. 13. after 20. 34 k Let not the truth of Christ be thought to bee in me, if I suffer my ioy to be shut vp, which I haue conceiued of Grecia. l To slander my ministry, if I should receive wages.

Would to God yee could suffer a little my foolishnesse, and indeed yee suffer me.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly ielousie: for I haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:

3 But I feare lest as the serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your minds should bee corrupt from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

4 For if he that commeth, preacheth another Iesus then him whom we haue preached: or if yee receiue another spirit then that which yee haue receiued, either another Gospel then that ye haue receiued, yee might well haue suffered him.

5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the very chiefest Apostles.

6 And though I be a rinde in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifest to the vtmost, in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that yee might bee exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you and had neede, I was not slothfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I should not bee grieuous to you.

10 The truth of Christ is in mee, that this reioycing shall not bee shut by against me in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might be found like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

13 For such false apostles are deceitfull workers, and transforme themselves into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no maruella: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselves, as though they were the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall bee according to their works.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke that I am foolish: or else take mee euen as a foole, that I also may boast myselfe a little.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

19 For yee suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For yee suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man limite you on the face.

21 I speake as concerning the reproch, as though that wee had been weak: but wherein any man is bolde (I speake foolishly) I am bold also.

22 They are Chietwes, so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I.

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes above measure: in prison more plenteously: in death oft.

24 Of the Iewes five times receiued I forty stripes save one.

25 I was thise beaten with rodde: I was once stoned: I suffered thise shipwracke: night and day haue I been in the deepe sea.

26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren.

27 In wearinesse and painefulnesse, in watching often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakednesse.

28 Beside the things which are outward, I am cumbered dayly, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needs reioyce, I will reioyce of mine infirmities.

31 The God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the gouernour of the people vnder king Aretas, layde watch in the citie of the Damascens, and would haue caught me.

his boasting upon the Corinthians. 14 He sheweth what good will he beareth them, 20 And promiseth to come vnto them.

It is not expedient for me no doubt, to reioyce: for I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I know a man in Christ above fouretee yeres agoe, (whether hee were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the third heauen,

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was taken vp into Paradise, and heard words which cannot be spoken, which are not possible for man to utter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce, of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a fool: for I will say the truth, but I reframe lest any man should thinke of mee above that he seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should bee exalted out of measure, through the abundance of revelations, there was giuen vnto mee a pricke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord: that it might depart from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weakenes. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in mee.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguishes for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I was a fool to boast my selfe, ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue been commended of you, for in nothing was I inferior vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes and wonders, and great wokes.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior vnto other Churches, except that I haue not been so fleshful to your hinderance: forgive me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be fleshful to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestow, and will be bestowed for your soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But bee it that I charged you not:

yet forasmuch as I was craftie, I took you with guile.

17 Did I kill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus kill you of any thing? walked we not in the selfe same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Againe, thinke ye that we erre our selues vnto you? wee speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I feare, lest when I come I shall not finde you such as I would: and that I shall be found vnto you such as you would not, and lest there be strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whispering, swellings and discords.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, my God abate me among you, and I shall be walle many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the uncleanness, and fornication, & wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Hee sheweth the obsequies, 5 And declarerth what his power is by their owne testimony. 10 Also he sheweth what is the effect of this Epistle, 11 After hauing exhorted them to their duty, he wisherth all prosperitie.

This is the third time that I come vnto you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word stand.

2 I tolde you before, and tell you before: as though I had been present the second time, so write I now being absent, to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare.

3 Seeing that ye seeke experience of Christ, that speaketh in me, which toward you is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning his infirmity, yet liueth hee through the power of God. And we haue doubt are weak in him: but wee shall liue with him, through the power of God toward you.

5 Prooue your selues, whether ye are in the faith: examine your selues: knowe ye not your owne selues, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray vnto God, that ye doe none euill, not that we should seeme approved, but that ye should doe that which is honest: though we be as reprobates.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Galatians after they had been instructed by Saint Paul in the truth of the Gospel, gave place to false apostles, who entering in in his absence, corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that hee proueth that the granting thereof is the overthrow of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had been sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authority, but spake of himselfe, he proueth both that he is an Apostle ordained by God, and also that he is not inferiour to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, proving that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commodity: but now they are not onely unprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the truth and the end thereof is come. Wherefore men ought now to embrace that liberty, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences inuaded in the greines of mans traditions: finally hee sheweth wherein this libertie standeth: and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered themselves to be seduced by the false Apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Law were necessary to saluation, 8 and detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 He sheweth his owne conversation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equall with the chiefe Apostles.

d That is, to be partakers of the saluation offered freely by Christ.

e For what is more contrary to our free iustification by faith, then the iustification by the Law, or our workes? therefore to ioyne these two together, is to ioyne light with darkenesse, death with life, and doeth vtterly overthrow the Gospel.

Paul * an Apostle (not * of men, neither by * man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, which hath called him from the dead)

2 And all the brethren which are with mee, unto the Churches of Galatia:

9 As we sayd before, so I say now againe, If any man preach vnto you otherwise then that yee haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For I now preach I mans doctrine, or Gods? or goe I about to please men? for if I should yet please men, I were not the servant of Christ.

CHAP. II.

2 Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 and that hee is nothing inferior to other Apostles: 11 Tea, and that hee hath reprooved Peter the Apostle of the Jewes. 16 After he cometh to the principall scope which is to prove that iustification onely cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Law.

Then fourteene yeeres after I went by againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also.

2 And I went by by revelation, and communicated with them of the Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but particularly with them that were the chiefe, least by any meanes I should runne, or had runne in vaine:

3 But neither yet Titus which was with me, though he were a Grecian, was compelled to be circumcised,

4 For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in privily to spie out our libertie, which we have in Christ Iesus, that they might bring us into bondage.

5 To whom we gave not place by subjection for an houre, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 And of them which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they were in time past, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no mans person) nevertheless, they that are the chiefe, did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise when they saw that the Gospel over the uncircumcision was committed unto mee, as the Gospel over the circumcision was unto Peter:

8 (For hee that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship over the Circumcision, was also mightie by mee toward the Gentiles.)

9 And when James and Cephas, and John knew of the grace that was given unto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gave to mee and to Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should preach unto the Gentiles, and they unto the Circumcision, hands of fellowship, that we should preach unto the Gentiles, and they unto the Circumcision,

10 Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from James, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I saw that they went not the right way to the truth of the Gospel, I said unto Peter before all men, If thou being a Jew, livest as the Gentiles, and not like the Jewes, why contraineest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Jewes?

15 We which are Jewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Know that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Law, but by the faith of Iesus Christ, even we say, have beleaved in Iesus Christ, that wee might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law, no flesh shall be iustified.

17 If then while wee seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selves are found sinners: God forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I have destroyed, I make my selfe a transgressor.

19 For I through the Law am dead to the Law, and that I might live unto God, I am crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I live, yet not I now, but Christ liveth in me: and in that that I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loved mee, and given himselfe for me.

21 I do not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousness be by the Law, then Christ died without a cause.

3 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begun in the spirit, ye would now be made perfect by the flesh?

4 Haue ye suffered so many things in vaine; if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 Wherefore that ministereth to you the spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the works of the Law; or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Ye rather as Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foresaweth that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the workes of the Law, are vnder the curse: for it is written, Cursed is euery man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Law, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 And the Law is not of faith: but the man that shall doe those things, shall liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that wee might receiue the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speake as men doe, though it be but a mans covenant; when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or addeth any thing thereto.

16 Nowe to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. Hee saith not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Law which was four hundred and thirtie yeeres after, cannot disannull the covenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the transgressions, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordained by Angels in the hand of a Mediator.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is one.

21 Is the Law then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Law given which could haue given life, surely righteousness should haue bene by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded vs all vnder sin, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should be given to them that beleue.

23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Law, and shut vnto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the Law was our schoolemaster to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, wee are no longer vnder a schoolemaster.

26 For ye are all the sonnes of God by faith, in Christ Iesus.

27 For all ye that are baptised into Christ, haue put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Grecian: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Iesus.

29 And if yee be Christs, then are yee Abrahams seed, and heires by promise.

30 So that baptism succeedeth circumcision, and so through Christ both Iew and Gentile is saved. u As all one man.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordained. 3 Which being shadowes, must end when Christ the truth cometh. 9 Hee mooueth them by certaine exhortations, 32 And confirmeth his argument with a strong example, or allegorie.

When I say that the heire as long as hee is a child, differeth nothing from a seruant, though he be Lord of all,

2 But is vnder tutors and gouernors, vntill the time appointed of the father.

3 Euen so, wee when wee were children, were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the world.

4 But when the fulnesse of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, and made vnder the Law,

5 That hee might redeeme them which were vnder the Law, that we might receiue the adoption of the sonnes.

6 And because yee are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, which cryeth, Abba fa- ther.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne: now if thou bee a sonne, thou art also the heire of God through Christ.

15 What was then your felicitie? for I beare you record, that if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your owne eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They are felous over you: amisse: yea, they would exclude you, that ye should altogether love them.

18 But it is a good thing to love earnestly: yea, in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you.

19 My little children of whom I travaile in birth againe, untill Christ be formed in you.

20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voice: for I am in doubt of you.

21 Tell mee, yee that will bee under the Law, doe ye not heare the Law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, one by a servant, and one by a free woman.

23 But he which was of the servant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.

24 By the which things another thing is meant: for these mothers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mount Sina, which gendereth unto bondage.

25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and shee is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is above, is free: which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, Rejoyce thou barren.

ren that bearest no children: breake forth, and crieth thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children then shee which hath an husband.

28 Therefore, brethren, we are after the manner of Isaac children of the promise.

29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, even so it is now.

30 But what saith the Scripture? But out the servant and her sonne: for the sonne of the servant shall not be heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not children of the servant, but of the free woman.

2 He labourerth to draw them away from circumcision, 17 And sheweth them the battell betwixt the spirit and the flesh, and the fruits of them both.

Stand fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made us free, and bee not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if yee bee circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

For I testifie againe to every man, which is circumcised, that he is bound to keepe the whole Law.

We are abolished from Christ, who sooner are fulfilled by the Law, yee are fallen from grace.

For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness through faith.

For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, neither uncircumcision: but faith which worketh by love.

We did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the truth?

It is not the perswasion of him that calleth you.

A little leaven doeth leaven the whole lump.

I have trust in you through the Lord, that ye will be none other wise minded: but he that troubleth you, shall beare his condemnation, whosoever he be.

And brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the slander of the Crosse abolished.

Would to God they were even cut off, which doe disquiet you.

For brethren, ye have beene called unto libertie: onely use not your libertie as an occasion unto the flesh, but by love serve one another.

For all the Law is fulfilled in one word, which is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy selfe.

If ye bite and devour one another, take heede lest yee bee consumed one of another.

Then I say, Walke in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGUMENT.

While Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entered in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which hee had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, hee assureth them of saluation, because they were thereunto predestinate by the free Election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to his eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mysterie hee prayeth God to confirme toward them. And to the intent they should not glory in themselves, hee sheweth them their extreme misery wherein they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom whom the promises were not made, and yet by the free mercy of God in Christ Iesus, they were saved, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfect understanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth them likewise to be mindfull of so great benefits, neither to be moved with the false Apostles, which seek to overthrow their faith and tread vnder foot the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counsell of God: who by this meanes onely preferueth his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministerie, forasmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring forth most plentiful fruits, as innocencie, holinesse, with all such offices appertaining to godlinesse. Last of all, he declareth not onely in generall, what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne every mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his salutation, 4 He sheweth that the chief cause of their saluation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good will toward them, giuing thanks and praying God for their faith. 21 The ministerie of Christ.

PALL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, to the Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Christ Iesus:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 Blessed bee God even the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all spirituall blessing in heavenly things in Christ,

4 As hee hath chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should bee holy, and without blame before him in loue:

5 Who hath predestinate vs, to bee adopted through Iesus Christ vnto himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherewith hee hath made vs accepted in his beloued,

7 By whom we haue redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sinnes according to his rich grace:

8 Wherby he hath bin abundant toward vs in all wisdom and understanding,

9 And hath opened vnto vs the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed in him,

10 That in the dispensation of the fulnes of the times, hee might gather together in one all things, both which are in heaven, and which are in earth, even in Christ:

11 In whom also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will,

12 That we were which first trusted in Christ, should be vnto the praise of his glory:

13 In whom also ye haue trusted after that ye heard the word of truth, even the Gospel of your saluation, wherein also after that ye beleue, ye were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise,

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, vntill the redemption of the possession,

15 And the redemption of the possession, even to the purposing of himselfe, that he might gather together in one all things, both which are in heaven, and which are in earth, even in Christ:

16 To wit, the Iewes. i Though we be redeemed from the bondage of sinne by the death of Christ, Rom. 6. 12. yet we hope for this second redemption, which shall be when we shall possesse our inheritance in the heauens, wherof we haue the holy Ghost for a pgage, as Chap. 4. 30.

en, purchased vnto the praise of his glory.

15 Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisdom, and reuelation through the knowledge of him,

18 That the eyes of your understanding may be lightened, that ye may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatnesse of his power toward vs, which beleeue, according vnto the working of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his right hand in the heavenly places,

7 That he might shew in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnesse towards vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are yee saved through faith, and that not of your selues; it is the gift of God,

9 Not of workes, lest any man should boast himselfe.

10 For we are his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, which God hath ordeined that we would walke in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands,

12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliens from the common wealth of Israel, and were strangers from the covenants of promise, and had no hope, and were without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, yee which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the stop of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his flesh the hatred, that is, the law of commandments which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in himselfe, to making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one body by his crosse, and slay hatred thereby,

17 And came and preached peace to you which were as farre off, and to them that were neere.

18 For through him wee both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore, yee are no more strangers and foreigners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God, 22 In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto mee through the working of his power.

8 Euen vnto me the least of all Saints in this grace giuen, that I should preach among the Gentiles the vnsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the mysterte is, which from the beginning of the world hath bene hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent that now vnto principalities & powers in heavenly places might bee knowne by the Church the manifolde wisdom of God,

14 That we henceforth be no more children, waivering and caried about with euery winde of doctrine, by the deceit of men, and with craftinesse, whereby they lay in wait to deceiue.

15 But let vs follow the trueth in loue, and in all things grow vp into him, which is the head, that is, Christ,

16 By whom all the body being coupled and knit together by euery ioynt, for the furniture thereof (according to the effectuall power, which is in the measure of euery part) receiueth increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in loue.

17 This I say therfore, and testifie in the Lord, that ye henceforth walke not as other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their minds,

26 * Be angry, but sinne not: let not the sunne goe downe vpon your wrath, 27 * Neither giue place to the deuill.

28 Let him that stole, steale no more: but let him rather labour, and worke with his hands the thing which is good, that he may haue to giue vnto him that needeth.

29 * Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouthes: but that which is good to the vse of edifying, that it may minister grace vnto the hearers.

30 And * grieue not the holy Spirit of God, by whom ye are sealed vnto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and anger, & wrath, crying, and euill speaking be put away from you, with all maliciousnesse.

12 For it is shame euen to speake of the things which are done of them in secret.
13 But all things when they are reprobued of the light, are manifest: for it is light that maketh all things manifest.
14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and stand vp from the dead, and Christ shall geue thee light.
15 Take heed therefore that yee walke circumspectly, not as soles, but as * wile, 16 Redeeming the time: for the * dayes are euill.
17 * Wherefore, be ye not vniwise, but vnderstand what the will of the Lord is.
18 And be not drunke with wine wherein is exesse: but be fulfilled with the Spirit, 19 Speaking vnto your selues in psalmes, and hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing, and making melodie to the Lord in your hearts, 21 Submitting your selues one to another in the feare of God.

22 * * * * * submit your selues vnto your husbands, as vnto the Lord.
23 * For the husband is the wines head, euen as Christ is the head of the Church, and the same is the Saviour of his body.
24 Therefore, as the Church is in subiection to Christ, euen so let the wines bee to their husbands in euery thing.
25 * * * * * husbands, loue your wines, euen as Christ loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it,
26 That he might sanctifie it, & cleanse it, by the * washing of water through the word, 27 That he might make it vnto himselfe a glorious Church, not hauing spotte or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy, and without blame.
28 So ought men to loue their wines, as their owne bodies: hee that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.
29 For no man euer yet hated his owne flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the Lord doeth the Church.
30 For we are members of his body, & of his flesh, and of his bones.
31 * For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shal cleaue to his wife, and they twaine shall be one flesh.
32 This is a great secret, but I speake concerning Christ and concerning the Church.
33 Therefore eueny one of you, do ye so: let euery one loue his wife, euen as himselfe, and let the wife see that she feare her husband.

The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holy Ghost to goe into Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a city of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preach the Gospel vniuersally to all the Gentiles, hee trauielled from place to place: till at length he was taken prisoner at Rome, where of the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein hee commendeth them that they stood manfully against the false apostles, putting them in mind of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrink: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himselfe would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, he conuerteth their false doctrine, by prouing onely Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and generall, with testification of his affection toward them, and thankfull accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

1 Saint Paul discovereth his heart toward them, 3 By his thanksgiuings. 4 Prayers, 8 and wishes for their faith and saluation. 7. 12. 20 He sheweth the fruit of his crosse, 15. 27 And exhorteth them to vnitie, 28 And patience.

Paul and Timotheus the seruants of Iesus Christ, to all the Saints in Christ Iesus, which are at Philippi, with the ^a Bishops, and Deacons, 2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 I thanke my God, hauing you in perfect memory,

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for al you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the ^b fellowship which yee haue in the Gospel, from the ^c first day vntill now.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing, that he that hath begunne this good worke in you, will perfoyme it vntill the ^d day of Iesus Christ.

7 As it becommeth mee so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance, that both in my hands, and in my defence and confirmation of the Gospel, you all were partakers of my ^e grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That yee may discern things that differ one from another, that ye may be pure and ^f without offence, vntill the day of Christ,

11 Filled with the fruites of ^h righteousness, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glory and praise of God.

12 I would yee vnderstood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel,

13 So that my bands in ⁱ Christ are famous throughout all the ^k iudgement hall, and in all other places.

14 In so much that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bandes, and dare more frankly speake the ^l word.

15 Some preach Christ, euen through enuie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one part preacheth Christ of contention and not ^m purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bandes:

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all manner wayes, whether it bee ⁿ vnder a pretence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I know that this shall turne to my saluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ, 20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it bee by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me both in life, and in death aduantage.

22 And

g That you so increase in godliness, that not only ye can put difference betweene good & euill: but also that ye profit more & more without slipping backe or standing in a way. h Righteousnesse is the tree, good workes the fruit. i Which I sustein for Christs sake. k That is, in the court or palace of the Emperour Nero. l Or professe the Gospel, considering my constancie. m But with a corrupt mind. n Or, lie in bands: Their pretence was to preach Christ, and therefore their doctrine was true: but they were full of ambition and enuie, thinking to deface Paul & preferre themselves.

o To liue in the flesh, is to liue in this brittle body till we be called to liue euerslastingly: but to liue according to the flesh, or to be in the flesh, signifie, to be destitute of the spirit, and to be plunged in the filthy concupiscences of the flesh.

¶ Or, stand.
p The more that tyrants rage against the Gospel, the more manifestly they declare that they runne to their owne destruction, and againe, constant perseverance for Christs sake, is an euident signe of saluation. q God sheweth by this meanes of bearing the crosse, who are his, and who are not. ¶ Or, Christs cause, 22 And whether to ^o liue in the flesh, were profitable for mee, and what to choole, I know not.

23 For I am greatly in doubt on both sides, desiring to be loosed, and to bee with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Acuerthelesse to abide in the flesh, is more needfull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance, and ioy of your faith.

26 That ye may more abundantly reioyce in Christ Iesus for mee, by my comming to you againe.

27 ^o Onely let your conuersation bee, as it becommeth the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or else bee absent, I may heare of your matters, that ye continue in one spirit, and in one minde, fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

28 And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which is to them a token of perdition, and to you of saluation, and that of God.

29 For vnto you it is giuen for Christ, that not onely ye should beleeue in him, but also suffer for his sake.

30 Having the same fight which ye saw in me, and now heare to be in me.

q God sheweth by this meanes of bearing the crosse, who are his, and who are not. ¶ Or, Christs cause,

CHAP. II.

3 Hee exhorteth them about all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintained, 19 Promising that hee and Timotheus will speedily come vnto them, 27 and excuseth the long tarrying of Epaphroditus.

1 There he therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of loue, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercy.

2 Fulfill my ioy, that ye be like minded, hauing the same loue, being of one accord, and of one iudgement,

3 That nothing be done through contention or vaine glory, but that in meeknesse of mind ^o every man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Looke not every man on his owne things, but every man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same mind be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus.

6 Who being in the forme of God, thought it no robbery to be equall wth God:

7 ^o But he made himselfe of no reputation, and tooke on him the forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, & was found in shape as a man.

8 ^o He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and make much of such: 30 Because that for the worke of Christ he was nere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfil that seruice which was lacking on your part toward me.

9 Therefore God hath also highly exalted him, and giuen him a name aboue every name,

10 ^o That at the Name of Iesus should euery knee bow, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth, 11 ^o And that euery tongue should confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lord, vnto the glory of God the Father.

12 Therefore my beloued, as ye haue alwayes obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in mine absence, to make an end of your owne saluation with feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

14 Doe all things without murmuring and reasonings.

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the sonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughty and crooked nation, among whom ye shine, as lights in the world.

16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I haue not runne in vaine, neither haue laboured in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be offered by you on the sacrifice, and seruice of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus to send Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 ^o For all seeke their owne, and not that which is Iesus Christs.

22 But ye know the prooffe of him, that as a sonne with the father, hee hath serued with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send asoone as I know how it will goe with me.

24 And trust in the Lord, that I also myselfe shall come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessary to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellow souldier, euen your messenger, and he that ministered vnto me such things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heavinesse, because ye had heard that he had been sicke.

27 And no doubt he was sicke, very nere vnto death: but God had mercie on him, and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should haue sorrow vpon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye should see him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

30 Because that for the worke of Christ he was nere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfil that seruice which was lacking on your part toward me.

2 Hee warneth them to beware of false teachers, 3 Against whom his seareth Christ, 4 Likewise himselfe, 9 and his doctrine, 11 And reprooveth mans owne righteousness.

M Discover, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. He grieveth mee not to write the same things to you, and for you it is a sure thing.

2 Beware of b dogges: beware of euill workers: beware of the concision.

3 For wee are the Circumcision, which worship God in the Spirit, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinkech that he hath whereof hee might trust in the flesh, much more I:

5 Circumcised the eight day, of the kinred of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, * an Hebrew of the Hebrewes, * by the Law a Pharise.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the Church: touching the righteousness which is in the Law, I was unbeuieable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto mee, the same I counted losse for Christes sake.

8 Yea, doubtlesse I thinke all things but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lord, for whom I haue counted all things losse, and doe iudge them to bee dounge, that I might winne Christ.

9 And might bee found in him, that is not hauing mine owne righteousness, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, even the righteousness which is of God through faith.

10 That I may know him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and be made conformed vnto his death.

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the resurrection of the dead:

12 Not as though I had already attained to it, either were already perfect: but I follow, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behinde, and I reach out my selfe to that which is before,

14 And follow hard toward the marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if yee be otherwise minded, God shall recreate even the same vnto you.

16 Neuerthelesse, in that wherein we are come, let vs proceed by one Rule, * that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, be followers of mee, and looke on them, which walke so, as ye haue vs for an example.

18 * For many walke, of whom I haue told you often, & now tell you weeping, that they are the enemies of the Crosse of Christ, 19 Whose end is damnation, whose God is their belly, & whose glory is to their shame, which minde earthly things.

20 But our conuersation is in heauen, from whence also wee looke for the Sonour, even the Lord Iesus Christ.

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may bee fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby hee is able euen to subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

8 Hee exhorteth them to be of honest conuersation, 13 and thanketh them, because of the promise they made for him being in prison, 21 And so concludeth with salutations.

T herefore, my brethren, beloued and longed for, my ioy, and my crown, so continue in the Lord, ye beloued.

2 I pray Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.

3 Psea, and I beseech thee, faithful yokefellow, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the Booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient mind be known vnto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 * Be nothing carefull, but in all things let your requests bee shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication, with giuing of thanks,

7 And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall preserve your hearts and minds in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are iust, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any praise, thinke on these things,

9 Which ye haue both learned and received, and heard, and scene in me: those things doe, and the God of peace shall bee with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last yee are reuiued againe to care for me, wherein notwithstanding ye were carefull, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 I speake not because of want: for I haue learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 And I can bee abased, and I can abound: euery where in all things I am instructed both to be full, and to bee hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of Christ, which strengtcheneth mee.

21 Salute all the Saints in Chriſt Jeſus. The brethren, which are with me, greet you.

22 All the Saints ſalute you, and moſt of all they which are of Cæſars houſhold.

23 The grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with you all, Amen.

Written to the Philippians from Rome, and ſent by Epaphroditus.

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN this Epistle Saint Paul putteth difference betweene the lively, effectuall and true Chriſt, and the fained, counterfeit, and imagined Chriſt, whom the falſe apoſtles taught. And firſt, hee conſirmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wiſhing them increaſe of faith, to eſteeme the excellencie of Gods benefite toward them, teaching them alſo that ſaluation, and whatſoeuer good thing can be deſired, ſtandeth onely in Chriſt, whom onely wee embrace by the Goſpel. But forasmuch as the falſe brethren would haue mixed the Law with the Goſpel, hee toucheth thoſe flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to ſtay only on Chriſt, without whom all things are but mere vanitie. And as for circumeiſion, abſtinenſe from meates, externall holineſſe, worſhipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Chriſt, he vtterly condemneth, ſhewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Chriſt are abrogate: ſo that now the exerciſes of the Chriſtians ſtand in mortification of the fleſh, newneſſe of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

3 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increaſe of their faith. 13 He ſheweth vnto them the true Chriſt, and diſcouereth the counterfeit Chriſt of the falſe apoſtles. 25 He approneth his authority and charge, 28 and of his faithfull executing of the ſame.

Paul an Apoſtle of IESVS Chriſt, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To them which are at Colofſe, Saints and faithfull brethren in Chriſt: Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 Wee giue thanks to God euen the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, alwaies praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith^b in Chriſt Jeſus, and of your loue towards all Saints,

5 For the hopes ſake which is laid vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the word of trueth, which is the Goſpel,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is alſo among you, from the day that yee heard and truly knew the grace of God.

7 As yee alſo learned of Epaphras our deare fellow ſeruant, which is for you a faithfull miniſter of Chriſt:

8 Who hath alſo declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue^c by the ſpirit.

9 For this cauſe wee alſo, ſince the day we heard of it, ceaſe not to pray for you, and to deſire that yee might bee fulfilled with knowledge of^d his will, in all wiſdome, and ſpirituall understanding.

10 That yee might walke worthy of the Lord, and pleaſe him in all things, being fruitfull in all good workes, and increaſing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long ſuffering with ioyfullneſſe,

12 Gining thanks vnto the Father, which hath made vs meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkeneſſe, and hath translated vs into the kingdome^e of his deare Sonne, 14 In whome wee haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiveness of finnes.

15 Who is the^f image of the inuiſible God, the^g firſt borne of euery creature.

16 For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things viſible and inuiſible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principallities, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him.

17 And he is before all things, and in him all things conſiſt.

18 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: he is the beginning, and the firſt borne of the dead, that in al things he might haue the preeminence.

19 For it pleaſed the Father, that in him ſhould all^h fulneſſe dwell,

20 And by him to reconcileⁱ all things vnto himſelfe, and to ſet at peace through the blood of his croſſe, both the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

21 And you which were in times paſt ſtrangers, and enemies, becauſe your mindes were ſet in euill workes, hath he now alſo re- conciled,

22 In the body of his flesh through death to make you holy and unblamable, and without fault in his sight,

23 If ye continue grounded and stablished in the faith, and be not moued away from the hope of the Gospel, whereof ye haue heard, and which hath been preached to euery creature which is vnder heauen, whereof I Paul am a minister.

24 Now reioyce I in my sufferings, for you, and fulfill the rest of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for his bodies sake, which is the Church.

25 Whereof I am a minister, according to the dispensation of God, which is giuen me vnto youward, to fulfill the word of God.

26 Which is the mystery hid since the world began, and from all ages, but now is made manifest to his Saints.

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of his glorious mystery among the Gentiles, which riches is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

28 Whom we preach, admonishing euery man, and teaching euery man in all wisdom, that wee may present euery man perfect in Christ Iesus.

29 Whereunto I also labour and strive, according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAP. II.

1 Having professed his good will toward them, he admonisheth them not to turne backe from Christ, 8 to the seruice of Angels or any other invention, or else ceremonies of the Law, 17 Which haue finished their office, and are ended in Christ.

2 I would ye knew what great fighting I haue for your sakes, and for them of Laodicea, and for as many as haue not knowne person in the flesh,

3 That their hearts might be comforted and they knit together in loue, and in all riches of the full assurance of vnderstanding, to know the mystery of God euen the Father, and of Christ:

4 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

5 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words:

6 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the Spirit reioycing, and beholding your order, and your steadfast faith in Christ.

7 As ye haue theretore receiued Christ Iesus our Lord, to walke in him,

8 Rooted and built in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye haue been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

9 Beware lest there bee any man that spoyle you through philosophy, and vaine deceit, through the traditions of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

10 For in him dwelleth all the fulnes of the Godhead bodily.

11 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principallty and power:

12 In whom also ye are circumcised with circumcision made without hands, by putting off the sinfull body of the flesh, through the circumcision of Christ, 13 In that ye are buried with him through baptisme, in whom ye are also raised vp together through the faith of the operation of God, which raised him from the dead.

14 And ye which were dead in sinnes, and in the vncircumcision of the flesh, hath he quickened together with him, forgiving you all your trespasses,

15 And putting out the hand writing of ordinances that was against vs, which was contrary to vs, he euen took it out of the way, and fastened it vpon the crosse,

16 And hath spoiled the principalities, and powers, and hath made a shew of them openly, and hath triumphed ouer them in the same crosse.

17 Let no man therefore condemne you in meat and drinke, or in respect of an holy day, or of the new moone, or of the Sabbath dayes.

18 Which are but a shadow of things to come: but the body is in Christ.

19 Let no man at his pleasure beare rule ouer you, by humbleness of minde and worshipping of Angels, aduancing himselfe in those things which hee neuer saw, rashly puffed vp with his fleshy minde,

20 And holdeth not the head, whereof all the body furnished & knit together by ioynts and bands increaseth with the increasing of God.

21 Therefore if ye bee dead with Christ from the ordinances of the world, why, as though ye liued in the world, are ye burdened with traditions:

22 As, Touch not, Taste not, Handle not: which all perish with the using, and are after the commandements and doctrines of men:

23 Which things haue in deede a shew of wisdom, in voluntary religion and humbleness of minde, and in not sparing the body: neither haue they it in any estimation to satisfie the flesh.

24 Which things haue in deede a shew of wisdom, in voluntary religion and humbleness of minde, and in not sparing the body: neither haue they it in any estimation to satisfie the flesh.

25 Which things haue in deede a shew of wisdom, in voluntary religion and humbleness of minde, and in not sparing the body: neither haue they it in any estimation to satisfie the flesh.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Theſſalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, perſecution (which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Goſpel) aroſe, againſt the which although they did conſtantly ſtand, yet S. Paul (as moſt carefull for them) ſent Timothee to ſtrengthen them, who ſoone after admoniſhing him of their eſtate, gaue occaſion to the Apoſtle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be conſtant in faith, and to ſuffer whatſoeuer God calleth them vnto for the teſtimonie of the Goſpel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the purity of their Religion. And as the Church can neuer be ſo purged, that ſome cockle remaine not among the wheat, ſo there were among them wicked men, which by moouing vaine and curious queſtions to ouerthrow their faith, taught falſly, as touching the point of the reſurrection from the dead: whereof hee briefly inſtructeth them what to thinke, earneſtly forbidding them to ſeek curioſly to know the times, willing them rather to warch, leſt the ſudden coming of Chriſt come vpon them at vnwares: and ſo after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

1 He thanketh God for them, that they are ſo ſtedfaſt in faith and good works, 6 and receiue the Goſpel with ſuch earneſtneſſe, 7 That they are an example to all others.

PAUL and Silvanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Theſſalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Ieſus Chriſt: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

2 * We giue God thanks alwayes for you all, making * mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceaſing, remembering your beſectiuall faith, and diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lord Ieſus Chriſt in the ſight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our ^d Goſpel was not vnto you in word only, but alſo in power, and in the holy Ghoſt, and in much aſſurance, as ye know after what manner wee were among you for your ſakes.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with ^e ioy of the holy Ghoſt,

7 So that ye were as ^h enſamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you ſounded out the word of the Lord, not in Macedonia, and in Achaia onely: but your faith alſo which is toward God ſpread abroad in all quarters, that wee need not to ſpeake any thing.

9 For ⁱ they themſelues ſhew of you what manner of entering in we had vnto you, and how ye turned to God from idoles, to ſerue the ^j liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heauen, whom he raiſed from the dead, euen Ieſus which deliuereth vs from the ^k wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they ſhould not faint vnder the croſſe, 2 hee commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And theirs in obeying. 18 Hee excuſeth his abſence, that hee could not come and open his heart to them.

FOR ye your ſelues know brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in ^a vaine.

2 But euen after that we had ſuffered beſore, and were ſhamefully intreated at ^b Philippi (as ye know) we were bold in our God, to ſpeake vnto you the Goſpel of God with much ſtriving.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by uncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Goſpel ſhould be committed vnto vs we ſo ſpeake, not as they that ^c pleaſe men, but God which trieth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did we euer uſe flattering words, as ye know, nor coloured conſcience, God is record.

6 Neither ſought we praife of men, neither of you, nor of others.

7 When we might haue bin ſchargeable, as the Apoſtles of Chriſt: but we were gentle among you, euen as a ^d nourse cheriſheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Goſpel of God onely, but alſo our owne ſoules, becauſe ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, * our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, becauſe wee would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Goſpel of God.

10 We are witneſſes, and God alſo, how ho- liſty and iuſtly, and vblameably we behaued our ſelues among ^e you that beleeue.

11 As ye know how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and beſought euery one of you (as a father his children)

12 That ye * would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cauſe alſo thanke wee God without ceaſing, that when ye receined of vs the word of the preaching of God, ye receined it not as the word of men, but as it is indeed the word of God, which alſo worketh in you that beleeue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in ^f Chriſt Ieſus, becauſe ye haue alſo ſuffered the ſame things of your owne coun-

16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might bee ſaued, to fulfill their finnes alwaies: for the wrath of God is come on them, to the vtmoſt.

17 Forasmuch brethren, as we were kept from you for a ſeaſon, concerning fight, but not in the heart, we enforced the more to ſee your face with great deſire.

18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul, at leaſt once or twice) but Satan hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope or joy, or crown of reioycing? are not euen you it in the preſence of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt at his coming?

20 Yeſ, yee are our glory and joy.

CHAP. III.

2 He ſhoweth how greatly hee was affectioned toward them, both in that hee ſent Timotheus to them, 10 And alſo prayed for them.

Wherefore ſince we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone,

2 And haue ſent Timotheus our brother, and Miniſter of God, and our labour fellow in the Goſpel of Chriſt, to ſtabliſh you, and to comfort you touching your faith,

3 That no man ſhould be moued with theſe afflictions: for yee your ſelues know, that we are appoynted thereunto.

4 For verely when wee were with you, we told you before that we ſhould ſuffer tribulations, euen as it came to paſſe, and ye know it.

5 Euen for this cauſe, when I could no longer forbear, I ſent him, that I might know of your faith, leaſt the tempter had tempted you in any ſort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith & loue, and that yee haue good remembrance of vs alwaies, deſiring to ſee vs, as we alſo doe you,

7 Therefore brethren, we had conſolation in you, in all our affliction, and neceſſity through your faith.

8 For now are we all iue, if ye ſtand faſt in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we recompence to God againe for you, for all the joy wherewith wee reioyce for your ſakes before our God,

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that wee might ſee your face, and might accompliſh that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himſelfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Ieſus Chriſt guide our journey vnto you,

12 And the Lord increaſe you, and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as wee doe toward you;

13 To make your hearts ſtable, and blameable in holineſſe before God euen our Father, at the coming of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt with all his Saints.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteſh them to holineſſe, 6 Innocency, 9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Deſcribing the end of the reſurrection.

And furthermore we beſeech you brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Ieſus, that ye increaſe more and more, as yee haue receiued of vs how ye ought to walke, and to pleaſe God.

2 For ye know what commandements we gaue you by the Lord Ieſus.

3 For this is the will of God, euen your ſanctification, and that yee ſhould abſtaine from fornication,

4 That euery one of you ſhould know, how to poſſeſſe his veſſell in holineſſe and honour,

5 And not in the luſt of concupiſcence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man oppreſſe or defraud his brother in any matter: for the Lord is anenger of all ſuch things, as we alſo haue told you before time, and teſtified.

7 For God hath not called vs vnto vncleanneſſe, but vnto holineſſe.

8 We therefore that deſpiſeth theſe things, deſpiſeth not man, but God who hath euen giuen you his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye need not that I write vnto you: for ye are taught of God to loue one another:

10 Yeſ, and that thing verily ye do vnto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but we beſeech you brethren, that ye increaſe more and more,

11 And that ye ſtudy to be quiet, and to meddle with your owne buſineſſe, and to worke with your owne hands, as we commanded you,

12 That yee may behaue your ſelues honeſtly toward them that are without, and that nothing be lacking vnto you.

13 I would not brethren, haue you ignorant concerning them which are aſleepe, that ye ſorrow not, euen as other which haue no hope.

14 For if wee beleeue that Ieſus is dead, and is riſen, euen ſo them which ſleepe in Ieſus, will God bring with him.

15 For this ſay we vnto you by the word of the Lord, that we which liue, and are remaining in the coming of the Lord, ſhall not preuent them which ſleepe.

16 For the Lord himſelfe ſhall deſcend from heauen with a ſhout, and with the voyce of the Archangell, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Chriſt ſhall riſe firſt.

CHAP. V.

1 He enformeth them of the day of iudgement and comming of the Lord, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regard such as preach Gods word among them.

At of the times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you.

2 For ye your selues know perfectly, that the day of the Lord shall come, euen as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, and safety, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the ^b trauaile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenesse, that that day should come on you, as it were a thiefe.

5 We are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darknesse.

6 Therefore let vs not sleepe as doe others, but let vs ^a watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the day, be sober, ^a putting on the breastplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the means of our Lord Iesus Christ,

10 Which died for vs, that whether wee wake or ^a sleepe, wee should liue together with him.

11 Therefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Now wee beseech you, brethren, that ye know them, which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish you.

13 That ye haue them in singular loue for ^a their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 We desire you, brethren, admonish them that are vnruly: comfort the feeble minded: beate with the weake: bee patient toward all men.

15 See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 Reioyce euermore.

17 Pray continually.

18 In all things giue thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

19 Quench not the ^a Spirit.

20 Despise not ^a prophesying.

21 Try all things, and keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine from all appearance of euill.

23 Now the very God ^a of peace sanctifie you throughout: and I pray God that your whole spirit and soule and body, may bee kept blamelesse vnto the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

24 Faithfull is hee which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kisse.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Let the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because hee went to other places, rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience and other fruits of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally, commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, hee willet them to correct such sharply, as liue idly of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

2 That ye be not ſuddenly moued from your minde, nor troubled, neither by a ſpirit, nor by a word, nor by a letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Chriſt were at hand.

¶ The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN writing this Epistle, Paul seemed not onely to have respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would have rebelled against him because of his youth. And therefore he doeth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared that professing the Law, they know not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, he so confesseth his vnworthines, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willett prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to every sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuch as God hath left ministers, as ordinary meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what manner of men they ought to be, to whom the mysterie of the Son of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of Religion, men shall teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, hee teacheth what widowes should bee received or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the due tie of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of coueousnes, of rich men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware of false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 He exhorteth Timotheus to wait upon his office, namely to see that nothing be taught but Gods word, charity, and edification are the end thereof, 20 And 12 Therefore I thanke him which hath made mee strong: that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for he counted mee faithfull, and put me in his seruice:

13 When before I was a blasphemers, and a persecuter, and an oppressour: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it ignorantly through vnbellefe.

14 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This is a true saying, & by all means worthy to be receiued, that Christ Iesus came into the world to saue sinners, of whom I am chiefe.

16 Notwithstanding for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ should first shew on mee all long suffering vnto the ensample of them, which shall in time to come beleeue in him vnto eternall life.

17 Now vnto the King euermlasting, immortal, inuisible, vnto God only wise, be honour, and glory for ever, and ever, Amen.

Let as many seruants as are vnder the yoke, count their masters worthy of all honour, that the Name of God, and his doctrine be not euill spoken of.

2 And they which haue believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather doe seruice, because they are faithfull, & beloued, and partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consenteth not to the wholesome words of our Lord Iesus Christ, & to the doctrine, which is according to godlinesse,

4 Hee is puffed vp, and knoweth nothing but doeth about questions and strife of words, whereof cometh enuie, strife, ray-lings, euill surmisings.

5 Vaine disputations of men of corrupt mindes, and destitute of the truth, which thinke that gaine is godlinesse: from such separate thy selfe.

6 But godlinesse is great gaine, if a man be content with that he hath.

7 For wee brought nothing into the world, and it is certaine, that wee can carry nothing out.

8 Therefore when wee haue food and rayment, let vs therewith be content.

9 For they that will be rich, fall into temptation and snarcs, and into many foolish and hurtfull lusts, which drawe men in perdition and destruction.

10 For the desire of money is the root of all euill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the faith, and perced themselves thorow with many sorowes.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godlinesse, faith loue, patience, and meeknesse.

12 Fight the good fight of faith: lay hold of eternall life, whereunto thou also art called, and hast professed a good profession before my witnesses.

13 I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Iesus Christ, which vnder Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession.

14 That thou keepe this commandment without spot, and blameable, vntill the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 Which in due time he shall shew, that is blessed and princely, the King of kings, and Lord of lords,

16 Who onely hath immortallitie, and dwelleth in the light that none can attaine vnto, whom neuer man sawe, neither can see, vnto whom be honour and power euerslasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they bee not high minded, and that they trust not in vncertaine riches, but in the liuing God, (which giueth vs abundantly all things to enioy.)

18 That they doe good, and bee rich in good works, and ready to distribute, and communicate, 19 Laying by in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obtaine eternall life.

20 O Timotheus, keepe that which is committed vnto thee, and auoyde prophane and vaine bablings, and oppositions of science, falsely so called,

The second Epistle of Paul to Timotheus

THE ARGUMENT.

THE Apostle being now ready to confirme the doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospel, and in the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue as doe husbandmen, which at length receiue the fruits of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care as souldiers doe, which onely seeke to please their captaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel which he preached, commanding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, curious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philatus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authority and estimation, he sheweth that all that professe Christ are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods triall come: yet he reserueth them whom he hath elected, euen to the end. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessary affaires, and so with his and other salutations endeth.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stirre by the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, neither of mee his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him that he may finde mercy with the Lord at that day, and in how many things he hath ministered vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

2 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide first in the whole some doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 shewing him the fidelity of Gods counsell, touching the saluation of his, 19 and the marks thereof.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithful men, which shall be able to teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

whom they are taken, they may come to amendment, & performe his will.

10 Therefore I suffer all things, for the elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternall glory.

11 It is a true saying, For if we be dead with him, we also shall liue with him.

12 If we suffer, we shall also reigne with him: if we denie him, he also will denie vs.

13 If wee beleene not, yet abideth hee faithfull: he cannot denie himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they strue not about wordes, which is to no profit, but to the peruertering of the hearers.

15 Studie to shew thy selfe appoued erred, saying, that the resurrection is past already, and doe destroy the faith of certaine.

19 But the foundation of God remaineth sure, and hath this seale, The Lord knoweth who are his, and, Let every one that calleth on the name of Christ, depart from iniquitie.

20 Notwithstanding in a great house are not only vessels of gold and of siluer, but also of wood and of earth, and some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.

21 If any man therefore purge himselfe from these, he shall be a vessel vnto honour, sanctified and mente for the Lord, and prepared vnto euery good worke.

22 Flee also from the lusts of youth, and follow after righteousness, faith, loue, and peace, with them that call on the Lord with pure heart.

23 And put away foolish, and vnlearn-ed questions, knowing that they ingender strife.

24 But the seruant of the Lord must not strue, but must be gentle toward all men, apt to teach, suffering the euill men patiently,

25 Instructing them with meekenesse that are contrary minded, proouing if God at any time will giue them repentance, that they may know the trueth,

26 And that they may come to amendment out of the snare of the deuill, which are taken of him at his will.

CHAP. III.

3 Without natural affection, truce breakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, despisers of them which are good,

4 Traitors, headie, bie minded, louers of pleasures more then loners of God,

5 Wanting a shew of godlinesse, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from such.

6 For of this sort are they which creepe into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and ledde with diuers lustes,

7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the trueth.

8 And as Iannes and Iambres withstood Moyses, so doe these also resist the trueth, men of corrupt mindes, reprobate concerning the faith.

ed: but from them all the Lord deliuered

12 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Iesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 But the euill men and deceiuers shall ware worse and worse, deceiuing and being deceiued.

thou hast learned, & art perswaded thereof,
knowing of whom thou hast learned them:

15 And that thou hast knowen the holy Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.

The Epiſtle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGUMENT.

When Titus was left in Creta to finiſh that doctrine which Paul had there begun, Satan ſtirred vp certaine, which went about not onely to ouerthrow the government of the Church, but alſo to corrupt the doctrine: for ſome by ambition would haue thruſt in themſelues to be Paſtors: others vnder pretext of Moſes Law, brought in many trifles. Againſt theſe two ſorts of men Paul armed Titus: firſt teaching him what maner of miniſters hee ought to chuſe, chiefly requiring that they be men of ſound doctrine, to the intent they might reſiſt the aduerſaries, and among other things he noteth the lewes which put a certaine holineſſe in meates and ſuch outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exerciſes of a Chriſtian life, and what things appertaine to every mans vocation. Againſt the which if any man rebell or els doeth not obey, hee willeth him to bee auoyded.

CHAP. I.

5 He aduerſiſeth Titus touching the government of the Church. 7 The ordinance and office of miniſters. 12 The nature of the Cretians, and of them which ſeek abroad Jewiſh fables and inuentions of men.

Paul a ſeruant of God, and an Apoſtle of Ieſus Chriſt, according to the faith of Gods elect, and the knowledge of the trueth, which is according to godlineſſe.

2 Under the hope of eternall life, which God that cannot lie, hath promiſed beſore the world began.

3 But hath made his word maniſeſt in due time through the preaching, which is committed vnto me, according to the commandment of God our Saviour:

4 To Titus my naturall ſonne according to the common faith, grace, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Ieſus Chriſt our Saviour:

5 For this cauſe left I thee in Creta, that thou ſhouldeſt continue to redreſſe the things that remaine, and ſhouldeſt ordaine Elders in euery citie, as I appointed thee.

6 If any be vnreprouable, the husband of one wiſe, hauing faithfull children, which are not ſlandered of riot, neither are diſobedient.

7 For a Biſhop muſt be vnreprouable as Gods ſteward, not ſroward, not angry, not giuen to wine, no ſtriker, not giuen to filthy lucre.

8 But barbarous, one that loueth goodneſſe, wiſe, & righteous, holy, temperate,

9 Holding faſt the faithfull word according to doctrine, that he alſo may be able to exhort with wholeſome doctrine, & reprove them that ſay againſt it.

10 For there are many diſobedient and vaine talkers and deceiuers of mindes, chiefly

Or, miniſter. a That is, to preach the faith, to increaſe their knowledge, to teach them to liue godly, that at length they may obtaine eternall life. b Hath willingly & of his meere liberality promiſed without fore- ſeeing our faith. c Works as a cauſe to moue him to this free mercy. i Which were not onely the Jewes; but also the Hebionites and Cerinthians heretikes, which taught that the Law must be iyned with Christ. k He calleth Epimenides the Philosopher or Poet, whose verse he here reciteth, a Prophet, because the Cretians so esteemed him: and as Lactius writeth, they sacrificed vnto him as to a God, forasmuch as hee had a marueilous gift to vnderstand things to come: which things Satan by the permission of God hath opened to the Infidels from time to time, but it turneth to their greater condemnation. 1. Tim. 1. 4. Rom. 1. 4. 10. 1 Forasmuch as they stay at things of nothing, and passe not for them that are of importance, and so giue themselves to all wickednesse.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee commendeth vnto him the wholesome doctrine, and telleth him how hee shall teach all degrees to behaue themselves. 11 Through the benefit of the grace of Christ.

B At I speake thou the things which become wholesome doctrine,

2 That the elder men bee sober, honest, discret, sound in the faith, in loue, and in patience:

3 The elder women likewise, that they be in such behaviour as becommeth holines, not false accusers, not giuen to much wine, but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the young women to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children.

5 That they be discret, chaste, keeping at home, good, and subject vnto their husbands, that the word of God be not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 About all things, shew thy selfe an example of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integrity,

8 And with the wholesome word, which cannot be reprobued, that he which withstandeth, may bee ashamed, hauing nothing concerning you to speake euill of.

9 Let seruants bee subject to their masters, and please them in all things, not answering againe,

10 Neither pickers, but that they shew al good faithfulness, that they may adorne the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God that bringeth saluation vnto all men hath appeared.

12 And teacheth vs that we should denie vngodlinesse, and worldly lusts, and that we should liue soberly, and righteously, and godly in this present world,

13 Looking for the blessed hope, and ap-chiefly they of the Circumcision.

11 Whole mouthes must be stopped, which subuert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre sake.

12 One of themselves, euen one of their owne Prophets said, The Cretians are alwayes liars, euill beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith.

14 And not taking heede to Jewish fables and commandments of men, that turne from the truth.

15 Vnto the pure are all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and unbelieuing is nothing pure, but euen their mindes and consciences are defiled.

16 They professe that they know God, but by works they denie him, and are abominable and disobedient, and vnto every good worke reprobate.

pearing of the glory of the mightie God, and of our Saviour Iesus Christ.

14 Who gaue himselfe for vs, that hee might redeeme vs from all iniquitie, and purge vs to be a peculiar people vnto himselfe, zealous of good workes.

15 These things speake and exhort, and rebuke with all authoritie. See that no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Of obedience to such as be in authority. 9 Hee warneth Titus to beware of foolish and vnprofitable questions. 12 Concluding with certaine private matters. 15 And salutations.

P At them in remembrance that they be subject to the principalities and powers, and that they be obedient and ready to euery good worke,

2 That they speake euill of no man, that they be no fighters, but soft, shewing al meeknesse vnto all men.

3 For we our selues also were in times past vnwise, disobedient, deceiued, seruing the lusts and diuers pleasures, liuing in malitiousnesse and enuy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But when the bountifullnesse of Ioue of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not by the works of righteousness, which wee had done, but according to his mercy he saued vs, by the washing of new birth, and the renewing of the holy Ghost,

6 Which hee shedde on vs abundantly through Iesus Christ our Saviour,

7 That we, being iustified by his grace, should be made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldest affirme, that they which haue beleued in God, might be carefull to shew forth good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

9 But stay foolish questions, & genealogies, & contentions, & brawlings about the Law: for they are vnprofitable and vaine.

10 Reiect him that is an heretike, after once or twice admonition.

11 Knowing that he that is such, is peruerter, and sinneth being damned of his owne selfe.

12 When I shall send Artemas vnto thee, or Tycheus, be diligent to come to me vnto Nicopolis: for I haue determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the expounder of the Law, and Apollos on their iourney diligent, that they lacke nothing.

14 And let ours also learne to shew forth good workes for necessary vses, that they be not vnfruitfull.

15 All that are w me, salute thee. Greete them that loue vs in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witnesse and a declaration of the same. For farre passing the basenesse of his matter, he flyeth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments procuring the dutie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 Hee reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, & whom he desireth to forgive his seruant Onesimus, and lovingly to receive him againe.

Paul a prisoner of Jesus Christ, & our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend & fellow helper,

2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow souldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I* giue thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

5 (When I heard of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatsoever good thing is in you through Christ Jesus may be knowne.

7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saints hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore though I bee very bold in Christ to command thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for loues sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my sonne Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue retained with mee, that in thy stead hee might haue ministered vnto me in the bonds of the Gospel.

14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer.

16 Not now as a seruant, but aboute a seruant, euen as a brother beloued, specially to me: how much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count our things common, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If hee hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompense it, albeit I doe not lay to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Pea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Whereouer also prepare mee lodging for I trust through your prayers I shall be giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus,

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowen, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the author thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authority, although we know not with what pen he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophecies, and therefore not only Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe, for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leviticall Priests were but shadows, & therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinneto be abolished, as hee proueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 11. vnto the 12. Chap. vers. 8. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18. to the twentieth and fife verse of the same Chapter: yea, and is the King to whome all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 25, to the beginning of the last Chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the old fathers, was

we must constantly beleue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly and courageously perseuer euen to the ende, in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that we may both bee thankfull to God, and dutifull to our neighbour.

C H A P. I.

1 Hee exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the new Law which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 And not to bee offended at the infirmities, and low degree of Christ,

10 Because it was necessarie that for our sakes hee should take such an humble state vpon him, that hee might be like vnto his brethren.

VVherefore we ought diligently to giue heede to the things which wee haue heard, lest at any time we should let them slippe.

2 For if the worde spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward,

3 How shall we escape, if wee neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by them that heard him,

4 God bearing witnesse thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will;

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shouldest be mindfull of him, or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him!

7 Thou madest him a little inferiour to the Angels: thou crownedst him with glorie and honour, and hast set him about the workes of thine hands.

8 Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that hee hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him. But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

9 But we see Iesus crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a little inferiour to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that he brought many children vnto glorie, that he should consecrate the Prince of their saluation through afflictions.

11 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren, him to be made like vnto his brethren, that

CHAP. III.

1 He requireth them to be obedient vnto the word of Christ, 3 who is more worthy then Moses. 12 The punishment of such as will harden their hearts, and not beleeme, that they might haue eternall rest.

Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, consider the Apostle and high Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appoynted him, euen as Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as hee which hath builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, and he that hath build all things, is God.

5 Now Moses verily was faithfull in all his house, as a seruant, for a witnesse of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, oner his owne house, whose house we are, if we hold fast the confidence, and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy Ghost saith, * To day if ye shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation, according to the day of the tentati-on in the wilderness,

9 Where your fathers tempted me, prouoked mee, and saw my workes fourtie yeeres long.

10 Therefore I was grieved with that generation, and sayd, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I swaie in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest.

12 Take heed, brethren, lest at any time there bee in any of you an euill heart, and unfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing
God.

13 But exhort one another dayly, while it is called * To day, lest any of you bee hardened through the deceitfulness of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the ende the beginning, wherewith we are byholden, 15 So long as it is sayd, To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he displeased forty yeeres: was he not displeased with them that sinned, * whose carkeises fell in the wildernesse?

18 And to whome swaie hee, that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in,
because of unbeliefe.

Lest ye feare therefore, lest at any time

praued.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospell preached as also vnto them: but the word that they heard, profited not them, because it was not mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleued, doe enter into rest, as he sayd to the other, * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the workes were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth, that some must enter therinto, and they to whom it was first preached, entered not therein for unbeliefes sake:

tain day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is sayd, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Iesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

11 Let vs study therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of disobedience.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and open vnto his eyes, with whom we haue¹ to doe.

14 Seeing then that we haue a great high Priest, which is entered into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an high Priest, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and finde grace to helpe in time of need.

g He meaneth that most earnest prayer which Christ prayed in regard, where he sweare drops of blood.
h Being in perplexity, and fearing the horrors of death.
i He digresseth till he come to the beginning of the 7. chapter.

FOR every high Priest is taken from among men, and is ordeined for men, in things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both^b giftes, and^c sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them^d that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that hee also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 And no man taketh this honoz vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour to be made the high Priest, but he that layd vnto him, Thou art my Sonne, this day begat I thee, gaue it him.

6 As hee also in another place speaketh, Thou art a Priest for euer after^e the order of Melchisedec.

7 Which in the dayes of his flesh did offer by prayers & supplications, with strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard^f in that which he feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an high Priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom wee haue many things to say, which are hard to be vttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye neede againe that we teach you the first principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue neede of milke, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that bleth milke, is inexperienced in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wits exercised, to discerne both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

1 He proceedeth in reproofing them, and exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be steadfast and patient, 18 Forasmuch as God is sure in his promise.

THEREFORE leaving the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisme, and laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we do^d if God permit.

4 For it is impossible that they, which were once lightned, and haue tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, & of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should bee renewed againe by repentance: seeing they^e crucifie againe to themselves the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh oft vpon it, and bringeth forth hearbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briars, is reproofed, and is nere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue which ye shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministered vnto the Saints, and yet minister.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end, 12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, which through faith and patience inherite the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he swore by himselfe, 14 Saying, Surely I will abundantly blesse thee, and multiply thee maruclously.

15 And so after that hee had tarped patiently, beinoyed the promise.

k He returneth to the comparison betweene Christs Priesthood and the Leuitical, which he had begun in the fift Chapter.

1 Which is in heauen, whither Christ is gone before to prepare vs place.

CHAP. VII.

He compareth the Priesthood of Christ vnto Melchisedec, 11 Also Christs Priesthood with the Leuites.

Of this Melchisedec was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as hee returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things, who first is by interpretation King of righteousness: after that, hee is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace.

3 Without father, without mother, without kindred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Now consider how great this man was vnto whom euen the Patriarch Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.

5 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the priesthood, haue a commandement to take according to the law, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kindred is not counted among them, receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without al contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And heere men that die receiue tithes: but there hee receiue them, of whom it is witnessed, that he liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthood bee changed, then of necessity must there bee a change of the Law.

13 For hee of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, wherof no man serued at the Altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which Tribe Moyses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest.

16 Which is not made Priest after the Law of the carnall Commandement, but after the power of the endlesse life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the Commandement that went afore, is disannulled, because of the weakness thereof, and unprofitablenesse.

19 For the Law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfect, whereby we draw neere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an oath (for these are made Priests without an oath;

21 But this, hee is made with an oath by him that sayd vnto him, * The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much is Iesus made a surety of a better Testament.

23 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffered to endure by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath an everlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, he is able also perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing he euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmlesse, undefiled, separate from sinners; and made higher then the heauens;

27 Which needed not daily as those high Priests to offer vp Sacrifice, first for his owne finnes, & then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offered by himselfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men high Priests, which haue infirmities: but the word of the oath that was since the Lawe, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

was first made after the Law was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternall oath was then revealed vnto the world,

CHAP. VIII.

He proueth the abalishing as well of the Leuiticall Priesthood, as of the old Covenant by the spiritual and euerslasting Priesthood of Christ, 8 And by the New Covenant.

Now of the things which wee haue spoken, this is the summe, that wee haue such an hie Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the Throne of the Moste in heauens,

2 And is a minister of the Sanctuary, and of the true Tabernacle, which the Lord sight, and not man.

3 For every high Priest is ordained to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessity, that this man should haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seeing there are Priests that according to the Law offer gifts.

5 Who serue vnto the patterne & shadow of heauenly things, as Moses was warned by God, when he was about to finish the Tabernacle. * He, said he, that thou make all things according to the patterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our high Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, inas much as he is the Mediator of a better Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bin faultlesse, no place should haue bin sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them, hee saith, * Behold, the dayes will come, saith the Lord, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda, a new Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel. After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will be mercifull to their unrighteousnesse, and I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he saith, A new Testament, hee hath abrogate the olde: now that which is disannulled and waxed old, is ready to banish away.

14 And for this cause is he the Mediator of the new Testament, that through death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

15 And for where a Testament is, there must bee the death of him that made the Testament.

16 For the Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is aliue.

17 Therefore, neither was the first ordained without blood.

18 Christ the true and eternall Priest offered his owne blood, which was most holy and pure: the Levitical Priest offered yearly, and therefore did only represent the true holines: but Christ by one only sacrifice hath made holy for ever all them that beleue.

Exod. 24. 8.

q Albeit there is but one sacrifice, which is Christ himselfe once offered, yet because this true and eternall sacrifice is compared with all those which were figurative, and is more sufficient then all they, therefore he calleth it in the plural number, Sacrifices.

Or, paterne.

r Therefore to make any other offering or sacrifice for sinne after that Christs body was once offered, is blasphemie.

f Which is the latter dayes when Christ came.

Rom. 5. 8.

e Of the elect.

h That is, without a sacrifice for sinne, or sinne abolished.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to the people according to the Law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water and purple wooll and hyssope, and sprinkled both the booke, and all the people.

20 Saying This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreover, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heavenly things should be purified with such things: but the heavenly things themselves are purified with better sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places that are made with hands, which are similitudes of the true Sanctuary: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs.

25 Not that he should offer himselfe often, as the high Priest entred into the holy place euery yeere with other blood.

26 For then must he haue often suffered since the foundation of the world: but now in the end of the world hath hee appeared once to put away sin, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shall once die, and after that cometh the iudgement.

28 So Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of many, and vnto them that looke for him, shall hee appeare the second time without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

The old Law had no power to cleanse away sin, but Christ did it with offering of his body once for all. And his invitation to receive the goodnesse of God thankfully, with patience and steadfast faith.

For the Law hauing the shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices which they offer yeere by yeere continually, sanctifie the consciences therunto.

For would they not then haue ceased to haue beere offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere.

For it is impossible that the blood of buls and goats should take away sinnes.

Wherefore when hee cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not: but a body hast thou ordained me.

In burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

Then I said, Lo, I come, (In the beginning of the booke it is written of mee) that I should doe thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law.)

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to doe thy will, O God, he taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, even by the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

11 And euery Priest appeareth daily ministering, and oft times offereth one manner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, sitteth for euer at the right hand of God, 13 And from henceforth carrieth till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For with one offering hath he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the Testament that I will make vnto them, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their heart, and in their minds I will write them.

17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these things is, there is no more offering for sinne.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Iesus we may be bold to enter in to the holy place.

20 By the new and liuing way, which hee hath prepared for vs, through the vaille, that is, his flesh:

21 And seeing we haue an hie Priest, which is over the house of God, 22 Let vs draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, sprinkled in our hearts from an euill conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs keepe the profession of our hope without mauering (for hee is faithfull that promised.)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes,

25 Not forsaking the fellowship that wee haue among our selues, as the manner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because ye see that the day draweth neere.

26 For if wee sinne willingly after that wee haue receiued the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is, and a commendation of the same. 6 Without faith we cannot please God. 16 The steadfast beliefe of the Fathers in the old time.

Now faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not seene.

2 For by it our Elders were well reported of.

3 Through faith wee understand that the world was ordeined by the word of God, so that the things which we see, are not made of things which did appeare.

4 By faith Abel offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, by the which he obtained witnes that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: by the which faith also, he being dead, yet speaketh.

5 By faith was Enoch taken away, that he should not see death, neither was he found: for God had taken him away: for before he was taken away, hee was reported of that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for hee that commeth to God, must beleeue that God is, and that hee is a rewarder of them that seeke him.

7 By faith Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not seene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the saving of his household, through the which Arke hee condemned the world, and was made heire of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to go out into a place, which he should afterward receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whither hee went.

9 By faith hee abode in the land of promise, as in a strange contrey, as one that dwelt in tents with Isaac and Jacob heires with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city hauing a foundation, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith Sara also receiued strength to conceiue seed, and was deliuered of a childe, when she was past age, because shee hadged him faithfully which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang there of one, euen of one which was dead, so many as the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of the sea those which is innumerable.

13 All these dyed in faith, and receiued not the promises, but saw them afarre off, and beleeued them, and receiued them thankfully, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a countrey.

15 And if they had bene minded of that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is, an heauenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for hee hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith Abraham offered by Isaac, when he was tryed, and hee that had receiued the promises, offered his onely begotten Sonne.

18 (To whom it was sayd, * In Isaac shall thy seed be called)

19 For he considered that God was able to raise him by euen from the dead: from whence he receiued him also after a sort.

20 By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith, Jacob when hee was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Ioseph, and leaving on the end of his traffe, worshipped God.

22 By faith Ioseph when hee died, made mention of the departing of the child: in of Israel, & gaue commandement of his bones.

23 By faith Moses when he was borne, was hid three moneths of his parents, because they saw hee was a proper childe, neither feared they the Kings commandement.

24 By faith Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter.

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasure

t For we are all one body together,

p pleasures of sinnes for a season,

26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsooke Egypt, and feared not the fiercenesse of the king: for he endured as he that saw him which is invisible.

28 Through faith he ordeined p^r Passouer, and the effusion of blood, lest he that destroyed the first borne, should touch them.

29 By faith they^r passed thorow the red Sea, as by dry land, which when the Egyptians had assayed to doe, they were drowned.

30 By faith the^r walles of Iericho fell downe, after they were compassed about seuen dayes.

31 By faith the harlot^r Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, when^r she had receiued the spies peaceably.

32 And what shall I more say: for the time would be too short for me to tel of^r Gedeon, of^r Barak, and of^r Sampson, and of^r Iephth, also of^r David, and Samuel, and of the Prophets:

33 Which through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained the^r promises, stopped the mouthes of Lyons, 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, of weakes were made strong, waded vallant in battell, turned to flight the armies of the aliantes.

35 The women receiued their dead raised to life, other also were racked, and would not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better resurrection.

36 And others haue bene tryed by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bonds and prisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewn asunder, they were tempted, they were slaine with the sword, they wandered vp and down in shooles skinnes, and in goats skins, being destitute, afflicted, and tormented:

38 Whom the world was not worthy of: they wandered in wildernesses, and mountaines, and denues, and caues of the earth.

39 And these all through faith obtained good report, and receiued^r not the promise, 40 God prouiding a better thing for vs than they: without vs should not bee made perfect.

CHAP. XII.

1 An exhortation to bee patient and steadfast in trouble and aduersitie, vpon hope of euerslasting reward. 25 A commendation of the New Testament above the Old.

Wherefore^r let vs also, seeing that we are compassed with so great a cloud of witnesses, cast away every thing that^r presseth downe, and the sinne that^r hangereth so fast on: let vs runne with patience the race that is set before vs,

2 Looking vnto Iesus the author and^r finisher of our faith, who for the ioy that was set before him, endured the crosse, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against of sinners, least ye should be wearied, and faint in your minds.

4 We haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striving against^r sinne.

5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children, ^r By sinne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loueth, he chasteneth: and he scourgeth every sonne that hee receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God offereth himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it, whome the Father challeneth not?

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not^r sonnes.

9 Wherefore, we haue had the fathers of our^r bodies which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: should we not much rather be in subiection vnto the Father of^r spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that we might bee partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastising for the present seemeth to be poyous, but grievous: but afterward it bringeth the quiet fruit of righteousness, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your hands which hang downe, and your weak knees, 13 And make straight steps vnto your feet, lest that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holinesse, without the which no man shall see the Lord.

15 Take heed that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no^r root of bitterness spring vp and trouble you, lest thereby many be defiled.

16 Let there be no fornicator, or prophane person as^r Elau, which for a portion of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward also when he would haue inherited the blessing he was reiected: for he found no place to^r repentance, though he sought the blessing with tears.

18 For ye are not come vnto the^r mount that^r might bee touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blackenesse and darknesse, and tempest,

The * generall Epistle of Iames.

THE ARGUMENT.

Iames the Apostle and sonne of Alphaeus wrote this Epistle to the Jewes which were converted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countreys, and therefore hee exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not to bee partiall, neither to boast of an idle faith, faith, but to declare a true faith by liuely fruits, to auoyd ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to viter their faults when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

2 He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble. 6 To be frequent in prayer with stedfast beliefe. 17 To looke for all good things from aboue. 21 To forsake all vice, and thankesfully to receiue the word of God. 22 Not onely hearing it, and speaking of it, but to doe there-after indeed. 27 What true religion is.

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and of the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, salutation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when ye fall in to diuers // tentations,

3 * Knowing that the trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

4 And let patience haue her perfect worke, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke wisdom, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberallie, and reproveth no man, and it shall bee giuen him.

6 * But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde and carped away.

7 Neither let that man thinke that hee shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A // wauering minded man is unstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is exalted:

10 Againe, he that is rich, in that hee is made lower: for as the floure of the grasse shall he vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beaute of the fastion of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man fade away in all his // wayes.

12 * Blessed is the man that endureth tentation: for when he is tride, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when he is // stempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot bee tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted, when hee is drawen away by his owne concupiscence, and is entised.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren.

17 Every good // giuing, and every perfect gift is from aboue, & cometh downe from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne will begate he vs with the word of truth, that we should be as the first fruits of his creatures.

19 Therefore my deare brethren, * let every man be swift to heare, slow to speake, Prou. 17. 27. k That is, prompt to learne.

and slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluitie of malitiousnes, and receiue with meekenesse the word that is grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 * And be ye doers of the word, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the word, and doe it not, he is like vnto a man that beholdeth his naturall face in a glasse.

24 For when hee hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediately what manner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect Law of libertie, and continueth therein, he not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and restraineth not his tongue, but deceiveth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherlesse and widowes in their aduersitie, & to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, & to regard the poore as well as the rich. 8 To be loving and mercifull. 14 And not to boast of faith, where no deeds are: 17 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

My brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Jesus Christ in respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a gold ring and in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou there, or sit here vnder my footstole,

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euill thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloued brethren, hath not God chosen the poore of this world, that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which hee promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Doe not the rich oppresse you by tyranny, and doe not they draw you before the iudgement seats?

7 Doe not they blasphemize the worthy name after which ye be named?

8 But if ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, which saith, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

9 * But if ye regard the persons, ye commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressours.

14 What auaieth it, my brethren, though a man saith he hath faith, when he hath no workes? can the faith save him?

15 For if a brother or a sister bee naked and destitute of dailie food,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee giue them not those things which are needfull to the body, what helperth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I haue workes: shew mee thy faith out of thy workes, and I will shew thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God: thou doest will: the deuils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when hee offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not, that the faith wrought with his workes: and through the workes was the faith made perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousness: and hee was called the friend of God.

24 Vse then how that of workes a man is iustified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when shee had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things wee sinne all. * If any man sinne not in word, he is a perfect man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Behold, wee put bits into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and we turne about all their body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they bee so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whither soeuer the gouernour listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great things: behold, how great a thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire; yea, a world of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beasts, and of birds, and of creeping things, and things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnruely euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse wee God euen the Father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send forth at one place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the figge tree, my brethren, bring forth olines, either a vine figges? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweet.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew by good conuersation his workes in meekenesse of wisdom.

14 But if yee haue bitter enuying, and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither bee liars against the trueth.

15 This wisdom descended not from above, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuilish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all manner of euill workes.

17 But the wisdom that is from above, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be intreated, full of mercie and good fruits, without iudging, and without hypocrisy.

18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace, of them that make peace.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Having shewed the cause of all wrong & wickednesse, and also of all graces and goodnesse, 4 Hee exhorteth them to loue God, 7 And submit themselves to him, 11 Not speaking euill of their neighbours, 13 But patiently to depend on Gods promise.

From whence are warres and contentions among you, are they not hence, euen of your lusts, that fight in your members?

3 Ye like and receive not, because ye like amittle, that ye might consume it on your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the amittle of the world is the enemie of God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh himselfe the enemie of God.

5 Doe ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enue?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore saith, God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

7 Submit your selves to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw neere to God, and he will draw neere to you. Cleanse your hands ye sinners, and purge your hearts, ye waucting mindes.

9 Suffer afflictions, and sorrow ye, and weepe: let your laughter bee turned into mourning, and your ioy into heavinesse.

10 Cast downe your selues before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.

11 Speake not euill one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Law, and condemneth the Law: and if thou condemnest the Law, thou art not an obseruer of the Law, but a iudge.

12 There is one Lawgiuer, which is able to saue, and to destroy. Who art thou that iudgeth another man?

13 Goe to now ye that say, To day or to morow we will goe into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gaine.

14 (And yet ye cannot tell what shall be to morow. For what is your life? It is enen a vapour that appeareth for a litle time, and afterward vaniseth away.)

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, and, If wee liue, wee will doe this or that.

16 But now ye reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

17 Therefore, to him that knoweth how to doe wel, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

2 He threatneth the wicked rich men, 7 exhorteth vnto patience, 12 to beware of swearing, 16 one to knowledge his faults to another, 20 and one to labour to bring another to the truth.

Goe to now, ye rich men: weepe, and mourne for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

2 Your riches are corrupt, and your garments are motheaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered, and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire.

4 Ye haue heaped by treasure for the last dayes.

5 Behold, the hire of the laborers, which haue reaped your fieldes (which is of you kept backe by fraud) cryeth, and the cryes of them which haue reaped, are entred into the eares of the Lord of hosts.

6 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse, ye haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

7 Ye haue condemned and haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

8 Be patient therefore, brethren, vnto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, vntill he receiue the former, and the latter rain.

9 Be ye also patient therefore, and settle your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth neere.

10 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye bee condemned: behold, the iudge standeth before the doore.

11 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an example of suffering aduersity, & of long patience, which haue spoken in the Name of the Lord.

12 Behold, we count them blessed which endure. Ye haue heard of the patience of Job, and haue knowen what end the Lord made. For the Lord is very pittifull and mercifull.

13 But before all things, my brethren, sweare not, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other othe: but let your yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest ye fall into condemnation.

14 Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merrie? Let him sing.

15 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoynt him with oyle in the Name of the Lord.

16 And the prayer of faith shall saue the sicke, and the Lord shall raise him vp: and if he haue committed sinne, it shall be forgiven him.

17 Acknowledge your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may bee healed: for the prayer of a righteous man auayleth much, if it bee fervent.

18 Elias was a man subiect to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for three yeeres and sixe moneths.

19 And he prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

20 Brethren, if any of you haue erred from the truth, and some man hath conuerted him, 21 Let him know that he which hath conuerted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, and shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

He exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselves, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heavenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God revealed to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holinesse of life. And to the intent that this faith should not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole world, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue themselves. And because it is appointed for all that are godly to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserveth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselves, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie over the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a lively hope, 7 and how faith must be tryed, 10 that the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of old. 13 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, forasmuch as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

Peter an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to the strangers that dwell heere and there throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father unto sanctification of the spirit, through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace & peace be multiplied unto you.

3 Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten vs againe vnto a lively hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God, through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the last time:

6 Wherein ye reioyce, though now for a season (if neede require) ye are in heaviness, through manifold tentations,

7 That the tryall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perissheth (though it be tried with fire) might be found vnto your praise, and honour, and glorie, at the appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom ye haue not seene: and yet loue him, in whom now, though ye see him not, yet doe you beleue, and reioyce with ioy vnspeakeable and glorious, a Which were Jewes, to whom he was appointed to be an Apostle.

b The free election of God is the efficient cause of our saluation, the materiall cause is Christs obedience, our effectual calling is the formal cause, and the final cause is our sanctification.

Or, unto obedience.

c To wit, of Christ.

2. Cor. 1. 3. ephes. 1. 3.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was revealed, that not vnto themselves, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to behold.

13 Wherefore, gird by the loynes of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former lusts of your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conuersation, 24 For all flesh is as grasse, & all the glory of man is as the flower of grasse. The grasse withereth, and the flower falleth away.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth them to lay aside all vice, 4 shewing that Christ is the foundation whereupon they build. 9 The excellent state of Christians. 11 He prayeth them to abstaine from fleshy lustes. 13 To obey the rulers. 18 How seruants should behaue themselves toward their masters. 20 He exhorteth to suffer after the ensample of Christ.

Wherefore laying aside all malitiousnes, and all guile and dissimulation, and enuy, and all euill speaking,

2 As new borne babes, desire the sincere milke of the word, that yee may grow thereby,

3 If so be that ye haue tasted how bountifull the Lord is.

4 To whom yee come as vnto a liuing stone disallowed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 And yee as liuely stones be made a spirituall house, an holy Priesthood to offer by spirituall sacrifices acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

6 Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture, Behold, I put in Sion a chiefe corner stone, elect and precious: and he that belongeth therein, shall not be ashamed.

7 Unto you therefore which beseege, it is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a stone to stumble at, and a rock of offence, euen to them which stumble at the word being disobedient vnto which thing they were euen ordained.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal Priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people, that ye should shew forth the vertues of him that hath called you out of darknesse into his marvellous light.

10 Which in time past were not a people, yet are now the people of God, which in time past were not vnder mercy, but now haue obtained mercy.

11 Dearely beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which fight against the soule,

12 And haue your conuersation honest among the Gentiles, that they which speake euill of you as of euill doers, may by your good workes which they shall see, glorifie

God in the day of the visitation.

13 Submit your selues vnto all manner ordinance of man for the Lords sake, whether it be vnto the King, as vnto the superior, 14 Or vnto Governours, as vnto them that are sent of him for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men, 16 As free, and not as hauing the liberty for a cloke of malitiousnesse, but as the seruants of God.

17 Honour all men: love brotherly fellowship: feare God: honour the King.

18 Seruants, be subiect to your masters with all feare, not only to the good and courteous, but also to the froward.

19 For this is thankeworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure griefe, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what praise is it, if when yee be buffeted for your faults, ye take it patiently: but and if when ye doe well, ye suffer wrong, and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For hereunto ye are called: for Christ also suffered for vs, leauing vs an ensample that ye should follow his steps.

22 Who did no sinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when he was reviled, reviled not againe, when he suffered, he threatened not, but committed it to him thatudgeth righteously.

24 Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that we being deliuered from sinne, should liue in righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheepe going astray: but are now returned vnto the shepheard and bishop of your soules.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind: one suffer with another: loue as brethren: be pitiful: be courteous.

9 Not rendering euill for euill, neither rebuke for rebuke: but contrariwise blessing, knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should be heires of blessing.

10 For if any man long after life, and to see good dayes, let him retrain his tongue from euill, and his lips that they speake no guile.

11 Let him eschew euill and do good: let him seeke peace and follow after it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers: and the face of the Lord is upon them that doe euill.

13 And who is it that will harme you, if ye follow that which is good?

14 Notwithstanding, blessed are ye if ye suffer for righteousness sake. Yea, feare not their feare, neither be troubled.

15 But sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready alwayes to giue an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you,

16 And that with meeknesse & reuerence, hauing a good conscience, that when they speake euill of you, as of euil doers, they may be ashamed, which blame your good conuersation in Christ.

17 For it is better (if the will of God bee so) that ye suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sinnes, the iust for the vniust, that he might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the spirit.

19 By the which he also went, and preached vnto the spirits that are in prison,

20 Which were in time past disobedient, when once the long suffering of God, abode in the dayes of Noe, while the Arke was preparing, wherein few, that is, eight soules were saved in the water.

21 To the which also, the figure that now saueth vs, euen Baptisme agreeeth (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but in that a good conscience maketh request to God) by the resurrection of Iesus Christ.

22 Which is at the right hand of God, gone into heauen, to whom the Angels, and powers, and might are subiect.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hee which wisheth to cease from sinne, 2 To spend no more time in vice, 3 To be sober and apt to pray, 4 To loue each other, 5 To be patient in trouble, 6 To beware that no man suffer as an enuill doer, 7 But as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

As much then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same minde, which is, that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne.

2 That he henceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.

3 For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnes, lusts, drunkennesse, in gluttony, drinkings, and in abominable idolatries;

4 Wherein it seemeth to them strange, that ye runne not with them vnto the same extesse of riot: therefore speake they euill of you.

5 Which shall giue accounts to him, that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospel preached also vnto the dead, that they might be condemned according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God, in the spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand. Be ye therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But aboue all things haue feruent loue among you: for loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 Be ye barbarous one to another without grudging.

10 Let every man, as hee hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, as good disposers of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him talke as the words of God. If any man minister, let him doe it as of the abilitie which God ministereth, that God in all things may be glorified through Iesus Christ, to whom is praye and dominion for euer and euer. Amen.

12 Dearly beloved, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery triall, which is among you, to prooue you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, in as much as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings, that when his glory shall appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 If ye be railed vpon for the name of Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glory, and of God, resteth vpon you: which on their part, is euill spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thiefe, or an euill doer, or as an idle body in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorifie God in this behalfe.

a Our sanctification standeth in two points, in dying to sinne, and liuing to God.

b Or, body. Ephes. 4. 22.

b Although the wicked thinke this Gospel new, & vexa you that embrace it, yet hath it bin preached to them of time past which now are dead, in the intent that they might haue bin condemned, or dead to sinne in the flesh, and also might haue liued to God in the spirit, which two are the effect of the Gospel.

of Peter.

THE PROLOGUE

The effect of the Apostle here, is to exhort them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ to stand to the same vnto the end. He becometh a faithful Lord and Governor.
men moueth them to honor of the sin punishing the hypocrites which, as he himselfe, and increasing his gifts in the godly, wherefore by godly life, he being now almost at deaths doore, exhorreth them to approue their vocation, nor letting their affections be worldly things, as he had oft written vnto them. But lifting their eyes toward heauen, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witness, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophet testified. And lest they should promise to themselves quietnesse by professing the Gospel, he warneth them of the tribulations which they should sustaine by the false teachers, and also by the wicked and uncomely of religion, whose manners and trade becometh filthy, as in a table, aduersing the faithfull only to waite diligently for Christ, but also to behold presently the day of his coming, and to preserve themselves vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

For as much as the power of God hath giuen them all things appertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to 9 Wherefore resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in you, as in your brethren which are in the world.

10 And the God of all grace, which hath called vs vnto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye haue suffered a little, make you perfect, confirme, strengthen, and stablish you.

11 To him bee glory and dominion for repeating and testifying how that this

g The Greeke word signifieth him that naturally cannot see, except he be led by the eyes. So Peter calleth such as cannot see heavenly things, which are farre off, purblind, or sandblind. h Albeit it be sure in it selfe, forasmuch as God cannot change: yet we must confirme it in our selves by the fruits of the Spirit, knowing that the purpose of God is electeth, calleth, sanctifieth and iustifieth vs. i For God will ever uphold you. k In this body, 1. 7 And with godliness, brotherly kindness: and with brotherly kindness, love.

8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle nor unfruitfull in the knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For he that hath not these things, is blinde, and cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer fall.

11 For by this means an entering shall be ministered vnto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdome of our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though charye haue knowledge, and be established in the present truth.

13 For I thinke it mete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you up by putting you in remembrance.

14 Seeing I know that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 I will endeavour therefore alwayes, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For wee followed not flatterable fables, when wee opened vnto you the power, and coming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes wee saw his glorious testie.

17 For hee receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice wee heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holy mount.

19 And haue also a most sure word of the prophets, to the which ye doe well that ye take heed, as vnto a light that shinerh in a darke place, vntill the day dawns, and the day starre arise in your hearts.

20 So that ye first know this, that no prophesie in the Scripture is of any priuate motion.

21 For the prophesie came not in of the time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

CHAPIL

He prophesiech of false teachers, and sheweth their punishment.

B ut there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord that hath bought them: and bring vpon them selfe swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their damnable wayes, by whom the way of truth shall be euilly spoken of.

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained wordes make merchandise of you: whose iudgement long agoe is not farre off, and their damnation sleepeth not.

4 For if God spared not the Angels that had sinned, but cast them downe into hell, and deliuered them into chaines of darknes, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither spared he the old world, but laued it: for hee hath spared the right person a preacher of righteousness, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly.

6 And turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them, and ouerthrow them, and made them an example vnto them that after should liue vngodly.

7 And deliuered iust Lot bered with the vncleane conversation of the wicked.

8 For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deeds.

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to reserve the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to be punished.

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of uncleannesse, and despite the gouernement, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignite.

11 These shall the Angels of the Lord take away: and shall be cast into the furnace of fire: because they haue despised their Lord.

12 But these, as brute beasts, I haue made to be taken, and destroyed, like vnto beasts of the field, of those things which they know not, and shall perish through their owne corruption.

13 And shall receiue the wages of vnrightheousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue delictiously for a season. Whose paye they are and blots: delighting themselves in their deceiuing, in leading with you.

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease to sinne, beguiling unstable soules: they haue hearts exercised with couetousnes, cursed children.

15 Fortheforsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of Balaam, the sonne of Bolo, which loved the wages of vnrightheousnes.

16 But hee was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the dumb asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the foolishnesse of the Prophet.

17 These are wells without water, and cloudes carried about with a tempest, to whom the blacke darknesse is reserved for euer.

18 For in speaking swelling wordes of vanitie, they beguile with wantonnesse through the lusts of the flesh them that were

19 Promising vnto them liberty, and are themselves the merchants of corruption: for of whomsoever a man is overcome, even vnto the same is he in bondage.

20 For if they, after they haue escaped from the slittinnes of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord, and of the Saviour Iesus Christ, are yet tangled againe therein and overcome, the later end is worse with them then the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them, not to haue knowne the way of righteousness, then after they haue knowen it to turne from the holy Commandement giuen vnto them.

22 But it is come vnto them according to the true prouerbe, The dog is returned to his owne vomite, and, The sow that was washed, to the wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth the impietie of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7 After what sort the ende of the world shall be. 8 That they prepare themselves therunto. 16 Who they are which abuse the writings of S. Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures. 18 Concluding with eternall thanks to Christ Iesus.

This second Epistle I now write vnto you, beloued, wherewith I write vnto and warne your pure minds,

2 To call to remembrance the wordes which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Saviour.

3 This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lusts,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly knowe not, that the heauens were of old, and the earth that was of the water, and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Therefore the world that then was, perished, overflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in store, and reserved vnto the day of Iudgement.

8 Dearly beloued, bee not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres are one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slacknesse) but is patient toward vs, and would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a noyse, & the element shall melt with heate, & the earth with the workes that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these things must be dissolved, what manner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlinesse, 12 Looking for, & hastning vnto the coming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with heate?

13 But wee looke for new heauens, and a new earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that yee looke for such things, be diligent that yee may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisdome giued him, wrote to you,

16 As one that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are hard to be vnderstood, which they that are vnlearned and unstable pervert, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloued, seeing yee knowe these things before, beware lest ye be also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne steadfastnesse.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Saviour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for euermore. Amen.

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

THE ARGUMENT.

First that Saine Iohn had sufficiently declared how that our whole saluation doth consist only in Christ, lest that any man should thereby take a boldnesse to sinne, hee sheweth that no man can beleeue in Christ, vntill he doth endeuour himselfe to keepe his commandements, which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, and to trie the spirits. Last of all he doth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuosa sus Christ the iust.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if wee keepe his Commandements.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his Commandements, is a liar, and the truerh is not in him.

5 But he that keepeth his word, in him is the loue of God perfect in deede, hereby we know that we are in him.

6 He that saith hee remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 But now, I write no new commandment vnto you: but an olde commandement which ye haue had from the beginning: the olde commandement is the word, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe, a new commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith that hee is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenesse vntill this time.

10 We that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of falling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, and walketh in darkenesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 A little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, Fathers, because ye haue known him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, young men, because ye haue overcome the wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue known the Father. I haue written vnto you, Fathers, because ye haue known him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue overcome the wicked.

15 Loue not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loue the world, the loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but hee that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But they came to passe, that it might appeare that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an ointment from him, that is a holy, & ye haue known all things.

21 I haue not written vnto you because ye know not the truerh: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truerh.

22 Who is a liar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is: Christ the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Whosoever denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning.
If that which ye haue heard from the beginning shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternall life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anointing which he receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, & it is true and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, a little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may see him, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye knowe that hee is righteous, know ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

C H A P. III.

1 The singular loue of God toward vs, 7 And how we againe ought to loue one another.

Behold what loue the Father hath shewed Bon vs, that wee should bee called the sonnes of God: for this cause the world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearly beloved, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when he shall appeare, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye know that he appeared that he might take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doth righteousness, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuil: for the deuil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the Son of God, that he might looke the works of the deuil.

9 Whosoever is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seede remaineth in him, neither can hee sinne, because hee is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God known, and the children of the deuil: whosoever doth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that yee heard from the beginning, that wee should loue one another.

12 Not as Cain which was of the wicked, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his owne works were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Marvell not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We know that we are translated from death unto life, because wee loue the brethren: we that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother, is a manlayer: and ye know that no manlayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 Whereby haue we perceived loue, that he layd downe his life for vs: therefore wee ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 And whosoever hath this worldes good, seeth his brother haue need, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in deed and in truth.

19 For thereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 And whatsoever we aske, we receiue of him, because wee keepe his commandments, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 This is then his Commandement, that we belue in the Name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commandement.

24 For he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in vs, euen by the Spirit which he hath giuen vs.

C H A P. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God may be knowne from the spirit of error. 7 Of the loue of God, and of our neighbours.

Dearly beloved, belue not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shall yee know the Spirit of God, Every spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And every spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whom yee haue heard, how that hee should come, and now already he is in the world.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue cometh of God, and every one that loveth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: For God is loue.

9 In this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the world, that wee might liue through him.

10 Wherein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 No man hath seene God at any time, If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby know wee that wee dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue seene and do testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to bee the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And wee haue known, and belueed the 18 There is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath painefulnes: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.

20 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a liar: for how can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath scene, loue God whom he hath not scene?

21 And this commandement haue wee of him, that hee which loueth God, should loue his brother also.

CHAPTER. IV.

1. 10. 13 Of the fruits of faith. 14. 30 The office
authoritie, and denimitie of Christ. 1. Against images.

Whoformer beleueth that Iesus is the Christ, is borne of God, and euery one that loueth him which begat, loueth him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this we know that we loue the children of God, when we loue God, and keepe his commandments.

3 For this is the loue of God, that we keepe his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For all that is borne of God overcometh the world: and this is the victorie that ouercometh the world, euen our faith.

5 Who is it that ouercometh the world, but he which beleueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by water and blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit, that beareth witnesse: for the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three which beare record in the earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God, which hee testified of his Sonne.

10 Hee that beleueth in the Sonne of God, hath the witnesse in himselfe: he that beleueth not God, hath made him a liar, because he beleueth not the record, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the record, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life, and hee that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you that beleue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that ye may know that ye haue eternall life, and that ye may beleue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance that we haue in him, that if wee aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

15 And if we know that hee heareth vs, whatsoeuer wee aske, wee know that wee haue the petitions that wee haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sinne that is not vnto death, let him aske, & he shall giue him life for them that sinne not vnto death. There is a sinne vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

17 All vnrightheousnes is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We know that whosoever is borne of God, sinneth not: but hee that is begotten of God, keepeth himselfe, and the wicked toucheth him not.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickednes.

20 But wee knowe that the Sonne of God is come, and hath giuen vs a minde to know him, which is true: and we are in him that is true, that is, in his Sonne Iesus Christ: this same is very God and eternall life.

The second Epistle of Iohn.

Hee writeth vnto a certaine Ladie. 4 reioycing that her children walke in the truth. 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue. 7 Warneth them to beware of such deceiuers: as denie that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. 8 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 and to haue nothing to doe with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Saviour.

known the truth,

2 For y truths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord

Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, with truth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I found of thy children, walking in truth, as wee haue receiued a commandment of the Father.

5 And now beseech I thee Ladie, (not as writing a new commandment vnto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that we should walke after his commandments. This commandment is, that as yee haue heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entred into the world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is such one, is a deceiuer and an Antichrist.

8 Look to yourselues, that we d Iole not the things which we haue done, but that we may receiue a full reward.

9 Whosoener transgresseth, & abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that continueth in y doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Sonne.

10 If there come any vnto you, and bring not this doctrine, receiue him not to house, neither bid him f God speed.

11 For hee that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his euill deedes. Although I had many things to write vnto you, yet I would not write with paper and inke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.

12 The sonnes of thine || elect after greet thee, Amen. f Hau nothing to do with him, neither shew him any signe of familiarity or acquaintance.

The third Epistle of Iohn.

3 He is glad of Gaius that hee walketh in the trueth, 8 Exhorteth them to be louing vnto the poore Christians in their persecution, 9 sheweth the vnkinde dealing of Diotrephes, 12 And the good report of Demetrius.

He Elder vnto the beloued Gaius whom I lone in the trueth.

2 Beloued, I wish chiefly that thou prosperedst & faredst well, as thy soule prospereth.

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the trueth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the trueth.

4 I haue no greater ioy then this, that is, to heare that my sonnes walke in veritie.

5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully what soeuer thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers.

6 Which bare witness of thy loue befoze the Churches, whom if thou bringest on their iourney, as it becometh according to God, thou shalt doe well.

7 Because that for his names sake they went footeth and tooke nothing of the Gentiles.

8 Wee ought therefore to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the trueth.

9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them receineth vs not.

10 Therefore if I come, I will declare his deedes which he doeth, prating against vs with malicious wordes, and not with content, neither hee himselfe receineth the brethren, but forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the Church.

11 Beloued, follow not that which is euill, but that which is good: hee that doeth well, is of God: but he that doeth euill hath not seene God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: yea, and we our selues beare record, and yee know that our record is true.

13 I haue many things to write: but I will not write inke and pen vnto thee.

14 For I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speake mouth to mouth. Peace bee with thee. The friends salute thee. Greete the friends by name.

Or, known.

The generall Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which goe about to draw away the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willet them to haue no societie with such, whom he ferreteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally, he comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to persevere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

Iude a seruant of Iesus Christ, & brother of James, to them which are called and sanctified of God the Father, and reserved to Iesus Christ:

2 Mercy vnto you, and peace, and loue be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needfull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that yee should earnestly contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was once giuen vnto the Saints.

4 For there are certaine men crept in, which were befoze of olde ordeined to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnes, and denie God the onely Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, forasmuch as ye once knew this, how that the Lord after that hee had deliuered the people out of Egypt, destroyed them afterward, which beleeued not.

6 The Angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath reserved in euermlasting chains vnder darkenesse vnto the iudgement of the great day.

7 As Sodom and Gomorthe, and the cities about them, which in like manner as they did, committed fornication, and followed strange flesh, are set forth for an example, and suffer the vengeance of eternall fire.

The Reuelation of Iohn the Diuine.

THE ARGUMENT.

It is manifest that the holy Ghost would, as it were, gather into this most excellent Book, a summe of those propheties, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the coming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Inerein therefore is liuely set forth the diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption, what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the Ministers, and what things he reproveth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sting like scorpions the members of Christ, shall bee destroyed. But the Lambe Christ shall defend them which beare witness to the trueth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited: and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shall be destroyed by the wrath of God: when as the elect shall giue praise to God for the victory: neuertheless for a season God wil permit this Antichrist, and strumpet vnder color of faire speech, and pleasant doctrine, to deceive the world: wherefore he aduerteth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoid this harlots flatteries and brags, whose ruine without mercy they shall see, and with the heavenly companie sing continuall praises: for the Lambe is married: the word of God hath gotten the victory: Satan that a long time was vntied, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for ever, whereas contrariwise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enjoy perpetuall glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

field as thou seest,

4 And am not purposed to returne into the cite, but to remaine here, and neither to eat nor drinke, but continually to mourne and fast vntill I die.

5 Then left I my purpose wherein I was, and spake to her angrily, and said,

6 Thou foolish woman aboue all other, seest thou not our heavinesse, and what cometh vnto vs?

7 For Ston our mother is all wofull, and is sore afflicted, and mouneth extremely.

8 Seeing wee be all now in heavinesse, and make our moene (for we be all sorrowfull) art thou loyle for our sonne?

9 Demaund the earth, and she shall tell thee that it is she which ought to mourne for the fall of so many that grow vpon her.

10 For from the beginning all men are born of her, and other shall come, and behold, they walke almost all into destruction, and the multitude of them shall be destroyed.

11 Who should then rather mourne, she that hath lost so great a multitude, or thou which art loyle but for one?

12 But if thou wouldest say vnto me, Why mourning is not like the mourning of the earth (for I haue lost the fruit of my wombe, which I brought forth with heavinesse, and bare with sorowes, 13 But the earth is according to the manner of the earth, and the present multitude returneth into her as it came)

14 Then say I vnto thee, As thou hast borne with trauel, so the earth also from the beginning giueth her fruit vnto man, euen to him that laboured her.

15 Now therefore withhold thy sorow in thy selfe, and beare constantly that which cometh vnto thee.

16 For if thou allowest Gods purpose, and receivest his counsell in time, thou shalt be commended therein.

17 Goe thy way then into the cite to thine husband.

18 Then she said vnto mee, I will not, I will not goe into the cite, but here will I die.

19 So I continued to speake more with her, and said,

20 Do not so, but be counselled: for how many fallers hath Ston? Bee of good comfort, because of the sorow of Ierusalem.

21 For thou seest that our Sanctuary is laid waste: our altar is broken downe: our Temple is destroyed.

22 Our Psalterion fainteth, and the song ceaseth, and our mirth is banished away, and the light of our candlestick is quenched, and the Arke of our Couenant is taken away, & our holy things are defiled, and the Name that is called vpon ouer vs, is almost dishonoured, and our children are put to shame, and our Priestes are burnt, and our Leuites are caried into captiuitie, and our virgins are defiled, and our wives rauished, and our righteous men spoiled, and our children destroyed, and our yong men are brought in bondage, and our strong men are become weak.

23 And which is the greatest of all, Ston the seale hath lost her worship: for she is deliuered into the hands of them that hate vs.

24 And therefore shake off thy great beautie, and put away the multitude of thy robes, that the Almighty may be mercifull vnto thee, and that the most High may giue thee rest and ease from thy laboure.

25 And when I was talking with her, her face and beautie shined suddenly, and her countenance was bright, so that I was afraid of her, and mused what it might be.

26 And behold, immediately she cast out a great voice, very fearful, so that the earth shooke at the noise of the woman.

27 And I looked, and behold, the woman appeared vnto mee no more: but there was a cite builded, & a place was shewed from the ground and foundation. Then was I afraid, and cried with a loud voice, and said, 28 Where is Ariel the Angel * which came to me at the first: for he hath caused me to come into many and deepe considerations, and mine end is turned into corruption, and my prayer to rebuke.

29 And as I was speaking these words, behold, he came vnto me, and looked vpon me.

30 And for, I lay as one dead, and mine vnderstanding was altered, and he took me by the right hand and comforted me, and set me vpon my feet, and said vnto me, 31 What aileth thee? and why is thine vnderstanding vered? and the vnderstanding of thine heart? and wherefore art thou loyle?

32 And I sayd, Because thou hast forsaken mee, and I haue done * according vnto thy words: I went into the field, and there haue I sene things, and see that I am not able to expresse.

33 Then said he vnto me, Stand by manly, and I will giue thee exhortation.

34 Then said I, Speake vnto me, my Lord, and forsake me not, lest I die through rashnesse.

35 For I haue sene that I know not, and heare that I doe not know.

36 What is mine vnderstanding deceived, or doeth my mind being haustie, erre?

37 Now therefore, I beseech thee, that thou wilt shew thy seruant of this wonder.

38 Then he answered mee, and said, Heare me, and I will enforme thee, and tell thee wherefore thou art afraid: for the most High hath reuealed many secret things vnto thee.

39 He hath sene thy good purpose, that thou art loyle continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Ston.

40 This therefore is the vnderstanding of the vision, which appeared vnto thee a little while agoe.

41 Thou sawest a woman mourning, and thou beganst to comfort her.

42 But now seest thou the likenes of the woman no more, but sheere appeared vnto thee a cite builded.

43 And whereas she told thee of the death of her sonne, this is the solution,

44 This woman, which thou sawest, shee is Ston: and whereas she told thee (euen she which thou seest now as a cite builded)

45 And as touching that shee said vnto thee, that she was barren thirtie yerres, this was concerning that there was then thirtie yerres where in there was no offering offered in her.

46 But after thirtie yerres, Salomon build the citie, and offered offerings: then bave the barren a sonne.

47 And whereas she told thee, that she nourished him with labour, that was the inhabiting of Jerusalem.

48 But whereas she told thee that her sonne, as his chance was, died when she came into her chamber, that is the fall that is come to Jerusalem.

49 And when thou shalt see her like one that mourned for her sonne, thou beganest to comfort her: of these things which have chanced, these are to be opened unto thee.

50 For now the most High seeth, that thou art loy in thy mind, and because thou sufferest with all thine heart for her: he shewed thee the clearnesse of her glory, and the fairenesse of her beauty.

51 And therefore I bade thee remaine in the field where no house was built.

52 For I knew that the most High would shew these things unto thee.

53 Therefore I commanded thee to goe into the field where no foundation nor building is.

54 For the worke of mans building cannot stand in that place where the Citie of the most High should be shewed.

55 And therefore feare not, neither let thine heart be afraid, but go in, and see the beautie and greatnesse of the building as much as thou art able to see with thine eyes.

56 And after this shalt thou heare as much as thine eares may comprehend.

57 For thou art blessed above many, and art called with the most High among the few.

58 But to morrow at night thou shalt remaine here,

59 And the most High shall shew thee visions of high things, which the most High will doe unto them that dwell upon earth, in the last dayes. So I slept the same night and another, as hee had commanded mee.

CHAP. XI.

1 The vision of an Eagle cimming forth of the Sea, and of her feathers. 37 Of a Lyon cimming out of the Forrest.

Then saw I a dreame, and behold, there came up from the sea an Eagle, which had twelve feathered wings, and three heads.

2 And I saw, and behold, she spread her wings over all the earth, and all the winds of the ayre blew on her, and gathered themselves.

3 And I beheld, and one of her feathers grew out other contrary feathers, and they became little feathers and small.

4 But her heads remained still, and the head in the mids was greater then the other heads, yet rested it with them.

5 Moreover, I saw that the Eagle flew with his feathers, and reigned upon earth, and over them that dwell therein.

6 And I saw that all things under heauen were subject unto her, and no man spake against her, nor one creature upon earth.

7 I saw also that the Eagle stood by upon her claws, and spake to her feathers, saying,

8 Watch not all together; sleepe every one in his owne place, and watch by course.

9 But let the heads be preferred for the last.

10 Nevertheless, I saw that y^e voice went not out of her heads, but from the mids of her body.

11 Then I numbred her contrary feathers, and behold, there were eight of them.

12 And I looked, and behold, upon the right side there arose one feather, and reigned over all the earth.

13 And when it had reigned, the end of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more. So the next stood up, and reigned; it continued a long time.

14 And when it had reigned, the end of it came also, and as the first, so it appeared no more.

15 Then there came a voice unto it, and said,

16 Heare thou that hast kept the earth so long, this I say unto thee, before thou beginnest to appeare no more.

17 There shall none after thee attaine unto thy time, neither to the halfe thereof.

18 Then arose the third, and reigned as the other afore, and it appeared no more also.

19 So came it to all the others one after another, so that every one reigned, and then appeared no more.

20 Then I looked, and behold, in processe of time the feathers that followed, stood up on the right side, that they might rule also, and some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more.

21 For some of them were set up, but ruled not.

22 After this I looked, & behold, the twelve feathers appeared no more, nor the two wings.

23 And there was no more upon the Eagles body, but two heads that rested, and fixe wings.

24 Then saw I also, that two wings divided themselves from the fir, and remained under the head that was upon the right side: for the four continued in their place.

25 So I looked, and behold, the underwings thought to set up themselves, and to have the rule.

26 Then was there one set up, but shortly it appeared no more.

27 And the second were sooner gone then the first.

28 Then I beheld, and lo, the two that remained, thought also in themselves to reigne.

29 And when they so thought, behold, there awaked one of the heads that were at rest, which was in the mids: for that was greater then the two.

30 And then I saw that the two heads were loyned therewith.

31 And behold, the head was turned with them, that were with it, and did eat up the two underwings that would have reigned.

32 But this head put the whole earth in feare, and bare rule in it, over all those that dwell upon earth, with much labour, and it had the governance of the world, more then all the wings that had bene.

33 After this I looked, and behold, the head that was in the middes, suddenly appeared no more, as did the wings.

34 But the two heads remained, which also ruled likewise upon earth, and over those that dwell therein.

35 And I beheld, and loe, the head upon the right right side droned it that was upon the left side.

26 ¶ Then I heard a voyce which sayd vnto mee, Look before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest.

27 So I saw, and behold, as it were a lyon that roareth, running hastily out of the wood: and I saw that hee sent out a mans voyce vnto the Eagle, and spake, and sayd, 28 Heare thou, I will talke with thee, and the most High shall say vnto thee.

29 Art not thou that, that of the foure beasts remainest, whom I made to reigne in my world, that by them the end of times might come,

40 And the fourth is come, and hath overcome all the beasts that were past, and hath power ouer the world with great fearefulness, and ouer the whole compasse of the earth with most wicked oppression, and that dwelleth so long time in all the world with deceit?

41 For thou hast not iudged the world with truth.

42 Seeing thou hast troubled the meeke, thou hast hurt the peaceable, and thou hast loued lyers, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruite, and hast cast downe the walles of such as did thee no harme,

43 Therefore is thy wrongfull dealing come vnto the most High, and thy pride vnto the Highie.

44 The most High also hath looked vpon the proud times, and behold, they are ended, and their abominations are fulfilled.

45 Therefore appeare no more, thou Eagle, no thine horrible wings, no thy wicked feathers, no thy malicious heads, and thy wicked claws, no all thy vaine body, 46 That all the earth may be refreshed, and come againe, as one deliuered from thy violence, and that shee may hope for the iudgement and mercy of him that made her.

CHAP. XII.

The declaration of the former visions.

As when the lyon spake these words to the Eagle, I saw,

2 And behold, the head that had the vpper hand appeared no more, neither did the foure wings appeare any more, that came to it, and set vp themselves to reigne, whose kingdome was small and full of vppozes.

3 And I saw, and behold, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the Eagle was burnt, so that y^e earth was in great feare. Then I awaked out of the trouble and trance of my minde, and from the great feare, and sayd vnto my spirit,

4 Loe, this hast thou done vnto mee in that thou searchest out the wayes of the most High.

5 Loe, yet am I weary in my mind, and very weak in my spirit, and little strength is there in me, for the great feare that I receiued this night.

6 Therefore now, will I beseech the most High, that he will comfort me vnto the end.

7 And I said, O Lord, Lord, if I haue found grace before thy sight, and if I am iustified with thee before many other, and if my prayer in deed be come vp before thy face,

8 Comfort me, and shew me thy seruant the interpretation and difference of this horrible sight, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soule,

9 Seeing thou hast iudged mee worthy to shew me the last times.

10 ¶ Then he said vnto me, This is the interpretation of this vision, 11 The Eagle whom thou sawest come vp from the sea, is the * kingdome which was seene in the vision of thy brother Daniel. Dan. 7. 7.

12 But it was not expounded vnto him: therefore now I declare it vnto thee.

13 Behold, the dayes come, that there shall rise vp a kingdome vpon the earth, and it shall be feared aboute all kingdomes that were before it.

14 In it shall twelue kings reigne one after another,

15 Whereof the second shall begin to reigne, and shall haue more time then the twelue.

16 And this doe the twelue wings signifie, which thou sawest.

17 As for the voyce that thou hearest speake, and that thou sawest not go out from the heads, but from the mids of the body thereof, this is the interpretation,

18 That after the time of that kingdome, there shall arise great strife, and it shall be in danger to fall, but it shall not then fall, but shall be restored againe to his beginning.

19 Concerning the eight underwings, which thou sawest hang vnto her wings, this is the interpretation, 20 In him shall arise eight kings, whose time shall be but small, and their peeres swift, and two of them shall perish.

21 But when the mid time cometh, there shall be foure kept a time, whiles his time beginneth to come, that it may be ended, but two shall be kept vnto the end.

22 And whereas thou sawest three heads resting, this is the interpretation,

23 In his last dayes shall the most High raise vp three kingdomes, and shall call againe many things into them, and they shall haue the domination of the earth,

24 And of those that dwell therein, with much griefe aboute all those that were before them: therefore are they called the heads of the Eagle:

25 For they shall accomplish his wickednesse, and shall finish his last end.

26 And whereas thou sawest that the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die vpon his bed, and yet with paine.

27 For the two that remaine, the two shall deuoure them.

28 For the word of the one shall deuoure the other: but at the last shall hee fall by the sword himselfe.

29 And whereas thou sawest two underwings, that went off toward the head, which was on the right side, this is the interpretation,

30 These are they whom the most High hath preferred for their end, whose kingdome is little, and full of trouble as thou sawest.

31 And the Lion whom thou sawest rising vp out of the wood and roaring, and speaking vnto the Eagle, and rebuking her for her vnrighousnesse with all the words that thou hast heard,

32 This is the winde which the most High hath kept for them, and for their wickednes vnto the end, and hee shall repproue them, and cast befoze them their spoyles.

33 For hee shall set them aloue in the iudgement, and shall rebuke them and correct them.

34 For he will deliuer the residue of my people by affliction, which are preserued vpon my borders, and hee shall make them ioyfull, vntill the coming of the day of iudgement, whereof I haue spoken vnto thee from the beginning.

35 This is the dreame that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations.

36 Thou onely hast bene meete to know this secret of the most High.

37 Therefore write all these things that thou hast seene, in a booke, and hide them,

38 And teach them the wise of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and keepe these secrets.

39 But waite thou here yet seuen dayes moe, that it may be shewed thee whatsoeuer it pleaseth the most High to declare vnto thee: & with that he went his way.

40 And when all the people perceiued, that that the seuen dayes were past, and I not come againe into the citie, they gathered them all together, from the least vnto the most, and came vnto me, and spake vnto me, saying,

41 What haue wee offended thee: or what euill haue wee done against thee, that thou forsakest vs, and sittest in this place?

42 For of all the people thou onely art left vs as a grape of the vine, & as a candle in a darke place, and as an haueu of ship preserued from the tempest.

43 Are not the euills which are come vnto vs, sufficient?

44 If thou then forsake vs, how much better had it beene for vs, that we had beene burnt also as Sion was burnt?

45 For we are no better then they that dyed there: and they wept with a loude voyce. Then answered I them, and sayd, 46 Be of good comfort, O Israel, and be not heauie thou house of Jacob.

47 For the most High hath you in remembrance, and the Almighty hath not forgotten you in temptation.

48 As for me I haue not forsaken you, neither am I departed from you, but am come into this place to pray for the desolation of Sion, that I might seeke mercie for the low estate of your sanctuary.

49 And now goe your way home euery man, and after these dayes will I come vnto you.

50 So the people went their way into the citie as I commanded them:

51 But I remained still in the felde seuen dayes, as he had commaunded me, and did eate onely of the flowers of the felde, and had my meate of the herbes in those dayes.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The vision of a winde coming forth of the sea, 3 Which became a man. 5 His properties and power against his enemies. 21 The declaration of this vision.

AND after the seuen dayes I dreamed a dreame by night.

2 And behold, there arose a winde from the sea, and it moued all the waues thereof.

3 And I looked, and behold, there was a mightie man with the thousandes of heauen: and when he turned his countenance to looke, all the things trembled that were seene vnder him.

4 And when the voyce went out of his mouth, all they burned that heard his voyce, as the earth faileth when it feelerh the fire.

5 After these things I saw, and behold, there was gathered together a multitude of men out of number, from the four winds of heauen, to fight against the man that came out fro the sea.

6 And I looked, and behold, he grained himselfe a great mountaine, and flew vp vpon it.

7 But I would haue seene the countrey or place wherout the hill was grauen, and I could not.

8 I saw after these things, and behold, all they which came to fight against him were sore afrayd, and yet they durst fight.

9 Neuerthelesse, when he saw the fiercenesse of the multitude that came, he lifted not vp his hand: for he held no sword nor any instrument of warre,

10 But onely, as I saw, hee sent out of his mouth, as it had bene a blast of fire, and out of his lips the winde of the flame, and out of his tongue he cast out sparkes and stormes.

11 And they were all mixt together, even this blast of fire, the winde of the flame, and the great storme, & fell with violence vpon the multitude which was prepared to fight, and burnt them vp all, so that of the innumerable multitude there was nothing seene, but onely dust and smell of smoke. When I saw this, I was afrayd.

12 Afterward sawe I the same man come downe from the mountaine, and calling vnto him another peaceable multitude.

13 And there came many vnto him, some with ioyfull countenance, and some with sad: some of them were bound, and some brought of them that were offred: and I was sicke through great feare, and awaked, and said, 14 Thou hast shewed thy seruant these wonders from the beginning, and hast counted me worthy to receiue my prayer.

15 Shew me now therefore the interpretation of this dreame.

16 For thus I consider in mine vnderstanding, What vnto them that shall bee left in those dayes, and much more woe vnto them that are not left behind.

17 For they that were not left, were in heauiness.

18 Now vnderstand I the things that are laid vp in the latter dayes, which shal come both vnto them, and to those that are left behind.

19 Therefore are they come into great perills, and many necessities, as these dreames declare.

20 Yet is it easier, that hee that is in danger should fall into these, and forsee the things to come hereafter, then to passe away as a cloude out of the world.

21 Then answered he me, and sayd, The interpretation of the vision will I shewe thee, and I will open to thee the thing that thou hast required.

22 Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behinde, this is the interpretation.

23 Yet that shal beare the danger in that time, hee shall keepe himselfe. They that bee fallen into danger, are such as haue workes and faith

Doctors and preachers that depart from the truth.

The kingdom of God is hid, and withdrawn from men, and spreadeth not in Realmes, Kingdomes and persons, that did seeme to be as stable in the faith as mountaines.

Isa. 19. 1. 10. 11. Luke 23. 30. u Such men afterward, of what estate soever they be, shall bee desperate, and not able to sustain the weight of God's wrath, but shall continually feare his iudgements.

2 The Spirit is compared to wind, & the doctrine also: and though there be one spirit & one doctrine, yet four are here named in respect of the diversitie of the four quarters of the earth, where the Gospel is spread, and for the four writers thereof, and the preachers of the same through the whole world.

b Meaning the men of the earth. c That is, the ylands. d Signifying all men in general, who can no more live without this spiritual doctrine, then trees can blossom and beare, except the winde blow upon them.

Or, Christ. e God preventeth the dangers and evils, which otherwise would overthrow the elect. f Those that are sealed by the spirit of God, and marked with the blood of the Lambe, & lightened in faith by the word of God, so that they make open profession of the same, are exempted from euill. g Though that this blindness be brought into the world by the malice of Satan, yet the mercies of God referre to himselfe an infinite number which shall be saved both of the Jewes & Gentiles, through Christ. h He omitteth Dan, and putteth Levi in, whereby he meaneth the twelue tribes.

13 And the starres of heauen fell vnto the earth as a fig tree casteth her green figs when it is shaken of a mighty winde.

14 And heauen departed away, as a scrole when it is rolled; and euery mountaine and yle were mooued out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captaynes, and the mighty men, and euery bondman, and euery freeman hid themselves in dens, and among the rocks of the mountaynes.

16 And said to the mountaynes & rocks, Fall on vs, and hide vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe.

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand? And he said vnto them, I am God, and I will punish them that curse me, and I will punish them that curse me, and I will punish them that curse me.

CHAP. VII.

4. 9 He seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheade out of all nations and people, which though they suffer trouble yet the Lambe feedeth them and leadeth them to the fountaines of living waters.

17 and God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

2 And I saw another Angel come by from the East, which had the seals of the living God, and he cried with a loud voyce to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth, and the sea.

3 Saying, Hurt ye not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till we haue sealed the seruants of our God in their foreheade.

4 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, and there were sealed an hundred and four and forty thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

9 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

10 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand.

11 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

12 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

Of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After these things I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and peoples, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long white robes, and palmes in their hands.

10 And they cryed with a loud voyce, saying, Saluation cometh of our God, that sitteth upon the throne, and of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the Elders, and the foure beasts, and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God.

12 Saying, Amen. Praise and glory, and wisdom, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto mee, What are these which are arrayed in long white robes, and whence came they?

14 And I said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of God, and serue him day and night in his Temple, and he that sitteth on the throne will dwell among them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sunne light on them, neither any heate.

17 For the Lambe, which is in the midst of the throne, shall gouerne them, and shall leade them vnto the liuely fountaines of waters, and God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

18 And I saw another Angel stand by the Altar, saying, Gather vnto me, and I will giue thee of these.

19 And he said vnto me, Write these things, for these words are true.

20 And when he had opened the seuenth seal, there was silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

21 And I saw the seuen Angels, which stood before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

22 Then another Angel came, and stood before the Altar, hauing a golden censur, and much adoure was giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden Altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the adoures with the prayers of the Saints, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the Altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundings, and lightnings, & earthquake.

6 Then the seven Angels, which had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and all greene grasse was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea, became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great floure from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the rivers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the floure is called Wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the Sunne was smitten, and the third part of the Moone, and the third part of them was darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying through the middes of heauen, saying with a loude voyce, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpets.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fifth and sixth Angel blow their trumpets: the floure falleth from heauen. 2 The locusts come out of the smoke. 3 The first woe is past. 4 The fourth Angel that was bound, is loosed. 5 And the third part of men is killed.

6 And the fifth Angel blew the trumpet, and I saw a starre which was fallen from heauen into the earth, and to him was giuen the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit: as the smoke of a great furnace, and the Sunne and the ayre were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any greenethyng, neither any tree: but onely those men which haue the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commanded that they should not kill them, but that they should be bered five moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that cometh of a scorpion, when he hath stung a man.

6 Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death, and shall not find it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And the forme of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heads were as it were crownes like vnto gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the haire of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had habergions, like to habergions of iron: and the sound of their wings was like the sound of charrets when many horses runne vnto battell.

10 And they had tailles like vnto scorpions, and there were stings in their tailles, and their power was to hurt men five moneths.

11 And they haue a king ouer them, which the elect, but such as are ordeined to perdition.

15 For at the beginning the King on their conscience seemeth something, but except they doone looke remedie, they perish. 16 Such is the terror of the vnbeleeuing conscience, which hath no assurance of mercy, but feeleth the iudgement of God against it, when men embrace error, and refuse the true simplicitie of Gods word. 17 Which signifie that the Popes Cleargie shall be proud, ambitious, bold, stout, rash, rebellious, stubborne, cruell, lecherous, and authors of waite and destruction of the simp's children of God.

18 They pretend a certaine title of honour, which indeed belongeth nothing vnto them, as the Priests by their crownes and strange apparell declare. 19 That is, they pretend great gentleness and loue: they are wise, politique, subtle, eloquent, and in worldly craft nesse passe all in all their doings.

20 That is, effeminate, delicate, idle, trimming themselves to please their harlots. 21 Signifying their oppression of the poore, and crueltie against Gods children. 22 Which signifie their hardnesse of heart, & obdination in their errors, with their assurances vnder the protection of worldly prances.

23 For as though they had wings, so are they lifted vp about the common sort of men, and esteemed most holy, and doe all things with rage and fiercenesse. 24 To infect and kill with their venomous doctrine.

25 This authority is chiefly committed to the Pope, in signe whereof he beareth the keyes in his armes.

26 Abundance of heresies and errors, which conuer with darknesse Christ and his Gospel.

27 Locusts are false teachers, heretikes, and worldly subtilty Prelates, with Monks, Friars, Cardinals, Patriarques, Archbishops, Bishops, Doctors, Bachelors, and Masters, which forsake Christ, to maintain false doctrine.

28 False and deceivable doctrine which is pleasant to the flesh.

29 That is, secretly to persecute, and to sting with their taile as scorpions doe: such is the fashion of the hypocrites.

30 For the false prophets cannot destroy the elect, but such as are ordeined to perdition.

31 That is, the infidels, whom Satan blindeth with the efficacie of error.

32 Though the elect be hurt, yet they cannot perish.

33 The elect for a certaine space, and at times, are in troubles: for the grasshoppers indure but from April to September, which is five moneths.

13 Then the first Angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four corners of the golden altar which is before God.

14 Saying to the first Angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four Angels, which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an hour, at a day, at a moneth, and at a yeere, to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twenty thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in a vision, and them that sat on them, having fiery habergeons, and of Jacinth, and of hyacinth, and the heads of the horses were as heads of lions: & out of their mouths went forth fire and smoke, and of hyacinth.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, & of the smoke, and of the hyacinth which came out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouths, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, & had heads wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold and of silver, and of brasse, and of stone, and of wood, which neither can see, neither heare, nor goe.

21 All they repented not of their murder, and of their sorcery, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAP. X.

1 The Angel hath the booke open. 6 He sweareth there shall be no more time. 9 Hee giueth the booke vnto Iohn, which eateth it vp.

And I saw another mighty Angel come downe from heauen clothed with a cloud, & the rainbow upon his head, and his face was as the sunne, and his feet as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little booke open, and he put his right foote vpon the sea, and his left on the earth.

3 And cryed with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cryed, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: but I heard a voice from heauen, saying vnto mee, Seal up those things which the seven thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I saw stand vpon the sea, & vpon the earth, lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And sware by him that liueth for evermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, & the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which therein are, that time should bee no more.

7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the seventh Angel, when he shall begin to blow the trumpet, euery myserie of God shall be finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heauen, spake vnto me againe, and said, Go and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the Angel, which standeth vpon the sea, and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and said to him, Giue me the little booke. And hee said vnto me, Take it, and eate it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth as sweete as honey.

10 Then Iooke the little Booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as sweete as honey: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said vnto me, Thou must prophesie againe among the people and nations, and tongues, and to many kings.

Ezek. 3. 1. o Which signifieth that the Ministers ought to receiue the word into their hearts, & to haue grave & deepe iudgement, and diligently to study it, & wish zeale to viter it. p Signifying, that albeit that the minister haue consolation by the word of God, yet shall he haue sore and grievous enemies which shall be troublesome vnto him. q Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this booke after his death should be as a preaching vnto all nations.

1 The Temple is measured. 3 Two witnesses raised by the Lord, are murdered by the beast. 11 but after receiued to glory. 15 Christ is exalted, 16 and God prayed by the foure and twenty Elders.

Then was giuen mee a reede, like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise and mete the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the Temple cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy City shall they tread vnder foote two and forty moneths.

3 But I will giue power vnto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a temple was diuided into three parts: the body of the temple which is called the Court, whereinto every man entred: the holy places where the Levites were: and the holiest of all, whereinto the high Priest once a yeere entred: in respect therefore of these two later, the first is said to be cast out, because as a thing prophane it is neglected when the Temple is measured, & yet the aduersaries of Christ boast that they are in the temple, & that none are of the Temple but they. c That is, the Church of God. d Meaning a certaine time: for God hath limited the times of Antichrists tyranny. e By two witnesses he meaneth all the preachers that shall build vpon Gods Church, alluding to Zerubbabel and Iehoshua, which were chiefly appointed for this thing, and also to this saying, In the mouth of two witnesses standeth euery word.

k The faithfull shall vnderstand and see this myserie of the last iudgement, the damnation of Antichrist and infidels, and also the glory of the iust at the resurrection.

l As S Iohn vnderstood this by reuelation, so is the same reuealed to the true preachers to discouer the Pope and Antichrist.

m Meaning, Christ. n That is, the holy Scriptures, which declare that the minister must receive them at the hand of God before he can preach them to others.

o Which signifieth that the Ministers ought to receiue the word into their hearts, & to haue grave & deepe iudgement, and diligently to study it, & wish zeale to viter it. p Signifying, that albeit that the minister haue consolation by the word of God, yet shall he haue sore and grievous enemies which shall be troublesome vnto him. q Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this booke after his death should be as a preaching vnto all nations.

a Which was Iesus Christ that came to comfort his Church against the furious assaults of Satan & Antichrist, so that in all their troubles the faithfull are fure to finde consolation in him.

b Iesus Christ beareth the testimony of Gods loue towards vs. c It ouercame all the darknes of the Angel of the bottomlesse pit. d Straight, strong, & pure from all corruptions. e Meaning the Gospel of Christ, which Antichrist cannot hide, seeing Christ bringeth it open in his hand. f Which declareth, that in despite of Antichrist the Gospel should be preached thorow all the world: so that the enemies shall be astounded. g The whole graces of Gods Spirit beareth themselves against Antichrist. Dan. 12. 4. h Belieue what that is written: for there is no neede to write more for the vnderstanding of Gods children.

Two witnesses murdered.

n That is, the Pope, which hath his power out of hell, and cometh thence.

o He sheweth how the Pope gaineth the victory, not by Gods word, but by cruell warre.

p Meaning, the whole iurisdiction of the Pope which is compared to Sodome for their abominable sinne, and to Egypt, because the true liberty to serue God, is taken away from the faithfull, and Christ was condemned by Pilate, who represented the Romane power which should be enemy to the godly.

q The infidels are tormented by hearing the truth preached.

r Which shall be at the last resurrection.

s For it seemed that Antichrist had chased them out of the earth.

t Of the power of Antichrist.

u When they shall vnderstand by Gods word the glory of his, and the punishment of his enemies, they shall fall from the Pope, and glorifie God.

x Abbeis Satan by the Pope, Turke, and other instruments troubleth the world neuer so much, yet Christ shall reigne.

z This declareth the office of the godly, which is to giue God thanks for the deliuerance of his, and to prayse his iustice for punishing of his enemies.

thousand two hundred & threescore dayes, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are two Olive trees, and two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man wil hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: for if any man would hurt them, thus must he be killed.

6 These haue power to shut heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophesying, and haue power ouer waters to turne them into blood, and to smite the earth with all manner of plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue finished their testimony, the beast that cometh out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their corpses shall lie in the streetes of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kinreds, and tongues, and Gentiles shall see their corpses three dayes and a halfe, and shall not suffer their carcases to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, shall reioyce ouer them, and be glad, and shall send giftes one to another: for these two Prophets haue vexed them that dwell on the earth.

11 But after three dayes and an halfe, the spirit of life comming from God, shall enter into them, and they shall stand vpon their feete: and great feare shall come vpon them which saw them.

12 And they shall heare a great voice from heauen, saying vnto them, Come vp hither. And they shall ascend vnto heauen in a cloud, and their enemies shall see them.

13 And the same houre shall there bee a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie shall fall, and in the earthquake shall be slaine in number seuen thousand: and the remnant shall be afraid, and giue glory to the God of heauen.

14 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe will come anon.

15 And the seventh Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauen, saying, The kingdomes of this world are our Lords, and his Christs, and hee shall reigne for evermore.

16 Then the foure and twenty Elders, which sat before God on their seates, fel vpon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, We giue thee thanks, Lord

God Almighty, which art, and which wast, and which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtained thy kingdom.

18 And the Gentiles were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should bee iudged, and that thou shouldst giue reward vnto thy seruants the Prophets, and to the Saints, and to them that feare thy Name, to small and great, and shouldst destroy them, which destroy the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was scene in his Temple the Arke of his Couenant: and there were lightnings, and voyces, and thundings, and earthquake, and much haste.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victory is gotten, to the comfort of the faithfull.

And there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A woman clothed with the sunne, and the moone was vnder her feete, and vpon her head a crowne of twelve starres.

2 And she was with childe, and cryed travailling in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for behold, a great red dragon hauing seven heads, and ten hornes, and seuen crownes vpon his heads:

4 And his taile drew the third part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth, and the Dragon stood before the woman, which was ready to be deliuered, to deuoure her childe when shee had brought it forth.

5 So shee brought forth a man childe, which should rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her sonne was taken vnto God and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into wilderness, where shee hath a place prepared of God, that they should feede her there a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen, Michael and his Angels fought against the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his angels.

8 But they preuailed not, neither was their place found any more in heauen.

9 And the great dragon that old serpent, called the deuill and Satan, was cast out, which deceiveth all the world: hee was cast out, and hee is prince of this world, and almost hath the vniuersall government. g By his flatteries and promises hee getteth many of the excellent ministers and honorable persons, and bringeth them to destruction.

k Iesus Christ & his members, as Apostles, Martyrs, and the rest of the faithfull.

a Which signifie the destruction of the enemies.

a In this third vision is declared how the Church which is compassed about with Iesus Christ the Sonne of righteousness, is persecuted of Antichrist.

b The Church treadeth vnder foote what ouer is mutable and inconstant, with all corrupt affections, and such like.

c Which signifieth God and his word.

d The Church euer with a most feruent desire longeth that Christ should be borne, and that the faithfull might be regenerate by his power.

e The deuill and all his power which turneth with fury, and is red with the blood of the faithfull.

f For hee is prince of this world, and almost hath the vniuersall government.

faith toward the most mighty.

24 Know therefore, that they which bee left behind, are more blessed then they that be dead.

25 These are the meanings of the vision, whereas thou sawest a man coming vp from the mids of the sea,

26 The same is he whom the most High hath kept a great season, who by his owne selfe shall deliuer his creature, and he shall order them that are left behind.

27 And whereas thou sawest, that out of his mouth there came as a blast with fire and flame,

28 And that he neither held sword nor weapon, but that by his fiercenesse he destroyed the whole multitude that came to fight against him, this is the interpretation,

29 Behold, the dayes come that the most High will begin to deliuer them that are vpon the earth:

30 And hee shall astonish the hearts of them that dwell vpon the earth:

31 And one shall prepare to fight against another, citie against citie, and place against place, * and nation against nation, and realme against realme.

32 When this commeth to passe, then shall the tokens come, that I shewed thee before, and then shall my sonne be reuealed, whom thou sawest goe vp as a man.

33 And when all the people heare his voyce, every man shall in their owne land leaue the battell that they haue one against another.

34 And an innumerable multitude shall bee gathered as one, as they that be willing to come, and to fight against him.

35 But he shall stand vpon the top of mount Sion.

36 And Sion shall come, and shall be shewed to all, being prepared and builded, as thou sawest the hill grauen forth without any hands.

37 And this my sonne shall rebuke the wicked inuentions of those nations, which for their wicked life are fallen into the tempest,

38 And into torments like to flame, whereby they shall be tormented: and without any labour will he destroy them even by the Law, which is compared vnto the fire.

39 And whereas thou sawest that he gathered another peaceable people vnto him,

40 Those are the ten tribes, which were carried away captiues out of their owne land * in the time of Oleeas the king, whom Salmanasar the king of the Assyrians tooke captiue, and carried them beyond the riuer: so were they brought into another land.

41 But they tooke this counsel to themselves, that they would leaue the multitude of the heathen, and goe forth into a further country, where neuer mankind dwelt,

42 That they might there keepe their statutes, which they neuer kept in their owne land.

43 And they entred in at the narrow passages of the riuer Euphrates.

44 For the most High then shewed them signes, * and stayed the springs of the flood till they were passed ouer.

45 For thow the countrey there was a great iourney, even of a yeere and a halfe, and the same region is called // Ararat.

46 Then dwelt they there vntill the latter time: and when they come forth againe, 47 The most High shall hold still the springs of the riuer againe, that they may goe thow to: therefore sawest thou the multitude peaceable.

48 But they that be left behind of thy people, are those that be found within my borders.

49 Now when he destroyeth the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, he shall defend the people that remaine.

50 And then shall he shew great wonders vnto them.

51 Then said I, O Lord, Lord, shew me this, wherefore haue I seene the man coming vp from the mids of the sea:

52 And hee said vnto me, As thou canst neither seeke out, nor know these things that are in the deepe of the sea, so can no man vpon earth see my sonne, or those that bee with him, but in the time of that day.

53 This is the interpretation of the dreame which thou sawest, and whereby thou onely art lightened.

54 For thou hast forsaken thine owne law, and applied thy diligence vnto mine, and sought it.

55 Thy life hast thou ordered in wisdom, and hast called vnderstanding thy mother.

56 Therefore haue I shewed thee the rewards with the most High: and after these other dayes I will speake other things vnto thee, and will declare vnto thee great and wonderous things.

57 Then went I forth vnto the field, glorifying and praising the most High for the wonders which he did in time, 58 Which he gouerneth, and such things as come in their seasons: and there I sate three dayes.

CHAP. XIII.

3 How God appeared to Moses in the bush. 10 All things decline to age. 15 The latter times worse then the former. 29 The ingratitude of Israel. 35 The resurrection and iudgement.

Vpon the third day I sate vnder an oke, and behold, there came forth a voyce vnto mee out of the bush, and said, Eldas, Eldas.

2 And I said, Here am I, Lord, and stood by vpon my fette.

3 Then said he vnto me, * In the bush I reuealed my selfe, and spake vnto Moyses, when my people serued in Egypt:

4 And I sent him, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him vpon the mount Sinai, and I held him with me a long season,

5 And I told him many wonders, & shewed him the secrets of the times and the end, and commanded him, saying,

6 These wordes shalt thou declare, and these shalt thou blee.

7 And now I say vnto thee, that thou lay vp in thine heart the signes that I haue shewed, and the dreames that thou hast seene, and the interpretations, which thou hast heard.

8 For thou shalt be taken away from all, and thou shalt remaine henceforth with my counsell, and with such as be like thee, vntill the times be ended.

9 For the world hath lost his youth, and the times times begin to waxe olde.

10 For y^e world is diuided into twelue parts, and ten parts of it are gone already, and halfe of the tenth part.

11 And there remaineth that which is after the halfe of the tenth part.

12 Therefore let thine house in order, and reforme thy people, and comforte such of them as be in trouble, and now renounce the corruption.

13 Let goe from thee mortall thoughts: cast away from thee the burdens of men, and put off now the weake nature,

14 And let aside thy most greivous thoughts, and haste thee to depart from those times.

15 For greater evils then those, which thou hast seene now, shall they commit.

16 For the weaker that the world is by reason of age, the more shall the evils bee increased vpon them that dwell therein.

17 For the truth is fled farre away, and lies are at hand: for now hasteth the vision to come, that thou hast seene.

18 ¶ Then answered I, and said before thee,

19 Behold, O Lord, I will goe as thou hast commanded me, and reforme the people, which are present: but they that shall bee borne afterward, who shall admonish them?

20 Thus the world is set in darkenesse, and they that dwell therein, are without light.

21 For thy Law is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the workes that shall be done.

22 But if I haue found grace before thee, send the holy Ghost into me, and I wil write all that hath bin done in the world since the beginning, which was written in thy Law, that men may finde the path, and that they which will liue in the latter dayes, may liue.

23 And he answered me, saying, Goe and gather the people, and say vnto them, that they seeke thee not for forty dayes,

24 But prepare thee many booke tables, and take with thee these five, Sarcas, Dabzia, Selemita, Ecanus, & Aziel, which are ready to write swiftly,

25 And come hither, and I will light a candle of vnderstanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out, til the things be performed which thou shalt begin to write.

26 And then shalt thou declare some things openly vnto the perfect men, and some things shalt thou shew secretly vnto the wise: to morrow this houre shalt thou begin to write.

27 Then went I forth, as he commanded me, and gathered all the people together, and said, 28 Heare these words, O Israel.

29 * Our fathers at the beginning were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were deliuered,

30 And receiued the Law of life, * which they kept not, which yee also haue transgressed after them.

31 Then was the land, euen the land of Sion parted among you by lot: but your fathers and yee also haue done vnrightheously, and haue not kept the wayes, which the most High commanded you.

32 And for so much as hee is a righteous iudg^r, he tooke from you in time the thing that he had given you.

33 And now are yee here, and your brethren among you.

34 Therefore if so be that ye wil subdne your owne vnderstanding, and reforme your heart, ye shall be kept aliue, and after death shall ye obtaine mercy.

35 For after death shall the iudgement come, when wee shall liue againe: and then shall the names of the righteous bee manifest, and the workes of the vngodly shall be declared.

36 Let no man therefore come now vnto me, nor seeke me these forty dayes.

37 So I tooke the five men, as he commanded me, and wee went into the field, and remained there.

38 The next day, behold, a voyce called mee, saying, Esdras, * open thy mouth, and drinke Ezek 3.2. that I giue thee to drinke.

39 Then opened I my mouth, and behold, he reached me a full cup, which was full as it were with water: but the colour of it was like fire.

40 And I tooke it, and dranke, and when I had drunke it, mine heart had vnderstanding, and wisdom grew in my breast: for my spirit was strengthened in memory.

41 And my mouth was opened, and shut no more.

42 The most High gave vnderstanding vnto the five men, that they wrote the high things of the night, which they vnderstood not.

43 But in the night they did eat bread, but I spake by day, and held not my tongue by night.

44 In forty dayes, they wrote two hundred and foure bookes.

45 And when the forty dayes were fulfilled, the most High spake, saying, The first that thou hast written, publish openly, that the worthy and unworthy may reade it.

46 But keepe the leuentie last, that thou mayest giue them to the wise among thy people.

47 For in them is the veine of vnderstanding, and the fountaine of wisdom, and the riuer of knowledge: and I did so.

CHAP. XV.

1 The prophesie of Esdras is certaine. 5 The evils that shall come on the world. 9 The Lords will auenge the innocent blood. 12 Egypt shall lament. 16 Sedition 20 and punishment vpon the kings of the earth. 24 Cursed are they that sinne. 29 Troubles and warres vpon the whole earth. 33 God is the reuenger of his elect.

BEhold, speake thou in the eares of my people the words of prophesie, which I will put in thy mouth, saith the Lord:

2 And cause them to bee written in a letter: for they are faithfull and true.

3 Feare not the imaginations against thee: let not the vnfaithfulness of the speakers trouble thee, that speake against thee.

4 For euery vnfaithfull shall die in his vnfaithfulness.

5 Behold, saith the Lord, I wil bring plagues vpon all the world, the sword, famine, death, and destruction:

6 Because that iniquity hath fully polluted all the earth, & their wicked workes are fulfilled.

7 Therefore, saith the Lord, I will hold my tongue no more for their wickednesse, (they doe vngodly) neither wil I suffer them in the things that they doe wickedly.

8 Behold,

Gen. 47. 4.

Acts 7. 53.

Reuel. 6. 10.
and 19. 2.

8 Behold, the innocent and righteous blood crieth vnto me, and the soules of the iust cry continually.

9 I will surely avenge them, saith the Lord, and receiue vnto me all the innocent blood from among them.

10 Behold, my people is led as a flocke to the slaughter: I will not suffer them now to dwell in the land of Egypt.

11 But I will bring them out with a mighty hand, and a stretched out arme, and smite it with plagues as afore, and will destroy all the land thereof.

12 Egypt shall mourne, and the foundations thereof shall be smitten with the plague and punishment, that God shall bring vpon it.

13 The plowmen that till the ground, shall mourne: for their seedes shall faile through the blasting and haile, and by an horrible starre.

14 Woe to the world, and to them that dwell therein.

15 For the sword, and their destruction draweth neere, and one people shall stand vp to fight against another with swords in their hands.

16 For there shall be sedition among men, and one shall invade another: they shall not regard their king, and the princes shall measure their doings by their power.

17 A man shall desire to goe into a citie, and shall not be able.

18 Because of their pride the cities shall be troubled, the houses shall be afraid, men shall feare.

19 A man shall haue no pittie vpon his neighbour, but shall destroy their houses with the sword, and their goods shall be spoiled for lacke of bread, and because of great trouble.

20 Behold, saith God, I call together all the Kings of the earth to reuence mee, which are from the East, and from the South, from the East, and from Libanus, to turne vpon them and to repay the things that they haue done to them.

21 As they doe yet this day vnto my chosen, so will I doe also, and recompense them in their boisme: thus saith the Lord God, 22 My right hand shall not spare the sinners, neither shall the sword cease from them, that shed innocent blood vpon earth.

23 The fire is gone out from his wrath, and hath consumed the foundations of the earth, and the sinners like the straw that is kindled.

24 Woe to them that sinne, and keepe not my commandments, saith the Lord.

25 I will not spare them: depart, O children from the power: defile not my Sanctuary.

26 For the Lord knoweth all them that sinne against him, and therefore deliuereth hee them vnto death and destruction.

27 For now are the plagues come vpon the world, and ye shall remaine in them: for God will not deliuer you, because ye haue sinned against him.

28 Behold, an horrible vision cometh from the East,

29 Where generations of dragons of Arabia shall come out with many chariots, and the multitude of them shall be carried as the wind vpon the earth, that all they which heare them, may feare and tremble.

30 Euen the Carmanians raging in wrath, shall goe forth as the boares of the forest, and shall come with great power, and stand against them in battel, and shall destroy a portion of the land of the Assyrians.

31 But after this shall the dragons haue the vpper hand, & remember their nature, and shall turne about: and conspire to consume them with a great power.

32 Then these shall be troubled, and keepe silence by their power, and shall flee.

33 From the land of the Assyrians shall the enemy besiege them, and consume some of them, and in their hoste shall be feare and dread, and strife among their kings.

34 Behold cloudes from the East, and from the North vnto the South, and they are very horrible to looke vpon, full of wrath and storne.

35 They shall smite one vpon another: and they shall smite downe a great multitude of starres vpon the earth: euen their owne starre, and the blood shall be from the sword vnto the belly,

36 And the dung of man vnto the Camels litter.

37 And there shall be great fearefulnesse and trembling vpon earth, and they that see the wrath, shall be afraid, and a trembling shall come vpon them.

38 And then there shall come great stormes from the South, and from the North, and part from the West.

39 And from the East shall windes arise, and shall open it with the cloud, which hee raised vp in wrath, and the starre, raised to feare the East and West winde, shall be destroyed.

40 And the great and mighty clouds shall be lift vp full of wrath, and the starre, that they may make all the earth afraide, and them that dwell therein, and that they may powre out ouer euery high place, and lifted vp, an horrible constellation,

41 As fire and haile, and flying swords, and many waters, that all fields may be full, and all riuers with the aboundance of great waters.

42 And they shall breake downe the cities, and walles and mountaines, and hills, and the trees of the wood, and the grasse of the meadowes, and their come.

43 And they shall goe with a straight course vnto Babylon, and make it afraid.

44 They shall come to her and besiege her, and shall powre forth the constellation, and all the wrath against her: then shall the dust and smoke goe vp vnto the heauen, and all they that be about her, shall bewaile her.

45 And they that remaine vnder her, shall doe seruice vnto them that haue put her in feare.

46 And thou Asia, that art partaker of the hope of Babylon, and the glory of her person, 47 Woe vnto thee, O wretch, because thou hast made thy selfe like vnto her, and hast deckt thy daughters in whoredome, that they might please and glory in thy louers, which haue alway desired to commit whoredome with thee.

48 Thou hast followed her that is hated in all her workes and in her inventions: therefore saith God,

49 I will

10r, 11r.

49 I will send plagues vpon thee, widowhood, pouertie, and famine, and the sword, and pestilence, to waste thine houses with destruction and death.

50 And the glory of thy power shall be dyed by, as a flowre when the heat riseth, that is sent vpon thee.

51 Thou shalt be sicke as a poore wife that is plagued and beaten of women, so that the mightie, and the louers shall not be able to receiue thee.

52 Would I thus hate thee, saith the Lord,

53 If thou hadst not alwayes slaine my cholen, exalting the stroke of thine hands, and said ouer their death, when thou wast drunken,

54 Set forth the beautie of thy countenance?

55 The reward of thy whoredome shall be in thy holome: therefore shalt thou receiue a reward.

56 As thou hast done vnto my cholen, saith the Lord, so will God doe vnto thee, and will deliuer thee vnto the plague.

57 And thy children shall die of hunger, and thou shalt fall by the sword, and thy cities shall be broken downe, and all thy men shall fall by the sword in the field.

58 And they that be in the mountaines, shall die of hunger, and eat their owne flesh, and drinke their owne blood for want of bread and thirst of water.

59 And thou, as vnhappy, shalt come thorow the Sea, and receiue plagues againe.

60 In the passage they shall cast downe the slaine citie, and shall roote out one part of thy land, and consume the portion of thy glory, and shall returne to her that was destroyed.

61 When thou shalt be cast downe, thou shalt be to them as stubble, and they shall bee to thee as fire.

62 And they shall destroy thee, and thy cities, thy land, and thy mountaines: all thy woods and all thy fruitfull trees shall they burne with fire.

63 Thy children shall they carry away captiue, and shall spoile thy substance, and marre the beautie of thy face.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Against Babylon, Asia, Egypt and Syria, 18. 38 Of the euill that shall come vpon the world, with admonition how to gouerne themselves in afflictions. 54 To acknowledge their sinnes, and to commit themselves to the Lord. 55 whose mighty prouidence & iustice is to be reuerenced.

WOe to thee, Babylon, and Asia: woe to thee, Egypt, and Syria.

2 Gird your selues with sack and hairecloth, and mourne your children, and be sorie: for your destruction is at hand.

3 A sword is sent vnto you, and who will turne it backe? a fire is sent among you, and who will quench it?

4 Plagues are sent vnto you, and who can driue them away?

5 May any man driue away an hungry Lion in the wood? or quench the fire in stubble when it hath once begun to burne? may one turne againe the arrow, that is shot of a strong archer?

6 The mightie Lord sendeth the plagues, and who can driue them away? the fire is gone forth in his wrath, and who can quench it?

7 He shall cast lightnings, and who shall not feare? he shall thunder, and who shall not be afraid?

8 The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not utterly be broken in pieces at his presence? the earth quaketh, and the foundation thereof: the sea ariseth vp with waues from the deepe: and the waues thereof are troubled, and the fishes thereof, before the Lord and the glory of his power.

9 For strong is his right hand, that bendeth the bow: his arrowes that hee shooteth, are sharpe, and shall not misse, when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world.

10 Behold, the plagues are sent, and shall not turne againe till they come vpon earth.

11 The fire is kindled, and shall not bee put out till it consume the foundations of the earth.

12 As an arrow which is shotte of a mighty archer, returneth not backward, so the plagues that shall be sent vpon earth, shall not turne againe.

13 Woe is me, woe is me: who will deliuer me in those dayes?

14 The beginning of sorowes and great mourning: the beginning of famine, and great death: the beginning of warres, and the powers shall feare: the beginning of euils, and all shall tremble. What shall I doe in these things, when the plagues come?

15 Behold, famine, and plague, and trouble, and anguish are sent as scourges for amende-ment.

16 But for all these things they wil not turne from their wickednesse, nor be alway mindfull of the scourges.

17 Behold, victuals shall bee so good cheape vpon earth, that they shall thinke themselves to bee in good case: but then shall the euils budde forth vpon earth, even the sword, the famine, and great confusion.

18 For many of them that dwel vpon earth, shall perish with famine, and the other that escape the famine, shall the sword destroy.

19 And the dead shall be cast out as dung, and there shall be no man to comfort them: for the earth shall be waste, and the cities shall be cast downe.

20 There shall be no man left to till the earth, and to sowe it: the trees shall giue fruit, but who shall gather them?

21 The grapes shall bee ripe but who shall tread them? for all places shall be desolate, so that one man shall desire to see another, or to heare his voyce.

22 For of one citie there shall be ten left, and two of the field which shall hide themselves in the thicke woods, and in the clefts of rocks.

23 As when there remaine three or foure olives in the place where olives grow, or among other trees,

24 Or as when a vineyard is gathered, there are left some grapes of them that diligently sought thorow the vineyard:

25 So in those dayes there shall bee three or foure left by them that search their houses with the sword, 26 And the earth shall be left waste, and the fields thereof shall waie old, and her wayes and all her paths shall grow full of thornes, because no man shall traualle therethrough.

27 The

c The greatest part of the world hath bene abused and seduced by this spirituall whoredome.

d When God threateth the wicked, he euer comforteth and counselleth his what they ought to doe, that is, that they do not communicate with the sinnes of the wicked.

e The Greeke word is, that her sinnes so follow one another, and so rise one after another, that they grow to such an heape, that at length they touch the very heauens.

f Blessed is he that can repay to the whore the like, as it is written, Psal. 137. 8, 9. ffa. 47. 8.

g The glorious boasting of the strumpet.

h But full of people and mighty.

i Both they that temporally haue had profit by the strumpet, & also the spirituall merchants shall for sorrow and want of their gaine, cry out and despaire.

k Which is very odoriferous and precious.

l Such as the wantons vse at Rome.

m This is the vilest ware, that these merchants sell, & best cheap, which soules notwithstanding the Son of God redeemed with his precious blood, n That is, the things which thou louest best.

o And so shew signes of great sorrow.

3 For all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, & the merchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, Go out of her my people, that ye be not partakers in her sinnes, and that ye receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are come by vnto heauen, & God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 Reward her, euen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes; and in the cup that she hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 In as much as shee glorified her selfe, and liued in pleasure so much giue you to her torment & sorrow: for shee saith in her heart, I sit being a quene, and am not a widow, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death and sorrow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condemne her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

10 And shall stand afarre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weepe and waile ouer her: for no man buyeth her ware any more.

12 The ware of gold and silver, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linnen, and of purple, and of silke, and of scarlet, and of all maner of thyne wood, and of all vessels of vnoie, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, & of yron, and of marble,

13 And of cynamom, and odours, and oymments, and frankincense, and wine, and oyle, and fine flour, and wheate, and beasts, and sheepe, and hoxes, and charrets, and seruants, and soules of men.

14 And the apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, & thou shalt finde them no more.

15 The merchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stand afarre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and walling.

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linnen, and purple, and scarlet, and gilded with gold, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, and all the people that occupie shippes, and shipmen, and whosoever trauest on the sea, shall stand afarre off, 18 And cry, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shall cast dust on their heads, and cry weeping, & wayling, and say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made rich all that had shippes on the sea by her: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mighty Angell tooke vp a stone, like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great city Babylon be cast, & shall be found no more.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters shall be heard no more in thee, and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he bee, shall be found any more in thee, and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more in thee: & the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine enchantments were deceiued all nations.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praises are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for auenging the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

And after these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, Hallelu iah, saluation, and glory, and honour, and power bee to the Lord our God.

2 For true and righteous are his iudgements: for hee hath condemned the great whore which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

3 And againe they said, Hallelu iah: and her smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twenty Elders, and the foure beasts fel downe, and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen, Hallelu iah.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both small and great.

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thundrings, saying, Hallelu iah, for our Lord God Almighty hath reigned.

7 Let vs bee glad and reioyce, and giue glory to him: for the mariage of the Lambes is come, and his wife hath made her selfe ready.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed with pure fine linnen, and shining: for the fine linnen is the righteousness of Saints.

CHAP. XXI.

3. 24 The blessed estate of the godly, 8. 27 and the miserable condition of the wicked. 13 The description of the heavenly Ierusalem, and of the wife of the Lambe.

And I saw a new heaven, and a new earth: for the first heaven, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy Citie new Ierusalem come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shall be their God with them.

4 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, neither crying, neither shall there be any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that sat vpon the throne, said, Behold, I make all things new: and he said vnto mee, Write: for these words are faithfull and true.

6 And he said vnto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, I will giue to him that is thirst, of the well of the water of life freely.

7 He that ouercometh, shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my sonne.

8 But the fearefull, and unbelieuing, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, & sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall haue their part in the lake which burneth with fire & brimstone, which is the second death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with mee, saying, Come, I will shew thee the bride, the Lambes wife.

10 And he caried me away in the spirit to a great and a high mountain, and he shewed me the great Citie, holy Ierusalem, descending out of heauen from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a Jasper stone, cleare as Crystal,

12 And had a great wall and hie, and had twelue gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names writtten, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On y East part there were three gates, and on the North side three gates, on the South side three gates, and on the West side three gates.

14 And the wall of the Citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay foursquare, and the length is as large as the bredth of it, and hee measured the citie with y reed, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, & the bredth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred, forty and foure cubits, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Jasper: and the city was pure golde like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was Jasper: the second of Saphir: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emerald:

20 The fifth of a Sardonyx: the sixth of a Sardius: the seventh of a Chrysolite: the eighth of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaz: the tenth of a Chrysoprasus: the eleventh of a Iacinth: the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue, pearles, and euery gate is of one pearle, and the freete of the city is pure gold, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lambe are the Temple and the Altar.

23 And the citie hath no neede of the sunne, neither of the moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 And the people which are saued, shall walke in the light of it: and the Kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour vnto it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glory and honour of the Gentiles shall be brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none vncleane thing, neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination or lies: but they which are writtten in the Lambes booke of life.

m Euer greene and flourishing.
n Signifying, that the faithfull shall be surely kept in heauen.
o That is place enough to enter: for els we know there is but one way, & one gate, euen Iesus Christ.
p For the Apostles were means whereby Iesus Christ the true foundation was revealed to the world.

q This declareth that Christ is God inseparable with his Father.
r Here we see as in infinite other places, that kings and princes (contrary to that wicked opinion of the Anabaptists) are partakers of the heavenly glory, if they rule in the feare of the Lord.

g This is not then as the other prophecies which were commanded to be hid till the time appointed, as in Daniel 12. 4 because that these things should bee quickly accomplished, and did now begin.

And he shewed mee a pure riuer of water of life cleare as crystall, proceeding out of the throne of GOD, and of the Lambe.

2 In the middes of the streete of it, and of either side of the riuer, was the tree of life, which bare twelue manner of fruits, and gaue fruite euery moneth: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale the nations with.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shalbe in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

4 And they shall see his face, & his name shalbe in their foreheads.

5 And there shalbe no night there, and they neede no candle, neither light of the sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 And hee said vnto mee, These wordes are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the wordes of the prophetic of this booke.

8 And I am John, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angel, which shewed mee these things.

9 But he said vnto mee, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worship God.

10 And he said vnto me, Seale not the wordes of the prophetic of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is vnjust, let him be vnjust still:

and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that their right may be in the tree of life, and may enter in thowow the gates into the citie.

15 For without shalbe dogs and inchanters, and whozenongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loueth, or maketh lies.

16 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the roote and the generation of David, and the bright morning starre.

17 And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come: and let him that is athirst, come: and let whosoever will, take of the water of life freely.

18 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophetic of this booke, If any man shall adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the book of this prophetic, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, & from those things which are written in this booke.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so come Lord Iesus.
